Cutting loose with a bunch of ginger Cutting loose with a bunch of ginger and some phenomenal fielding stunts, Marager McCredie's Beavers walloped Hafpy Hogan's misfit Vernon crew yesterday afternoon at the Vaughnstreet inclosure by the score of 2 to 6. Yesterday was ladies' day and the grandstand was fairly jammed with the fair ones, all of whom enjoyed the game until the last man was out in the ninth inning. Some of the girls nearly had a fit when Buddy Ryan captured Carlisle's hit to the flag pole in right field.

Carlisle's hit to the flag pole in right field.

Taken all in all, yesterday's game was as good as has been seen on the home lot this season. McCredle's men played the bail of which they are capable when they try. And, too, Umpire McGreevy was judging balls and strikes, and the confidence his presence gave the Portland players was noticeable from the very start.

Tom Seaton was on the mound for Portland and had everything that makes up the collection of a bigleaguer. Though Vernon got a total of eight hits off the big fellow's delivery, he was never in danger at any time. Seaton had a hook ball working yesterday that fooled all of the Hooligans.

Hogan, the leader of the Vernon tribe, used two pitchers, all to no avail, for the ball Portland played was almost unbeatable. Vernon looked a little dangerous in the second inning when, with none out, they had a man on first and one on second by way of two hits. Both were advanced a base, after Lindsay had fanned, by W. Fisher's grounder to Hetling. Brown was out on a long fly to Speas and the

In the ninth inning, after one was out, Roy Brashear got his third hit for the day. Coy flew out to Speas, Lindsay hit a pop fly over third base and was safe. Brashear took second on this play, but both men died on bases be-cause Hitt, who batted for W. Fisher, grounded to Olson. "Ole" threw wildly to first on this play, but Rapps hooked the ball and the game ended.

Portland got busy with the platter in the second inning and scored one. Ryan, first man at bat, doubled to center field, Gus Fisher sacrificed him to third with a pretty bunt along the first base line and Rapps hit to right field for a single, on which Ryan can-tered home with the first tally that Portland had made in two days.

The second run came in the last of the seventh. Hetling, who was first at bat, singled to left garden and Ryan laid down a bunt in front of the plate which Hensling, the tow-headed lad that heaved the sphere for Hogan's orowd, threw to the netting near first Hetling scored and Ryan took third on the play, but the next three men popped easy flies and the scoring ceased. the high-school lads. Cobb, the regular twirler for the Academy, had a sore arm and was batted all over the lot. He was very wild. Errors on the part of his team-mates were responsible for a number of the runs made by the boys in the red suits. Twelve errors were made by the Academy team.

Thompson, for Lincoln, pitched a steady game, allowing but three hits ricider and fanning 10 of the opposing batters. His support was good, too. DORTLAND displayed more pepper yes. terday than at any time for a week. With Hildebrand not calling balls and strikes, the boys seemed to have lots of confidence, and as a result were pulling off something every minute.

Ryan made two sensational catches dur ing the matinee that earned him the glad-hand from the crowd. He grabbed Car-lisle's hit to the flagpole in the sixth inning and also made a wonderful run for Roy Brashear's short fly over second base. Carlisie's liner was easily ticketed for two bags.

In the fourth inning Roy Brashear hit one at Olson that was too hot for Ole to handle. When they come too fast for Olson to get they are surely going some. Woman Granted Separation From Husband Who Complained Bitterly That She Was Not "Classy" Enough to Satisfy Him.

Frank B. Rutherford, an attorney, se-cured a divorce yesterday afternoon from Ella L. Rutherford, Circuit Judge Mor-Ella L. Rutherford, Circuit Sunge and-row granting the decree. His chief com-plaint was that Mrs. Rutherford, who is five years his senior, assumed a dicta-torial attitude toward him a week after the marriage, which took place August 8, 1903, and has continued it ever since. The couple was married in San Fran-cisco.

Rutherford said his wife was jealous of his women acquintances, even to the girls in his Sunday school class. He told of one occasion when the class gave a reception for him, and presented him with a gold ring. Mrs. Rutherford, he said, heard that they were about to give him the ring, and made a vigorous protest to her husband against his accepting the gift or wearing it. He said he is still wearing the ring, but declared that his wife created a scene the next Sunday, when he was about to go to church. She insisted that he remain at home, away from his class, he said.

On another occasion, at his office, Mr. Rutherford said he remarked that he had a "prastry good wife and a good stenographer," whereat his wife slapped him in the face with a magazine. He said she wanted him to stop dictating to the stenographer and go with her to lunch. Rutherford said his wife was jealous of the stenographer and go with her lunch.

Stenographer in Tears.

Miss May Lovgren, the stenographer in question, broke into tears when subjected to a grilling by Judge Morrow in his effort to glean from her what Rutherford's attitude was toward his wife. C. A. Alvord also testified, saying Mrs. Rutherford was jealous of her husband "because of his work among the young women of the church."

Mrs. Rutherford's attitude interfered with his business, said Rutherford. She once demanded that he dismiss a client to go shopping with her; at another time to go shopping with her; at another time told a client he must transact his busi-
