Work Found Free of Charge.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 3.—(Special.)—
The Hood River Apple Growers' Union entered on a new departure today by establishing a labor bureau for the employment of help for berry and applegrowers. The work will be in charge of C. H. Sproat, secretary of the union, who will act as intermediary between employer and employe. No fee will be charged and it is expected in this way to secure results that will solve the labor problem.
