CHARITY CLEARING-HOUSE PROPOSED.—Co-operation of the numerous charitable organizations of the city was the object of a meeting held Thursday afternoon at which nearly all of the bodies engaged in uplift work were present. Leaders of the various movements have learned that much of their activity is repeated through the over-lapping of the efforts of several organizations on a given case, and it is to correct that condition that the present action is taken. As an instance of the necessity for improved methods, one charity worker cites a case in which she found afterward that no less than four other organizations were interested, and then it was discovered that the beneficiaries were unworthy and had been imposing on all five. To avoid such a case as this, it is proposed to establish a sort of a clearing-house by which each organization may be kept within a given field and no expense may be wasted. The organizations participating were the Associated Charities, the Visiting Nurse Association, the Boys and Girls Aid Society, the Young Men's Union, the Old People's Home, the Women's Union, the Baby Home, the German Relief Society and the Pioneer Mission. Meetings will be held from time to time to carry on the work.

VOLUNTEERS WILL SPEAK.—Colonel and Mrs. Walter Duncan, regional commanders of the volunteers of America for the Pacific Coast and Northwestern region, with headquarters in San Francisco, are in town to do some new work. Tonight at 8 o'clock, Colonel Duncan will speak at the Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Duncan will conduct services at the hall of the Volunteers of America. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Colonel Duncan will speak at the hall and Mrs. Duncan will deliver an address at the First Presbyterian Church. Tomorrow night Mrs. Duncan will speak at the United Presbyterian Church and Colonel Duncan will conduct an enrollment service at the hall.

OLD PEOPLE'S HOME STARTED.—At exercises to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mayor Simon will lay the cornerstone of the Old People's Home now being built by Mrs. E. J. Mann, at East Thirty-third street and Sandy road. The prayer and scripture reading will be delivered by Dr. William Hiram Poukes. Dr. T. L. Elliot will review the plans leading up to the establishment of the institution. Those who are interested are cordially invited to attend. Ground for the home was broken two months ago and the building is now well under way. The contract calls for its completion by February 1, 1911.

HARRY JAEGER HIT BY CAR.—Struck by a "W" car on Northrup street, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, Harry Jaeger, 14 years old, a student of Hill Military Academy, was hurled to the ground, sustaining a fractured thigh and a severe shock. The lad had just alighted from an inbound car and had crossed the street. He did not notice a car going in the opposite direction and was run down by it. Young Jaeger is a son of J. A. Jaeger, a jeweler, living at 621 Main street. He was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. A. E. Rockey, the street railway company's physician.

Mrs. Brockway will continue the lectures on divine healing given at Christensen hall, Eleventh and Yamhill, every Sunday at the hours of 11 and 8 o'clock. She will explain why it is that the advanced thinkers can demonstrate truth, and why Christ Jesus said: "And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover." (Mark xvi:17-18).

CHILL WILL BE HOPE.—Invitation to Oregon and its commercial bodies to participate in an expedition to be held at Santiago, Chile, next November, is extended by the Chilean government through A. V. Vajar, the local consul. The fair, which is in commemoration of the centennial anniversary of Chilean independence, is to be devoted to agriculture, arts and industries, and an effort will be made to secure a representative exhibit from this section.

SALOONKEEPER IS ARRESTED.—Adolph Camilla, proprietor of a saloon at Fifth and Burnside streets, was arrested yesterday morning charged with assaulting N. Peterson, a Swedish laborer, in his saloon. Peterson appeared at police headquarters, with his head swathed in bandages, to swear to a complaint. Camilla was held under $500 bonds.

Judge Claxton was for four years Attorney-General of Indiana, and still retains his membership of the bar. He is said to be an able speaker, and is competent to present the subject as it is authorized by the Christian Science Church. The evening lecture will be the same as the one in the afternoon.

COMPANY BANQUETS EMPLOYEES.—In the Commercial Club last evening about 30 employees of the Graves Music Company were entertained at a splendid repast given by the company. The officers of the company and the employees left the store in a body at 7 o'clock for the Commercial Club. Dr. Brannock acted as toastmaster, and the officers and employees responded in happy vein on the future of the business in Portland. The dinner was "got up" by the company, and will probably be an annual event.

MILK "DOCTORS" FINED.—Convicted of "doctoring" milk with water, eight restaurateurs of the city were fined $30 each in Municipal Court yesterday morning. E. D. RELIGION HAS SMILES

"GET RIGHT WITH GOD," COMMANDS EVANGELIST.

Evil, He Contends, Fills Natural Heart, Which Only Religion Can Eradicate.

"This is a practical religion—religion that will enable a woman to smile when the bread won't rise, sing when the smoke comes down the chimney and when the clothesline filled with newly-washed clothes breaks and the white clothes drop down in the mud. Get right with God."

