LABOR TROUBLES DO NOT THREATEN

Only Few Spots Where Strikes May Disturb Harmony of Portland.

CARPENTERS NOT TO FIGHT

Plumbers and Electrical Workers Alone Have Disputes—Unions Are Absorbed in Initiative of Employers' Liability Bill.

All labor troubles in Portland will come to a crisis May 1. On next Monday, if there are to be any strikes or walk-outs, they will materialize then. Information gained at the Labor Temple yesterday and last night from the business agents of the various trade unions was to the effect that there will be no trouble, as it is believed all demands and disputes can be settled amicably.

For the past three months trouble has been brewing in the industrial life of the city. These troubles will end in a partial victory for both employers and employes. The "closed shop," for which a fight has been waged, is regarded as lost to the unions. On the other hand, there has been a general increase in nearly all of the wage scales.

At a meeting last night of the Carpenters' Union, representing about 1000 members, it was voted "not to strike." The principal demand of the carpenters has been for a "closed shop." This idea has been abandoned as well as the increase in the wage scale agitated some weeks ago.

Only Two Signs of Trouble.

In only one or two of the building trades unions, around which the storm of agitation centered, is there any likelihood of trouble. The journeymen plumbers and electrical workers have both made demands for increased wages. It is believed these will be granted, and that further trouble will not result. If they are not, the men firmly declare they will strike. In the case of the journeymen plumbers, a strike might be disastrous to building activities in the city.

According to information at the Labor Temple last night, the dispute between the journeymen and the master plumbers is to be settled between the individual employers and the men employed by them. The plumbers want $6 a day instead of $5, and Saturday afternoon off. In several instances, it was said, this has already been granted. The electrical workers have asked for an increase from $3.50 a day to $4. It is believed this will be granted. If it is not a strike may result.

Lathers, plasterers, ironworkers, hoisting engineers, machinists and painters have all been granted increased wages. The severest defeat was sustained by the carpenters, who realized the weakness of their own organization and voted for peace. Out of about 5000 carpenters in the city only about one-fifth belong to the union. To offset this condition in the future, an organization campaign is being conducted. Scores are taken in at every meeting. Last night more than 100 new members were added to the union.

Labor leaders say this is true of all other unions in the city and, in fact, the entire state. It is proposed to organize thoroughly all trades in Oregon and within the next two years make a fight for the "closed shop" in all of them, according to a statement last night by an official of the State Federation of Labor.

Unions Fight for Liability Bill.

The principal fight now being conducted by the unions is on the liability law proposed by them through the initiative and which will be submitted to the voters of the state at the Fall elections. Half a dozen men are busy sending out literature to voters. A little booklet has been printed, containing the arguments in favor of its adoption, and is being sent to every minister. In this way it is sought to enlist the sympathy of church people in their cause.

The bill proposed by the Oregon Employers' Association which shall eliminate the bad features of the present proposed by the unions, will be fought to the end, according to Secretary J. C. Cassidy, of the Oregon Federation of Labor, who has direct charge of the campaign.

"We already have over 8000 signers to our petition," said Mr. Cassidy. "We are, however, going to secure 20,000."

Brewery Men Organized.

What is held to be one of the most signal victories of the unions is in the case of the brewery workers. The National organizer has been in the city several weeks and before leaving yesterday announced that the men have been organized and have been granted an increase in wages of $3 per week.

According to H. J. Parkinson, editor of the Labor Press and executive committeeman of the Carpenters' Union, there has never been any real likelihood of a general fight for the "closed shop." "It has been largely a matter of 'talk,'" he said. "We don't want any trouble and the legitimate employers do not.

"The case of the streetcar men has been the cause of considerable of this talk. These men were unable to organize because the people in power had too strong a hold on them."

VALLEY OF ROGUE VISITED

son, president of the Commercial Club. In the anteroom, punch made from the mineral waters that gush from springs in the city was served.

Here some of the Portland speakers, impressed by the possibilities of the Rogue River Valley as a drawing factor upon the tourist travel of the country, urged a united campaign for better roads throughout the state. Dr. Andrew C. Smith opened the subject by advocating an amendment to the constitution that would permit the counties to bond themselves for good road work and the state to assist them.

Dr. Smith Proposes Road Funds.

