

KING'S BODY WILL REST AT OSOR

May 20 Is Tentatively Named as Date for Obsequies for Dead Ruler.

EDWARD TO LIE IN STATE

Political Discussions Foreshadow Truce in Struggle Between Commons and Lords for a Year. Asquith on Way Home.

LONDON, May 8.—The tomb of Edward VII will be ready after the Memorial Chapel at Windsor, where the body of his eldest son, the Duke of Clarence, has been buried.

The obsequies probably will be held May 20. Before the funeral, it has practically been decided, the body of the King will lie in state in Westminster Abbey.

Before being taken to Westminster the body will lie in state in the throne room at Buckingham Palace. King Edward's casket will be fashioned out of oak grown in the royal forest at Windsor.

Funeral Plans Discussed.

Queen Alexandra and King George conferred with various officers of the state and household concerning the funeral arrangements in the royal chapel at Buckingham Palace, which the late King always attended when in residence there.

King's Body Lies in Deathbed.

King Edward still lies in the bed where he was clothed only in his nightclothes, with his hands crossed on his breast. Alexandra visits the chamber frequently, appearing greatly worn and tired.

Impressive Incident this Afternoon.

An impressive incident this afternoon illustrated Queen Alexandra's desire to show consideration for British subjects of every class. General Booth sent a message that the Salvation Army wished to show honor to Edward and Alexandra.

Salvationists Have Service.

First they knelt while the leader prayed, and then they sang "Nearer My God to Thee." "Abide With Me" and "Angels Ever Bright and Fair." Finally they marched out, singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

House of Commons to Meet.

The House of Commons will meet on Wednesday, when Speaker Lowther returns to receive the address from the throne. Premier Asquith and A. J. Balfour, leader of the opposition, will reply.

Great Changes Expected.

It is quite certain that great changes will be seen in the constitution of the Court circle. Queen Mary is credited with great strength of character and is likely to exert far more influence on the Court surroundings than did Queen Alexandra.

STATESMEN STUDY NEW KING

Underlying Reason for Diffident Bearing of Monarch Sought.

LONDON, May 8.—(Special.)—King George V is of slight figure and under the medium height. He wears a beard trimmed in the fashion singularly un-English. His whole physique, his diffident bearing and shy manner are in strange contrast to his burly father.

Parliament Buildings Damaged.

In this city, four miles from the explosion, the terror inspired was scarcely less than that at Hull. The earth trembled, buildings shook and hundreds of windows were shattered.

Troops Ordered to Help.

Rideau Hall is still occupied by Earl Grey and his family. The whole Vice-regal establishment fled panic-stricken to the street. They were soon assured that there was no further danger.

Los Angeles Oil Man Much Excited Over Report His Estorville Wife Is in Seattle With Affinity. Police Puzzled Over Case.

LOS ANGELES, May 8.—(Special.)

W. H. Pittman, who is seeking his handsome wife, formerly Helen Post, who left her home here with a fortune in jewelry and money, was greatly excited last night when told that telegraphic dispatches contained the information that his spouse is in Seattle, accompanied by another man.

Pittman at present conducts an oil business at 407 Ruth avenue. Those who know him say he has good cause to lament the loss of his wife, who departed with much money and jewelry.

Her record in this city is bad. She led an adventurous life and amassed a considerable fortune.

Mrs. Pittman recently inherited a fortune of about $90,000 from a relative. About this time Pittman came into prominence as her husband. His picture is in the detective office book, among the San Francisco records.

When Mrs. Pittman left him she had from $16,000 to $17,000 in cash with her.

BIG BLAST KILLS FIFTEEN

(Continued from First Page.) comets had struck the earth. Hundreds of chimneys were toppled over and there is scarcely a whole window left in the northeastern section of the city.

The first call for aid from the hospitals and the police came from the section of the city nearest the magazines. There it was found that fully forty small frame dwellings had been shattered and that many injured people were imprisoned in the wreckage.

It was fully an hour and a half after the explosion when word of the disaster reached the city. Ambulances and automobiles were rushed to the place and the seriously injured were carried to the Hull hospital until there was room for no more. Then they were brought to Ottawa.

COUPLE ON HONEYMOON

Wife of Operatic Manager, Who Was Mme. Frances Alda, Says There's More Glory in Being Successful Wife Than Opera Star.

LOS ANGELES, May 8.—(Special.)

Mr. Gotti-Casazza and his bride, who was Madame Frances Alda, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, are on their honeymoon in Europe, many little stories are beginning to find their way into the ear of the general public about the devotion of the operatic manager to the woman whom he loved.

It will be remembered that just a few weeks ago Mme. Alda was taken very ill at the close of a performance one night with appendicitis. She diagnosed the disease herself, announced that she had had to stop for several days, but had been hoping to stage off the operation she believed inevitable, and then went home to her hotel and made ready to be operated upon.

The operation was performed next morning, and her swift recovery was a matter of no little comment.

Now it is learned that her fiancé had much to do with that same recovery. Day and night during the dark hours of uncertainty he hovered near the room, and as soon as he could see her, he could hardly be dragged away from the bedside.

Now that the competition of the Manhattan opera house is removed and the Metropolitan has the field to itself, Mr. Gotti-Casazza's position becomes that of one of the foremost operatic managers in the world.
