

POISON IS IGNORED BY HYDE TRIAL DEFENSE

Attempt Made to Show That Deaths of Swopes Was Entirely Natural.

JURY TO GET CASE SOON

Various Diseases Said to Produce Symptoms Such as Shown in Convulsions Described - Colonel Swope Spoke of Death.

KANSAS CITY, May 5.—Disregarding the evidence of the scientists that poison caused the deaths of Colonel Thomas H. Swope and Christian Swope and the convulsions of Miss Margaret Swope, the defense in opening its case today tried to show that the deaths were natural.

Sylvester Spangler, on the stand for Dr. Hyde, accused of the murder of Colonel Swope, testified that the millionaire was so feeble for some time before he died that he fainted several times. Only the day before death came, testified Mr. Spangler, Colonel Hyde told him he might die at any time.

From Dr. F. W. Froehling the defense elicited the information that either uraemic poisoning, typhoid fever or meningitis would result in the symptoms such as those shown by the three Swopes when convulsions developed. On cross-examination, however, the physician admitted the attacks also resembled cases of strychnine poisoning.

Trial on Last Lap. The Hyde murder trial entered upon the last lap today when the defense began its presentation of witnesses. Between 15 and 20 persons will testify in behalf of Dr. Hyde. It is said, and indications are that the case will be in the jury's hands within a week. Mrs. Logan O. Swope was the last witness for the prosecution yesterday. She made a calm and straightforward witness. The defense questioned her briefly.

"I am well satisfied with the trial thus far," said Dr. Hyde before court today. "I think I shall be acquitted." In an effort to prove that Colonel Swope's physical condition was poor, S. W. Spangler, general manager and business manager for the millionaire, was called upon to open the defense's case. Mr. Spangler said Mr. Swope drank heavily until 11 months before his death. When Colonel Swope gave up drinking, testified the witness, he became very weak. The millionaire was a user of patent medicines and remedies containing strychnine, said Spangler.

Swope Predicted Spots. "I may be here a day or a week, but I can't last long. I'm liable to die at any minute," Mr. Spangler said Colonel Swope told him the day before he died.

Prosecutor Conkling made an ineffective attempt to show that Colonel Swope objected to Dr. Hyde marrying Frances Swope. The testimony was barred. After the marriage, it was shown, the millionaire gave property valued at $10,000 to the defendant.

Typhoid fever, uraemic poisoning or meningitis, said Dr. F. W. Froehling, the next witness, often caused convulsions similar to those which afflicted the Swopes. Thomas H. Christian and Margaret Swope.

Kidneys in the same condition as were those of Colonel Swope especially when accompanied by a weak heart, might cause uraemic poison and result in death at the time of the Swopes. Dr. Froehling said that Dr. Hyde injected into the arm of Margaret Swope, often produced inflammation, causing the patient much suffering, Dr. Froehling was of the opinion that this remedy was a good heart stimulant, and in common use.

"You would have to know the pulse and temperature before you gave this oil, wouldn't you?" asked Mr. Reed on cross-examination.

"Certainly," answered Dr. Froehling. Margaret Swope's testimony was that Dr. Hyde injected the oil without examining her condition.

OREGON WAY UPHOLD

Bourne in Senate Defends Selection of Chamberlain.

OPPOSITION TO LAW SEEN

Many Republicans Inspired by Desire to Make Statement No. 1 Odious, Says Senator—Plot by Enemies Is Alleged.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Commending the election system of his state, Senator Bourne, of Oregon, in an extended speech in the Senate today aroused a general debate on the question of representative government which dealt especially with the effect on the Southern states of the system of selecting Federal officials for that section. Bourne dwelt in terms of admiration on the methods of conducting elections and selecting officeholders in Oregon. He declared that Oregon had "evolved the best form of popular government in the world today," and defended the election of his Democratic colleague, Chamberlain, by a Republican Legislature.

oping from the Democratic candidate into the people's choice for United States Senator. The senator, a Republican majority in Oregon, I think, is from 15,000 to 20,000."

Stating that there were no penalties attached to the law, Mr. Bourne said that at the session of the Legislature at which Chamberlain had been elected, an ex-Government official and assistant to the chairman of the Republican National Committee appeared in Oregon and promised Federal appointments to Legislators if they would disregard their pledges.

"The effort was made by the enemies of the law," he said, "to create the impression that by reason of this person's relations with the chairman of the Republican National Committee during the National campaign he would be able to deliver these promised Federal appointments in case Statement No. 1 subscribers sold their honor and betrayed their trust."

Motive in Vote Detected.

Bourne said that in his opinion Chamberlain received the votes of several thousand Republican enemies of the law, who believed they could prevent a Republican Legislature from ratifying the choice and who sought to make Statement No. 1 and the primary law odious. He defended the primary system. "Results attained under direct legislation in Oregon," he said, "compare so favorably with the work of a Legislative Assembly that an effort to repeal the initiative and referendum would be overwhelmingly defeated. No effort has been attempted."

POWER IS LACKING

Gillett's Secretary Says He Can't Prevent Fight.

LAW IS TOO AMBIGUOUS

In Governor's Absence Clergy Are Advised to Apply to District Attorney, But Are Warned of Obstacles in His Way.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 5.—In response to scores of letters received at the Governor's office every day since the death of Tommy McCarthy after his fight with Owen Moran in San Francisco last Friday, urging that Governor Gillett prevent the Jeffries-Johnson fight on July 4, E. Forrest Mitchell, executive secretary to the Governor, sent out answers today saying the Governor is helpless to interfere. The letters were addressed to religious organizations in Alameda County, San Francisco, Santa Clara, Los Angeles and Fresno. The copy given out by Mr. Mitchell, which officially makes known the Governor's stand on the matter, is as follows: "This office is in receipt of your letter inclosing resolutions passed by the Ministerial Union of Fresno relative to suppressing the Jeffries-Johnson prizefight, or contest, July 4, 1910. Governor Gillett is en route to Washington at the present time, and