He proposed a plan whereby the state would bear one-third of the expense, the county one-third and the property benefitted the other third, all the money to be secured by the issuance of bonds.

In following addresses, the good roads movement was indorsed by William McMurray, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, and by W. E. Coman, general freight agent. Other speakers were: Judge W. H. Hollis, of Forest Grove, and Senator Carter, of Ashland.

Herman Whitenberg was chairman of the day for the excursionists.

The train left tonight at 11 o'clock for Klamath Falls, where the entire day tomorrow will be spent. So far the special has been on schedule time to the dot.

KLAMATH FALLS MAKES READY

Stores to Close in Honor of Business Men From Portland.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., April 26.—(Special.)—All arrangements are complete for the reception of the Portland business men's excursion, which will reach this city early in the morning. A committee of business men and members of the Chamber of Commerce with automobiles, accompanied by the local band, will assemble at the depot at 7:45 in the morning to greet the visitors and escort them uptown, where they will have until noon to do as they will.

Beginning at noon, two hours will be spent at luncheon and in listening to toasts from local people and visitors. The afternoon will be taken up with automobile rides over the valley. All business houses have been asked to close between the hours of 11:30 and 2 o'clock. Many of them have been decorated with flags and bunting.

McMinnville to Entertain.

M'MINNVILLE, Or., April 26.—(Special.)—Preparations are being made for entertaining the Portland business men's excursion during its brief stay in this city on Friday, the Commercial Club in executive session today having appointed the various committees whose duties it will be to give the visitors a busy hour. The Portlanders will be met at the train and escorted uptown in autos. A barrel of punch and a large supply of Yamhill County walnuts will be on tap at the rooms of the Kono Club, and there will be a bouquet of buttercups, typical of one of the city's most extensive industries, for each visitor.

Albany Plans Reception.

ALBANY, Or., April 26.—(Special.)—Plans for the reception of the Portland business men's excursion here Thursday evening were completed at a meeting of the committee on arrangements last evening. A committee consisting of State Senator Frank J. Miller, J. M. Hawkins, Fred Dawson, P. D. Gilbert and W. F. Pfeiffer was named to meet the Portland visitors at the Linn County line and accompany them to this city, where they will spend Thursday night.

QUICK PROFIT IS MADE

CORNER PARK AND SALMON SELLS FOR $85,000.

Sixty Days Ago, M. W. Hunt Purchased Property for $65,000, Paying Down $10,000.

Large and quick profits were obtained by M. W. Hunt, of the Portland Flouring Mills Company, in the sale yesterday of a quarter block at the northeast corner of Park and Salmon streets. This corner, 100x100, was sold to a local investor yesterday for $85,000.

Only 60 days ago Mr. Hunt purchased this corner for $65,000, making a payment of $10,000. Yesterday he sold for $85,000, with a cash payment of $30,000, reaping a clear profit of $20,000, or 200 per cent in the 60 days on his $10,000 investment.

The property is at present occupied by three old frame houses, bringing in a monthly rental of $100. The new buyer is said to be a woman investor, who will improve the property with a modern building. The sale was made by Vanduyn & Walton, representing the seller, and Mrs. C. H. Parks, representing the buyer.

This sale is indicative of the recent sharp rise in realty values along the Park streets south of Morrison street. In all the buying of late there has been no section of the city in which the trading has been more active.

HUGHES CONFIRMED SOON

Senate Also aHs Name of General Henry for Customs Surveyor.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Senate committees now have in custody the nomination of two important officials of New York, drafted by President Taft, for the service of the United States. The nomination of Governor Charles E. Hughes to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States in place of the late David J. Brewer, awaits the report of the committee on judiciary.

The nomination of Adjutant-General Nelson Henry to be Surveyor of Customs in place of General Clarkson at the Port of New York is in the hands of the committee on commerce.

It was an interesting coincidence that brought the appointment of these two New Yorkers to the Senate on the same day. Governor Hughes and General Henry are close personal friends and it is known the indorsement of Governor Hughes was virtually the deciding factor in the appointment of General Henry.

There seems no doubt of the prompt confirmation of the appointments.

HOT WATER SCALDS FACE

Cook Arrested Charged With Disfiguring Waitress.

Charged with throwing a cupful of boiling hot water into the face of Miss Carrie Bradley, a waitress, Monday night, Frank Ricter, a cook, was arrested last night on a warrant by Constable Wagner. In default of $250 bail he was locked up in the County Jail.