Thus remarked Rev. Herbert C. Hart, the evangelist, in his talk yesterday afternoon before a great audience in the Hawthorne Park tabernacle. The subject for the afternoon, "The Pure in Heart," was a continuation of the series he had been delivering to the women of the district and the week, and the address was directed to the church in general. He contended that the natural heart is filled with evil, malice and wrong, that evil is eradicated through the cleansing power of Jesus Christ. He said in part: "The natural heart is filled with evil of all sorts, and its bent and tendency are all wrong. Great intelligence, education nor culture cannot purify the heart and make it right with God. If the heart is sick then all is wrong. If the heart is sick the man can do no business, and if he is sick with it he is sick until he is made well. In the natural state the heart is evil, which no education can cure. Sin is greater with great intelligence, for it makes sin worse. I am sorry for that person who joins a meeting house and tries to be a Christian without salvation. It is a hard job, I can tell you. You must have a new heart and a new spirit. This changes the whole man and makes a new person. The new birth is the regeneration of the individual. And this is easy.

"There is no corner on the Bible. Just receive him, believe in him, that is the price. I once heard a professor from a college tell a Bible class he was teaching that the Bible was teaching in the new faith, and I challenged that statement. You must have spiritual light to understand the scripture. The letter kills, but the spirit gives life. The spirit is the heart, and it will make a woman sing when the clothesline breaks and trails her newly-washed clothes down in the mud. You will get rid of temptation, but it will enable you to overcome temptation and give you a pure heart."

After meeting followed the address and the platform and side aisles were filled with people who went forward.

Last night the interest in the meetings was intense. The music, conducted by Rev. Mr. Magann, was inspiring. He sang several very effective solos. The songs were becoming familiar with the revival songs that are being used. Rev. Mr. Hart spoke with his usual force, and at the close the altar was again crowded. It was the last meeting of the first week. Today no meetings will be held in the tabernacle. Sunday is the big time, as is expected. The next meeting will be held at 3 P. M. and again at 7:30 o'clock. At the last meeting Rev. Mr. Hart will deliver his first special sermon on "Shams."

Committees of special personal work and to take the names of the converts were read from the platform by Rev. E. Nelson Allen.

SPECIAL LAW IS VETOED

Mayor Simon Refuses Sale Privileges to A. W. Bahkhe.

Mayor Simon yesterday vetoed an ordinance, passed by the city council at its last session, calculated to exempt A. W. Bahkhe from the payment of $5 a week license for selling photographs. The ordinance was introduced by the mayor, and many indignants have asked for the same privilege, but that it has been the general policy of the municipal authorities to refuse this permission. In the case of Mr. Bahkhe, even this excuse is not made, and the Mayor deems it unfair and unnecessary to give this special privilege. The particular photograph to be sold is one advertising Portland, but the manner in which the ordinance is drawn he can sell any kind without payment of license fee. The Mayor also vetoed an ordinance, granting to the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company the right to construct a crude oil tank on the East Side, his reason being that the ordinance is improperly drawn, and that the city's rights are not properly protected. No power is given the Council to revoke the permit, as is customary in such cases, and the Mayor also wants a provision requiring the company to remove the tank at its own expense when the Council shall direct.

WOMEN WOULD GO

Chief of Police Learns of Conditions in North End.

ORDER MUST BE OBSERVED

Steel Bridge Push Club Makes Facts Public, and Mayor Simon Says Instructions to Police Must Be Obeyed.

After making a personal inspection of the North End district, Chief of Police Cox yesterday announced that he had corroborated the statements published in The Oregonian last Sunday, that many women have moved back there and are being tolerated by the patrolmen and sergeants in charge. Captain Bailey, in charge of the first night relief, accompanied Chief.

It is probable that no investigation will be made into the reasons why these women were tolerated in the North End district by police officers, but the circumstance has created much comment among those conversant with the facts. That the women were there was known to the patrolmen on the various beats, to the sergeants and many detectives who have to do with the vicinity. Sergeant Goltz has direct supervision of the first night relief, commanded by Captain Bailey. The latter recently stated that he had depended largely upon Sergeant Goltz for reports on the district, and that he did not know personally just what the situation was.

"I spent two hours with Captain Bailey investigating the North End," said Chief Cox, "and I found conditions very much different from what I had supposed. We found a good many dissolute women, and the ordinary household 'chickens,' as the women call them, and many of the sergeants and many detectives who have to do with the vicinity. Sergeant Goltz has direct supervision of the first night relief, commanded by Captain Bailey. The latter recently stated that he had depended largely upon Sergeant Goltz for reports on the district, and that he did not know personally just what the situation was.

One of the interesting features of the trip made by Chief Cox was his visit to the notorious Thetis saloon, conducted at Fourth and Everett streets by "Tony Arnaud. Three women were found in this establishment, notwithstanding the fact that Arnaud pledged the City Council last winter that, if granted a saloon license, he would never allow women in his place. Arnaud is credited with having charge of more women than were found there. In the block between Davis and Everett streets, fully 50 women have been living unmolested by the police for weeks, and little was known of it publicly until the Steel Bridge push club meeting, held recently, brought it to light.

