C. M. WOOSTER COMPANY, 702 Market St., San Francisco, Cal.

WHEN you wish to buy a residence, do you go to a timber dealer? When you want a load of wood do you phone the laundryman? When you conclude to buy or trade for a wheat farm, why go to real estate men, who know nothing about that class of property? I am the best posted man, in this line, in Oregon, owning, and farming many thousands of acres, and having options on many thousands more; why am I not the one to see? I have farms to sell, some to exchange, also control several thousand acres under proposed irrigation canal.

A GARDEN PATCH.

This is the very best name we can think of for our 5-acre subdivision, Mulinemah Acres No. 2. A piece of land that will grow anything; on one of these fine tracts there is a small orchard, an old house and a good well and barn, besides one acre of strawberries; on another there is a very large hophouse that an industrious worker could convert into a very nifty house and still have lumber enough for a good barn; on this piece there is also about one acre of fine strawberries. Only 7 miles from Courthouse, on good county road, milk route, mail route, telephone; even your groceries delivered to your door; only % mile from carline and 2 miles from a 11-jc carfare; $250 gives you possession.