According to Miss Bradley, whose face was terribly scalded by the water, she threw some bread crumbs out of her cup of tea on Bradley and he retaliated by throwing the water in her face. Both were seated at the dining table late Monday evening in the Gilliam boardinghouse, 55 North Eighteenth street, where they were employed. While Miss Bradley was out, someone placed the bread crumbs in her tea. She suspected Ricter of it and with a spoon, dipped them out and threw them on him.

The complaint upon which the warrant was issued, was signed by Rowland Hill Bradley, a nephew of the woman, employed by the Yale Laundry.

RASCH NAMED FOR JUDGE

Ballinger's Counsel Is Nominated for Federal Bench.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—President Taft today sent to the Senate the nomination of Sarl Rasch, of Montana, to be United States District Judge in that state. Mr. Rasch has been acting as assistant counsel for Secretary Ballinger before the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee.

VICTORY OF BULLS GIVEN BY STORM

Cotton Deal Triumphs When Widespread Damage to Crop Is Reported.

IMMENSE STOCK GATHERED

Bull Clique May Extend Deal Over to Next Season—Southern Failure Has Little Effect and the Close Is at the Highest.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Not since the big break of January last has the New York Cotton Exchange seen so much activity and excitement as yesterday. It was a time of triumph for the bulls, whose already strengthened position as regards the old crop was sensationally stimulated by the reports of disastrous weather in the South.

This led to rumors that the bull campaign was to be carried on throughout the end of the current season and possibly into early new crop deliveries, as in the season of 1902-03, when, after Sully's successful deal in May contracts, Messrs. Brown & Hayne, who are prominently mentioned in connection with the present bull movement, carried the bull campaign through into July, August and September.

It is argued that, even if the South finds enough seed to replant the entire area reported damaged, the cold snap has made it look like a late crop and that mills shortly will have to depend on old crop supplies for a long period.

Enormous Deliveries Made.

Preparations for enormous deliveries on May contracts are steadily going forward. It is said that the New York Cotton Exchange had a larger force of men engaged in preparing cotton for delivery Sunday than ever before and, according to the official figures, the stock of certificated cotton at New York, which was reported as 87,000 bales toward the end of March, had mounted up to 151,000 bales by the close of business on Saturday, with predictions that between 180,000 and 200,000 bales would be ready for delivery by May 1. Moreover, the May shorts have until the end of May to secure cotton for delivery on contract.

So far as the market learned, nothing further developed during the day in respect to the Federal grand jury proceedings against the bull clique, nor were there further disclosures with reference to the affairs of Knight, Yancey & Co. According to latest reports New York firms are credited to the extent of over 600,000. It is rumored firms that had sold May against shipments expected here from the failed Southern houses are finding little difficulty in adjusting their contracts around present prices, and that they will be out little more than their actual advances if the cotton does not materialize.

Damage Reports Come in Flood.

Seldom has such a flood of crop damage reports poured into the local trade from so wide an area as yesterday and for the time being it seemed the excitement in the new crop months was overshadowing the old crop situation, possible legislation at Washington, the Government investigation or even the failure.

Damage complaints from the South were in many instances accompanied by southern buying orders and almost all the fresh buying for long account was said to be for new crop delivery. It was believed around the local ring the bull leaders were selling the near position at times during the day to prevent too rapid an advance, or to reduce their holdings, and it was the new crop that chiefly reflected the broadening of bullish sentiment.

Market Closes at Highest.

October cotton sold at 12.94, or 57 points above the close of last Saturday, while May touched 14.92, or a gain of only 21 points from the closing price of last week. The market closed at practically the best point of the day so far as the new crop was concerned, and trading during the last half hour was probably the most active of the entire session.

The opening advance in the New York market was greatly encouraged by the strength of Liverpool, which had received reports before trading here started.

WOMEN AROUSE SEASIDE

Plan to Perfect Trail to Tillamook Head Summit Causes Action.

SEASIDE, Or., April 26.—(Special.)—The threat of the Lady Maccabees to perfect a trail to the summit of Tillamook Head, and thereby reap the laurels for the work, has aroused the Commercial Club to immediate action. A large delegation from the club yesterday went over the proposed route of the trail and have decided on the amount of work and capital necessary to carry out the scheme.

