PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 11, Oakland 6. Sacramento 4, San Francisco 1. Vernon 7, Los Angeles 1. Standing of the Clubs.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. It was ladies' day at the ball park yesterday and the gaily bedecked, smiling enthusiastic bevy of fair fans simply played havoc with the hearts of both teams. Some of the brave boys doing duty for Portland and Oakland, you know, are the most bashful fellows imaginable, and before they got through with nine innings of the erratic baseball played yesterday, the score sheet read like a Chinese puzzle out of which was finally deciphered 11 runs for Portland to a half dozen for Wolverton's blushing young things.

Of course the victory scored by the home team was heartily appreciated by the feminine portion of the crowd, though the men uttered some subdued profanity, partly because of the poor playing, but mostly because the game occupied the better part of two hours and a half. For a time it seemed as if both teams would keep on scoring runs all night. Most men who go to a ball game like to get home in time to put up a stall to their wives that they have had a busy day at the office, and when performances which last nearly three hours are put up to them, they get so flustered they forget the "stall thing" they had framed for the wife.

Bill is the most tantalizing pitcher in the business when his team is in the lead, for he seductively lingers in lobbing the ball to the batter, which tends to cause heart failure on the part of over enthusiastic fans. Oakland's lead was due to a ball game mostly to boots retained by the Portland tossers, who had not got rid of the habit acquired Thursday. After the sixth, when the home guard were out the plate chasing runs across, Steen allowed the visitors to clout some.

to quit at the end of three rounds. Jeffries was keen for more, and Berger was taken on for two rounds. The going was fast in both bouts, but the big fighter stood it well and could easily have kept up the pace for another set-to if he could have found a partner. Berger frequently landed a right uppercut. This is one of Johnson's favorite punches, and Berger employed it wherever possible, with a view to coaching Jeffries in blocking it. Joe Choyinski was an interested spectator of the boxing here. He expressed surprise at Jeffries' condition. Joe's working toes will have arrived tomorrow morning and he will be able to assume his duties as assistant if called upon.
