HYDES UNSCATHED BY MRS. SWOPE

Widow, on Witness Stand, Gives Only Calm Synopsis of Tragedies.

IS DISAPPOINTED

Last Witness for State in Famous Case Shows Emotion but Once, When She Tells of Hearing That Colonel Would Die.

KANSAS CITY, May, 4 .- To the disappointment of several hundred people who used physical force, cajolery and friend-ship to pry their way into the criminal courtroom this afternoon, Mrs. Logan O. Swope went on the witness stand and calmly gave a synopsis of the Swope tragedies. Her testimony closed the tragedies. Her testimeny closed the state's case.

Only once did Mrs. Swope appear to be affected. This was when she was telling how Dr. Hyde informed her shortly after James Moss Hunton's death that Colonel Swope could not live.
Mrs. Swope did not attack Dr. Hyde nor his wife. They sat directly in front of her and she looked both in the eyes sworal times. They stated at her in the several times. They stared at her in re-

Situation Summed Up.

The whole situation between the two families was summed up during Mra. Swope's cross-examination: "You told Mrs. Hyde when she left your house on December 18, last, you hoped she would come back, and she said she would return only when you invited her husband, I believe?" asked Mr. Waish. "That is what happened," answered

Mrs. Swope.

The defense attempted to show Mrs. Swope's antipathy toward Dr. Hyde hadits beginning last Fail over a financial

"I most certainly did not," said Mrs. Swope, warmly. Swope, warmly.

Contention Is Denied.

The contention of the defense that Dr. and Mrs. Hyde did not know whether they were remembered in Colonel Swope's will was denied by Mrs. Swope. Of the last illness of Colonel Swope. Mrs. Swope sald: "While Dr. Hyde, Miss Keller and I were at breakfast on the morning of October 3, the doctor gave her a capsule to administer to Colonel Swope. They went out, and upon returning the nurse told me Mr. Swope had not taken the medicine, but would later. the room. Therefore it was several hours before I went to his bedside."

As Mrs. Swope talked of this phase of the case her voice faltered and for a few moments she was unable to continue ner testimony. She turned and looked into the eyes of her daughter, Mrs. Hyde, but there was no responsive gleam.

Practically all of the morning session of the Hyde trial today was conned in the cross-examination of Dr. P. Walsh. The defense relinquished the witness a few minutes before noon.

New Features Disclosed.

Walsh's interrogations were infined solely to the investigations and upon the organs of Colonel cope. New features derived by the defense were; defense were; would accumulate in

DIXON AMENDMENT IN DOUBT

Short-Haul Clause May Be Opposed by Seaboard Democrats.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 4.—There is diversity of opinion in the Senate today as to the probable action that will be taken on the Dixon long and short haul amend-ment to the interstate commerce bill. Senator Dixon, after a conference with Senators from the Rocky Mountain and Inter-Mountain States, has decided that the amendment cannot be adopted in its original drastic form, and is changing it so as to make it in effect similar to the provision adopted by the House yester-day—that is, to give the interstate Com-merce Commission authority, after a hearing, to permit rallroads to exact a greater charge for a short haul than for a long, when it can be demonstrated that such a charge is justifiable. Senator Heyburn's amendment, which in effect resembles the original Dixon amendment, will not be adopted, for two reasons: Heyburn is standing out for the unqualified requirement that the roads under no circumstances shall be allowed to charge more for a short haul than for to charge more for a short haul than for a long, and is unwilling to grant any discretionary powers to the Commission; and, secondly, he proposed his amendment in a way to crowd out Dixon's amendment, which was first to be proposed, and Dixon's friends will vote against it, thus insuring its defeat.

Whether Dixon can bring about the adoption of his amendment in its revised form is still doubtful, though he insists form is still doubtful, though he insists that he has enough votes to carry it. There are indications, however, that some Democrats from the seaboard states, upon whom Dixon has been relying, are preparing to vote against this amendment, and Senator Aldrich declares privately that there will be enough votes to defeat the amendment, no matter in what form

He would only say, however, that he hoped this combina-tion in the Senate would pull the bill through in good shape.

The question of a possible veto of the measure, if further amended in Congress, was broached to the President, but he declined to discuss that possibility.

If Mr. Taft signs a bill giving him only a part of what he has asked he probably will issue a statement placing the blame for the failure to get more where he thinks it belongs Huanese Plan Riots as Warning to Foreign Builders.

CHANGSHA, China, May 4.—The re-cent rioting in this Province has placed the Chinese Government in an embarrase-ing position regarding the proposed Haning position regarding the proposed Han-kow-Canton Railway loan. Evidence ac-cumulates that the disturbances were de-liberately planned by interested persons as a warning to the central authorities not to meddle in the affairs of Human Province and to make plain the deter-mined opposition of the Humanites to foreign participation in railway construc-tion.

Millions of Chinese are imbued with the idea that the government is yielding weakly to foreign influence which is seek-ing political control in China. Pekir realizes the situation and, while desiring to proceed with the railway agreement, understands that hasty action by the government might be followed by the most serious consequences. A protracted delay therefore seems inevitable.
