A combination of errors, some of which are excused by the scorer, but were nevertheless most glaring, served to deprive Vean Gregg, McCredie's clever southpaw, of a well-deserved victory over the Seals yesterday after-noon. The visitors profited by the Fortland team's boots by scoring four runs in the sixth inning, when, at best, they were not entitled to more than one run that session. Prior to this, the home guard had batted in three runs, which should have won the game. It was San Francisco's game, 4 to 3. Gregg was given his initial tryout against the Seals, and, while somewhat wild at the start, he was steady enough to warrant the expectation of a home team victory, especially after Portland had landed on Mr. Miller for three runs. The sixth inning, when it began to drizzle, displayed all of the unexpected happenings possible to be corralled in

Miller's Measure Taken.

In the second inning, the home guard took Miller's measure in fine style, an for a time it looked as though Mobile ould derrick the big pitcher, but th little "capting" seemingly changed hi mind and allowed Miller to stay, and the big fellow eventually won out Hits by McCredie and Fisher and Ort' two-bagger registered the two runs for the home team in that inning. In the fifth, a pass to Rill Rapps and an-other hit by Ort resulted in Portland's third run, and this bunch looked good

Ryan assisted by a wild heave. was safe on an error, though score gives him a hit, and Bodie hit what should have been a single to right, but Manager Mac did not judge properly ,and three bags were taken "Ping" person, and Tennant scored.

Several Errors Made.

Several more errors and a hit by Mc-Ardle gave the Seals enough runs to make their total a quartet, and Port-land could not overtake the lead. Several times the home team had chances and once they had McCredle on third and Fisher on second, with none out, yet they failed miserably in the effort to get the necessary run over. Jesse Garrett is due to pite to pitch for Portland today, while Mohler will send either Stewart or Henley on the hill for the San Francisco bunch. Yester-SAN FRANCISCO.

Jefferson High got busy with the register in the first inning and scored two runs. Mc-Allen hit to left field, stole second and third and scored on a long sacrifice fly to right field by Campion. JOHNSON CIVEN NOISY REBUFFS

Jeffries' Home Town Ladles Scornful Greeting to Black Champion.

FIGHTER REBUKES CROWD

'May the Best Man Win," Says Negro, When Hisses and Hoots Finally Subside in Los Angeles Prize Ring.

LOS ANGELES, April 29 .- (Special.)-The talk today on Spring street has been wholly of Jack Johnson. No one has any comment on his condition, but on the reception given him when he ap-peared in the ring last night and at-tempted to make a speech.

Los Angeles is Jim Jeffries' own town, and when Johnson appeared he was greeted by a round of hisses and hoots. "Gentlemen," he began grandly, "I thank yo' fo' this kin' attention. I will now endeavor to speak to yo' in regard—in regard to—." Then came hisses. A voice cried, "Aw, you're scared to death already"; other voices, "Put the bum out."

Interruption Scorned.

Johnson (scorning the interruption) con-tinued: "In regard to the heavyweight battle now bein' arranged..."

Voice; "Shut up, you dinge!" At this point, the black champion, with At this point, the black champion, with an imperial gesture, folded his enormous arms and looked as contemptuously as anyone possibly could in sky blue tights. "Genulmen." quoth the champion, when he could, "I was allus taught in school that a genulman is allus a genulman and ruffian is allus a ruffian and a hobo is allus a hobo wherever he is found."

Johnson Is Sarcastic.

For the benefit of the genulmen and the educated foreigners, I will endeavor to say a few words about the great bat-tle which will occur on the Fourth of

"Let us all hope and boast that it will be a great battle for supremacy and let it go to history as one of the greatest battles between man and man—and may the best man win."

Johnson was refused accommodation in Los Angeles hotels yesterday. On ar-riving here he traveled up Spring street in an automobile and immediately went to one of the best hostelries. With a considerable number of attendants, he entered, but a few moments later the party departed and tried another hotel. The same excuse was offered for not re-ceiving the black champion. The hostelry was filled to its capacity. As Johnson refused to try to secure lodging at any of the cheaper hotels, arrangements were made for his entertainment last night at the home of a negro editor.

JEFF SPENDS DAY FISHING

Berger Will Go to San Francisco to Decide on Referee.

