Portland Team Will Begin Series of Six Games Here With Vernon.

M'CREIDIE MEN CONFIDENT

Happicus Has Flock of Hard Hitters and Some Interesting Contests Are Expected by Fans During the Week.

BY W. J. PETRAIN.
This afternoon, weather permitting, Happicus Hogan and his Vernon Hoiligans—big pardon, we should say Brewers in deference to Happy's request—will engage Walter McCredie and his erstwhile league leaders in the third home series of six games, and to hear the Portland players relate the possibilities, the Beaver band is going to get back into first place.

BOB ARMSTRONG HARD HIT

Full Day's Work at Training Camp Accomplished Before Noon, After Which Big Fellow Goes Boat- ing—Brother Jack on Way.

BEN LOMOND, Cal., May 2.—Jeffries started the week at his training camp with a rush, accomplishing a full day's work before noon. He went at the various lines of indoor stunts in a more businesslike manner, showing snap and life in every move. This was especially noticeable in four rounds of boxing with Bob Armstrong. Jeffries had the negro on the run most of the time and gave him quite a pummeling with right-arm jabs to the neck in the third round.

SEATTLE 2; VANCOUVER 1.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 2.—Seattle won from Vancouver by a score of 2 to 1 in the greatest game of the season. Dretchko and Chinault had a real pitchers' battle and were superbly supported.

PHILLIES RALLY IN NINTH

Beaneyers Go Down to Defeat After Having Game Won.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Boston was defeated here today by a ninth inning rally by Philadelphia, the latter scoring five runs on five hits and an error, making the game 7 to 2. Confident Over Last Saturday's Victory, Next Game Promises Fast.

WITH Happicus Hogan a visitor at the Vaughn-street lot this afternoon, the "facotious bugs" will have a chance to get into action in earnest. Happicus is something of a comedian himself, and miserably loves company.

ROY WILLOTT, THE PORTLAND PITCHER

ROY Willett, the former Portland pitcher now doing duty as one of the pitchers of the Happicus tribe, may be delegated to open the series against the Beavers this afternoon. Willett has been most effective this season.

"MUGGY" MCGRAW'S NEW YORK GIANTS

"MUGGY" McGraw's New York Giants have started off the National League season in whirlwind fashion, and if their present gait is maintained, Pittsburg and Chicago will be eclipsed. However, the Giants have only beaten Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia, none of them very strong clubs.

IF THE BEAVERS GET INTO THE GAME

IF the Beavers get into the game in earnest and don't become too anxious, Portland may expect to regain the leading position before going on the road at the Chicago National League. The band should take four out of six, while San Francisco will do well to break even with the Angels at Los Angeles.

WONDER WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THAT INVINCIBLE SEATTLE WORLD'S CHAMPION TEAM

LAST week the Seattle World's Champion team, last season's National League champions, were trimmed by the Dugaldian crew out of the majority of the nine games played. Can it be that the world's champions have gone back?

COUNT BASSEY, THE PUDGY LITTLE OUTFIELDER

COUNT Bassey, the pudgy little outfielder who formerly played for the Portland team but who is now doing duty for Tacoma, was a great factor in beating the Seattle bunch last week. Bassey secured one or two or more singles in almost every game, and several of the clouts were for the circuit.

THE VERNON CLUB, WHICH MEETS PORTLAND HERE THIS AFTERNOON

THE Vernon Club, which meets Portland here this afternoon, has vertical lettering on the shirt fronts of the players, which idea is after the style of the Chicago National League team. According to Happicus Hogan, the Vernons have nothing on Chicago—or it is the reverse. How about it, Han?

BUDDY RYAN WENT FISHING YESTERDAY

BUDDY Ryan went fishing yesterday, and according to Brother Dan, that is all he did do. Dan says Buddy's bait was all to the "Dutch" for the fish absolutely refused to bite, and the "big brother" is mourning the loss of an anticipated feast. Buddy spent several hours dallying by the festive brook to no purpose.

GEORGE ORT WAS SEEN MOUNTING THE STREETS

GEORGE Ort was seen mounting the streets at intervals of two hours yesterday, and each time he was "loaded" with bundles. George recently rented a flat out Sixteenth street way, and rumor has it that "Mrs. George" is due from the East in the very near future.

MILES NETZEL IS ANXIOUS TO GET INTO THE GAME EVERY DAY

MILES Netzel is anxious to get into the game every day, and Manager McCredie is likely to send the speedy youngster into right field for awhile, as Big Mac is not feeling in the best of health just at present.
