Ministerial Association Too Busy to Take Up Subject of Prizefight Protest.

Although several members of the Portland General Ministerial Associa-tion expected that a resolution con-demning the Jeffries-Johnson prizefight at Emeryville would be passed at the meeting yesterday morning, other matters took up their entire attention.
Dr. William Parsons, of the Third Presbyterian Church, announced the coming to Portland of Miss Marie Brehn, and a committee consisting of Dr. Parsons, Dr. C. T. Wilson and Rev. J. R. Knodell was named to arrange for her campaign in Portland. She is a member of the trustee board of the Illinois Anti-Saloon League, and is also Illinois Anti-Saloon League, and is also in the employ of the Presbyterian Church as a temperance lecturer.

The ministers pledged their hearty co-operation in the celebration of Mothers' day next Sunday.

Rev. D. A. Watters, Rev. Lindsay A. Wells and Rev. H. S. Black were appointed a committee to visit the Portland Commons and report to the association at its next meeting.

Dr. Parsons delivered the address of the morning on "Democracy in the the morning on "Democracy in the Churches; an Inside View." He spoke of the dangers of Socialism, which, he said, protests against the church and its institutions. Although the church must keep in touch with men in their struggles for better things, it must also guide their efforts along safe lines, was his sentiment. "People may think that churches which do not contain all classes are not democratic," he said. "But one church cannot contain both the residents of Second and Burnside streets and those of Portland Heights. Why, 75 per cent of the members of Protestant churches still believe in the inalienable rights of man and that all are brothers. Some think that the church is doing nothing when it is not continually tinkering with new methods. But it has done great work, as witnessed by its efforts along the lines of slavery, child labor, the stamping dents of Second and Burnside street witnessed by its efforts along the lines of slavery, child labor, the stamping out of the white plague, securing a rest day for all, conducting temperance campaigns and the like."

Rev. W. W. Matthews, of the African Methodist Church, thought the negro churches of the city should have representation on the committee of delegates to the Central Labor Council. His request was referred to the com-

witness for the Government in the cases against Charles A. Smith for the recovery of title to 50 timber claims, could not be located last night, it was stoutly asserted by United States officials that Puter had arrived in Portland.

Emissaries and friends of the Minnesota millionaire defendant are said to have watched the depot during the day and dispute the statement that Puter disembarked from the late O. R. & N. train from the East. A member of Mr. Puter's family visited the office of the United States Attorney yesterday and said that Puter was then in Oregon. The family lives on the East Side, and it is possible that the muchwanted witness left the cars at the East Portland depot.

"Puter will be here," said District Attorney McCourt. "I do not know just where he is at this particular moment, and I do not care particularly. He will be placed on the witness stand today but I do not care to indicate the said of the today, but I do not care to indicate just when."

A rumor gained circulation yesterday that Puter had been taken from the westbound train by United States Marshals, armed with a capins from the Minnesota court, where an indictional is newling against him and be the Minnesota court, where an indictment is pending against him, and he would be hurried east for trial. The rumor was discredited by the officials who have the Smith case in charge.

No evidence was taken in the Smith cases yesterday, but will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock. District Attorney McCourt will have much documentary evidence to introduce, which may or may not precede the testimony of Puter. The latter is expected to reveal the inner workings of the conof Puter. The latter is expected to reveal the inner workings of the con-spiracy by which the Linn and Lane County timber lands were acquired through the use of "dummies." The "Land of Opportunity"

This is the accepted slogan for Oregon, and according to records of sales of farm lands made in the last few years, investors and homeseekers show their faith in the prediction.

A tract of 2000 acres, located most favorably in the line of rapid development in the Willamette Valley, 30 miles east of Portland, 15 miles from Gresham, is offered for sale by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company at a low price per acre on favorable terms.

'A projected railroad line is to pass through or near this tract, a county road already furnishing means of entry and exit for vehicles, including automobiles.

In the wooded portion 22,000,000 feet of good saw timber stand ready for the woodsman's ax, and the timber at present prices would go far toward paying for the entire tract. There is a lumber mill within three miles in operation,

There are fully 900 acres of level or gently sloping farming land, available when cleared. and from 700 to 800 acres of fine grazing land now waiting the farmer or dairyman.

Two good-sized creeks, with numerous tributaries, furnish an abundance of water.

The tract will be disposed of as a whole, though a new owner could subdivide to great advantage.