Mayor Simon long ago issued an order to Chief Cox to drive the notorious women from the North End, and this order has never been canceled. When the subcommittee in connection with the push club's meeting, the Mayor declared that he had not consented to the presence of the women in the district and that he would not permit them to remain.

SILVERTON MEN GUESTS

FOUR MEMBERS OF COMMERCIAL CLUB VISIT CITY.

William McMurray Host at Luncheon When Inducements Offered by Town Are Set Forth.

Wearing attractive buttons which told that they were from Silverton, the "Heart of the Willamette Valley," four members of the Silverton Commercial Club were in Portland yesterday as the guests of William McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in Oregon. They were James Craig, George Hubbs, S. E. Richardson and R. E. Kleinsohn.

They were guests at a luncheon in the Commercial Club, given by Mr. McMurray, at which booklets describing the beauties and advantages of Silverton were distributed to every one in the dining-room. Short speeches were made by Mr. McMurray, felicitating the visitors on the growth and enterprise of their home town, and by members of the Silverton Commercial Club committee.

"With the railroads boosting Silverton and the commercial organizations of that town backing down to the work, I can see only the bright future for the place," said R. E. Kleinsohn, one of the visiting committee. "We are enjoying an era of unequalled prosperity, and people are coming to Silverton on ever increasing numbers from the East and West, to look into the inducements of the town and surrounding country.

"Many of the large tracts of land adjacent to the town are being cut up into smaller sections, which are being snapped up in record speed. We expect to order 200 new houses will be built this Summer, and a large number of these are now under construction."

"We are right in line with the good roads movement," said Mr. Hubbs, "and we think there will be few towns in the state which will take a more active part in this work. A new steel bridge across Silver Creek is to be constructed shortly, and we expect to have five miles of macadam road completed this Summer. We are going to hold a good roads meeting in Silverton tomorrow, and I guarantee that it will be well attended, with plenty of enthusiasm."

flounder, perch and red snapper, 10 cents a pound.

Strawberries are rapidly increasing in quantity and quality and decreasing in price, ranging from two to four boxes for 25 cents. Gooseberries are new this week, at 20 cents a pound. Cherries cost 25 to 40 cents a pound, and pineapple 25 to 40 cents each. Oranges and grape fruit tend to be very slightly higher in price. New in the market are the bitter Seville oranges, at 25 cents a dozen. These oranges are used for the imported brands of marmalade, and give the curiously agreeable bitter taste, differing from that of the ordinary orange, and the abundant clear jelly for which the original Scotch marmalade is famous. Asparagus is getting somewhat scarcer and costs 7 to 12 1/2 cents a bunch, according to quality. Peas on the other hand are a little lower in price, costing 7 to 10 cents a pound. Their pods just now are fresh and juicy, furnishing an excellent base for French cream soup. There are green beans, wax beans and fresh Lima beans at 20 to 25 cents a pound. New this week is hot-house Summer squash, at 20 cents a pound. It is most nutritious, but yielding delicate little entrees. Florida tomatoes are slightly cheaper at 15 cents and new potatoes at 5 cents a pound. Celery at 25 cents and $1.50 respectively. Turkeys and old ducks are scarcer, cost 35 and 30 cents respectively. Household "chickens," past their first youth, and mature geese all cost 20 cents a pound.

Poultry prices remain about as they were last week. There is a larger supply of broilers and Spring ducks at 25 cents and $1.50 respectively. Turkeys and old ducks are scarcer, cost 35 and 30 cents respectively. Household "chickens," past their first youth, and mature geese all cost 20 cents a pound.

RAILROAD ANSWERS SUIT

SURVEYS MADE BEFORE DAM IS THOUGHT OF.

W. W. Cotton, Counsel for Deschutes Railroad Company, Argues in Federal Court.

Contending for the right of eminent domain, W. W. Cotton, attorney for the Deschutes Railroad, yesterday resisted the application of the Eastern Oregon Land Company for an injunction intended to close down building operations in the Deschutes canyon. The suit is in the Federal court.

At a point near Sherar's Crossing, the Eastern Oregon Land Company owns a tract of land and a power site in the Deschutes canyon. This property was acquired in March, 1910, from the heirs of John and Mrs. Sherar. At that time the surveys, part of the roadbed and a portion of the tracks of the Deschutes road were in place in that vicinity.

It was argued by Attorney Cotton that the Eastern Oregon Land Company acquired the lands with knowledge of the fact that the road was destined to cross the lands and interfere to some extent with the proposed ditches, flumes and dam of the land company, and should have known that a suit was then pending to condemn a right of way over the lands the plaintiffs were buying. Mr. Cotton insisted that the proper procedure for the land company to follow would be a damage suit in a law court.

Argument on the issues presented will be continued before Judge Bean this morning.

NEW ERA IN MUSIC

Times have changed since music was at the mercy of the lady-who-had-to-be-coaxed, the girl-who-was-out-of-practice, or the one who-did-not-play-without-her-notes, and her sister, who-only-played-classical music. Thank goodness. Under the new regime everybody is happy.
