In addition to a general no-strike policy among local unions it was thought better, it is said, just at the present time to court public favor, owing to the political situation. The unions are to submit several initiative measures to the voters next Fall and they are very anxious not to do anything that would endanger their success at the polls. Among these measures is the liability law, on which all of the strength of organized labor in Oregon is to be centered.

Sick Benefits to Be Paid From Dues When Members Are III.

Employes of the Meier & Frank store have organized a mutual benefit organi-zation in the name of the Co-operative Association of the Employes of the Meler & Frank Company. It is the plan to make the association self-supporting by having each member pay dues and to have the association conducted for the employes of the store who become ill. Under the plan whenever a member becomes sick the case is at once reported to the doctor and to the visiting committee and without regard to the length. mittee and without regard to the length of liness, the member is cared for until fit to return to work. The association being self-supporting frees the members from the sense of having accepted char The association is to have its own doctor, its own medicines, its own emergency hospital in the store and an endowed bed in a hospital. It is planned to secure an acre or more of ground where a large house may be crected for the use both of the convalencent members and the other members for enter-tainments. This is to be in the country, where livestock and poultry may be kept and where the surroundings will be such as to aid in convalescence.

When the subject was presented before a meeting of the employes on Tuesday-night, Superintendent Campbell outlined the plan and on bringing the subject to a vote found that it met with unaning The association was proval. The association was then rmed and J. L. Meier, representing the eler & Frank Company, donated $250 to the treasury.

LOTTERY FINES IMPOSED

Judge Takes Judicial Notice, Though Evidence Is Circumstantial.

Admitting that the evidence was not conclusive, yet imposing a fine on the defendants, because, as he said, he was satisfied in his own mind of their guilt, Judge Bennett in Municipal Court yesterday morning fined three Chinese and one negro a total of $125 for lottery gambling.

"I used to do considerable collecting in Chinatown," said Judge Bennett in passing sentence, "and naturally be-came acquainted with some of the in-stitutions down there. Most police judges would not find you guilty, the evidence being purely circumstantial, but I am satisfied in my own mind that all are gullty."

The arrest was made Sunday after-noon by Patrolman Burris, who saw ward and Martha Johnson, actresses, playing at Fritz' Variety Theater, 240 Burnside street, while they were going to their rooms shortly before 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, Chester Peterson, a young electrician, and Raymond Beegle, a young man about town, were arrested yesterday.

Don't you think an investment in Oregon lands is bound to bring big returns?

If you believe this, why not invest your money in Oregon lands? The safest investment in the world that will bring big returns.

WE ARE FORMING A PURCHASING SYNDICATE to buy up 15,000 acres of the best selected fruit and wheat lands in Yamhill, Sherman, Morrow and Gilliam Counties. All these lands are mostly improved, 3090 acres in crop, with about twelve million feet of excellent timber. We can buy these lands for an average price of $19 per acre, which we will sell in small farms from $30 to $50 per acre.

We have 600 applications for small farms and we will sell the entire tract inside of two years,

We will sell you 1, 5, 10, 100, or as many units as you wish at $25.00 per unit. Your money will be secured by first mortgage on the land, bearing 6 per cent interest, and the profits will be divided pro rata every six months, according to sales.

This proposition should appeal to rich and poor, to men and women who want to make a safe investment with big returns on their money.