BEN LOMOND, Cal., April 29.—Jim Jeffries' camp here was as dead today as the proverbial doornall. Aside from a boxing bout between Billy Papke and big Bob Armstrong, visitors saw nothing worth while worth while

Early in the morning Jeffries started up-stream with Jack Woolley on a fishing trip, supposed to cover only the foretoon, but which lasted all day. The condition of his back was reported to be considerably better, but this is attributed to his failure to appear in the gymnasium. While Jeffries is missing many an opportunity to box-a form of exercise in which he has indulged but little-his all-ment is also keeping him away from the heavy work, which so worried his trainheavy work, which so worried his trainers lest he overdo himself last week.

He covered probably 10 miles while fishing up and down the river. On returning to the camp Jeffries declared he was through with fishing for the time being and that tomorrow would see him back to the usual line of routine work. Manager Sam Berger plans to leave here Sunday night to remain in San Frannere Sunday night to remain in San Fran-cisco until the referee for the contest is chosen, which, according to the articles of agreement, must be done by next Wednesday. The referee question, how-ever, has not yet been taken up by Jeffris and his manager.

Game Scheduled for Today and Club Will Wear New Uniforms.

At 3:30 this afternoon, providing the weather man will be good, the Multnomah Club and the Columbia University baseball teams will play their annual match. "Dolly" Gray, coach of the Columbia University, has been working his team into shape for this game for some time. Gray played on the club team before be-coming a professional, and has been anxious to score a victory over the club-men ever since he took charge of the Columbia squad. Thus far he has had poor luck, for the wearers of the winged "M" have won regularly for the last three years. Jones, a former pitcher for the University of Michigan, will probably occupy the mound for Multnomah today. Last year Jones played at Dallas, Or. New suits have arrived for the club boys, and tomorrow will be their first appearance in the new raiment. Ed Rankin will handle the indicator.

Petrain's Talks on Current Sporting Topics

Gregg's defeat yesterday was not alto-gether his fault, for his teammates be-haved in a most unbecoming manner. They did the same thing last week on ladies' day, but they also managed to get the scoring habit oftener.

Manager McCredie atoned for his boot analoger Mocredie atoned for his boot in the fatal sixth by making a sensational catch of Tom Tennant's line drive in the ninth. "Mac" hooked the sphere after a hard run and this cut off a Seal run, for Shaw was perched on second when the ball was hit.

Howard Guyn was sent in to bat for Gregg in the seventh when McCredie was on third and Fisher on second, but Howard fell a victim to Miller's curves and the last chance to score at that juncture was ended.

Gus Hetling failed to get his daily bingle yesterday, but he was strong in the fielding line. His work at third base was of the gilt-edge variety, and some of his chances were on exceedingly hard-hit balls.

"Lefty" Hunt, the blg Sacramento southpaw, shut the Angels out yesterday which once more demonstrates that "Pa" Dillon's galaxy of talent does not take kindly to a left-handed pitcher. The Sac-ramento bunch seems to have taken a decided brace since hitting the road.

As usual on Fridays, the grandstand was packed yesterday with the fair fans, who take advantage of the regular day set aside for their benefit. The dear girls bad a lovely time rooting for Portland until the sixth—then it was all off.

Once more the big leagues are having an awful time getting in the early season games scheduled. Nearly every team in both circuits has had from five to saven both circuits has had from five to seven postponed games already, and there is no telling how many more will be before the weather settles.

The Detroit Tigers continue to lead the American League procession, and will probably maintain their present stand-ing for some time. None of the other clubs seem able to stop them at present, and the American League champions are at home for a while.

The Northwestern League teams are keeping pretty well bunched thus far in the pennant race, for neither of the four teams seems able to get a material advantage in the number of games won. A close race in that circuit means a moneymaker for the Lucas organization.

LIVESTOCK SALE CLOSES

Cattle Breeders Come From All Pacific Northwest States to Bid on Offerings.

Yesterday marked the close of the combination sale at auction of live-stock, the most successful all-around sale in the series. From Shorthorns to Holsteins, the bidding was brisk From Shorthorns Yesterday morning's sale began with Shetland ponies, a single pony selling for $190, and a pair, with at $400. Even the baby Shetlands sold well. The horse sale was of miscellaneous character. The Holstein cattle brought out breeders from Oregon, Washington and Idaho. These cattle were out of condition, but sold briskly at full values. A 7-year-old cow sold for $280, the herd bull for $260 and a yearling helfer for $165. A few bull calves in extra light flesh sold cheap.

The general effect of the sale was plainly in support of Portland's claim to be a distributing market for all kinds of fine livestock. Following are the sales of the day:
