These Waists Go on Sale WEDNESDAY ONLY Most of Them "Just About Half" What You Pay Elsewhere

—The manufacturers of waists are complaining. The recent unfavorable weather in the East has demoralized the waist business for the New York manufacturer. They say business has fallen short of their expectation.

—As retailers we are wide awake to the meaning of just such information. When a manufacturer complains he is usually carrying a burden of unsold stock and where there is unsold stock there is always an opportunity of bargain getting. Such is the case in this instance.

—Our New York resident buyer wired us to make an offer for this entire surplus stock. Our answer was to take the lot if the price made would insure quick distribution. That's what he did.

—We illustrate eight of these waists. The representation is paltry when you remember there are over 6000 waists in this sale. These cuts are merely suggestions of what you may expect.

—Needing a waist for now, or the warm days soon to come, you will hardly ignore this chance.

—Remember this sale is for Wednesday only—Plenty of waists at higher prices, and the more you pay for a waist the more you save—Lingerie, Mull, Linen, Batiste, Marquisette, Madras Linon, Hand-Embroidered, Lace Trimmed Novelty Effects, Print Warp Silk, Changeable, Mes-saline, Taffeta and Pongee, Check and Stripe Novelty Silks.

—No Telephone, C. O. D. or Mail Orders filled.

Sale Price $3.82

—Modeled of dainty mull with yoke of fine embroidery and cluny insertion bands the entire length of the front with alternate rows of pin tucking. The sleeves and back trimmed with the insertion and tucks.

Sale Price $1.13

—The new side ruff waist of fine cross-bar in black, blue or brown. Plaited front, laundered collar. One of the nobbiest waists of the season.

SEIDEL NOW MAYOR

Socialists Are in Power in Milwaukee.

SHORTER HOURS DESIRED

New Executive, In Inaugural Address, Urges Measures in Interest of Workers—Streetcar Improvements Suggested.

MILWAUKEE, April 19.—Control of the municipal government of Milwaukee was taken over today by the Social Democrats with the inauguration of Emil Seidel as Mayor and the induction to office of 21 members of his party as Aldermen. The other Aldermen include ten Democrats and four Republicans.

In his inaugural address Mayor Seidel advocated the passage of measures designed to promote the well being of the working class, such as rigid sanitary inspection of workshops and the specification in public contracts of "hours of labor that are not exhausting."

He recommended the establishment of a bureau of research and the calling in of an expert to advise the commission in the creation of a cost-keeping system in each city department and in other efforts in the direction of "sound economics."

An ordinance requiring the cleaning of streets to prevent the spread of contagious diseases; an appeal to the State Railroad Commission for an order compelling the equipment of cars with wrecking and lifesaving apparatus, and stricter enforcement of the liquor laws were urged.

He suggested that the Controller be called upon to make a complete report by July, 1910, on the financial condition of the city and that the City attorney be required to give an opinion by that time as to when and how "we can establish a municipal electric lighting plant."

The City Hall "house-cleaning" of office-holders began today with the entrance of the new administration. Mayor Seidel announced a long list of appointments.

Harry B. Driggs, an instructor in the Milwaukee Trades School, was made Commissioner of Public Works to supplant the present board of three commissioners, at a salary of $800, the highest salaried appointment in the gift of the Mayor.

Walter P. Stroesser, a tailor, was appointed Commissioner of Public Health, temporarily and Joseph Ullrich, a wealthy brewer, was made Commissioner of the Public Debt.

OLD BUDGET INTRODUCED

Lloyd-George Comments Upon Decrease in Whisky Consumption.

LONDON, April 19.—David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, reintroduced last year's budget in the House of Commons today. He declared that he realized that the present deficit of $121,240,000 would be more than wiped out when all arrears had been collected and that there would be an actual surplus of $14,800,000.

If the budget had been passed as usual last year, he said, there would have been a surplus of $21,000,000.

The Chancellor commented upon the remarkable decrease of 32 per cent in the consumption of whisky, a decrease that he attributed mainly to the extra duty imposed. The loss in the revenue from spirits as compared with the estimated figure was $14,000,000.

Masons to Confer Degree.

Master Mason's degree will be conferred at a meeting tonight of Washington Lodge No. 46, A. F. & A. M., in its hall at East Eighth and East Burnside streets. All past masters will occupy their stations. This has been a custom in Washington lodges for the past decade and is usually attended by as full a membership as possible. Throughout the year it is looked forward to as the big event and tonight's meeting, it is said, will be no exception.

SESSION IS HEATED

Clerk's Dismissal Attacked in D. A. R. Congress.

PRESIDENT TO BE UPHELD

Mrs. M. T. Scott Wins Apparent Victory in Stormy Meeting, but Will Not Seek Re-Election as Head of Women's Organization.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The National Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution was called to order today by Mrs. M. T. Scott, president-general, and after the reading of the minutes reports were read from the National officers. Mrs. Scott was followed by the vice-president-general, in charge of the organization of chapters, Mrs. Miranda B. Tulloch; the chaplain-general, Mrs. Esther F. Noble; the recording secretary-general, Miss Mary Wilcox; the corresponding secretary-general, Mrs. Lyman B. Swormsted; the registrar-general, Miss Grace M. Pierce, and the treasurer-general, Mrs. William D. Hoover.

The convention later was addressed by Governor Noel of Mississippi. State conferences of the Daughters last night indicated that the administration of Mrs. Scott as president-general would be sustained in tomorrow's election.

The meeting became stormy when President-General Scott presented her report as chairman of the National board of management. The controversy was over the dismissal last February, by Mrs. Scott, of Miss Agnes Gerald, a copyist at headquarters here. Those of the delegates who did not side with the president-general took their stand with Miss Mary R. Wilcox, who espoused Miss Gerald's side of the case. Mrs. Scott announced that she would not be a candidate for re-election because of the sacrifice involved.