A compromise has been effected between the club and the women, whereby the latter will furnish a lunch for the band of workers who have been enlisted to perform the task of completing the trail. The band is made up of business men and others, each of whom has donated a day's labor on the construction work. Much bridging will be necessary and the problem of getting the lumber over the trail as fast as the men will need it is yet unsolved. It has been proposed that the timber along the trail be utilized for this purpose, and the plan may be adopted.

THE DALLES FEELS HEAT

Sunday Was Warmest April Day Inhabitants Remember.

THE DALLES, Or., April 26.—(Special.)—Yesterday the thermometer reached 90 degrees above, the hottest April day that was ever experienced in The Dalles. Today the maximum temperature was 78 degrees above and minimum 50 above. In the afternoon a cooling west wind blew, but brought with it clouds of dust, which fairly obscured the sun.

NEW PRICE SET FOR CLUB

Tacoma Man Buys 10,000 Bushels at 72 1-2 Cents.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 26.—(Special.)—A record for club wheat was made here today, when D. H. Cox, representing a Tacoma firm, purchased 10,000 bushels at 72½ cents per bushel. The farmers of this section believe that the former high price will not be reached again, and sales are being made every day. It is estimated that 1,000,000 bushels of wheat are still in storage in this county.

CHURCH MEN IN SESSION

Congregational Ministers of Portland Meet at St. Johns.

The fourteenth anual meeting of the Portland Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers met with the church at St. Johns yesterday. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, of the Highland Church, was chosen moderator, and Rev. W. H. Meyer, of Arletta Church, as scribe.

The general theme of the occasion was "The Dynamics of the Kingdom of God." The opening address was by Rev. W. G. Olinger, late of Seattle, whose topic was "Our Needs." He was followed in a paper by Rev. George E. Paddack, D. D., late of Boise City, now pastor of Hassalo-street Church, on the "Source of Power." The central thought of the paper was that Jesus Christ was the only source of power.

The question of "How to Obtain Power" was answered by Rev. R. M. Jones, who maintained that it was the sum of human experience; that it could only be obtained by Scripture reading, prayer and meditation.

Another help in securing Christian power was brought out and emphasized in a paper on "Consecration," by Rev. D. B. Gray, who cited the example of Paul, the Apostle, in support of his view.

Rev. George E. Paddack, D. D., Rev. Howard N. Smith and W. H. Dean were elected to serve as a committee on nominations. Rev. G. W. Nelson, pastor of the St. Johns Church, was made chairman of the business committee.

The evening session was opened with a praise service, conducted by the moderator, after which the associational sermon was preached by Dr. Paddack and followed by the administration of the Holy Communion.

EASTERN OREGON FIGHT ON

Pacific & Eastern Road to Be Pushed—Electric Line Soon.

MEDFORD, Or., April 26.—(Special.)—John R. Allen, capitalist, has arrived from New York. He is pleased with the progress made in the construction of the Pacific & Eastern Railroad, which he bought a year ago, and announces that the road will be pushed over the Cascades into Eastern Oregon.

Mr. Allen states that the construction on the new electric road will begin in the near future. The franchise for this road was granted by the Medford City Council the first of the year, and it only lacks the granting of a franchise by the Council in Ashland to make absolutely sure of the construction of an electric line from Grants Pass to Ashland. The line will be equipped to carry both passengers and freight, and a heavy standard guage rail will be used.

You will never have another opportunity to buy Irvington property at such low prices, either. If you buy a lot this week you will save $200 right away.

This is the last week at present prices. Values are growing daily. The Fifteenth-street extension of the Irvington carline is going to cause the prices on the lots blocked off on the map of Irvington to double.

The prices we are asking are far too low. In all other parts of Irvington prices are much higher. This section is the finest improved residence section of Portland. Every possible improvement has been completed. Asphalt paved streets throughout the entire section; likewise, wide cement sidewalks; parkings 9½ feet wide; large sewers, water and gas mains; telephones and electric lights.

Most people buy to build a home. This section is but one block from the Irvington School—it is only 12 minutes' ride from Fifth and Washington—cars run every five minutes all day long. The additional car service from the Fifteenth-street extension of the Irvington line will cause prices to double in this section. Work is under way and cars will be running this Summer.
