MAYOR SIMON LAYS BIG CORNERSTONE

Old People's Home in Laurelhurst Fittingly Dedicated to Aid Poor.

DR. ELIOT MAKES ADDRESS

Building and Grounds Entail Expenditure of $125,000, All of Which Is Paid by Widow of Peter J. Mann, Originator.

Under the glare of yesterday's brilliant sunshine, the cornerstone of the Old People's Home in Laurelhurst was laid by Mayor Simon, preceded by appropriate and impressive ceremonies. More than 100 persons interested in the Old People's Home Society, under direction of which the institution will be maintained braved the dust of be maintained braved the dust of Sandy Road and the heat of the day to be present at the exercises.

Conspicuous on the temporary platform erected around the cornerstone was Mrs. Anna Mary E. Mann, widow of Peter John Mann, by whom it was erected in memory of her husband. The ceremonies were presided over by C. A. Dolph, who first introduced Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who read several excerpts from the Scriptures. The verses read were from Second Samuel, 18-29; John 14:1-6, and a part of the 21st chapter of Revelations.

Dr. T. L. Eliot Makes Address. Dr. T. L. Elliott, pastor emeritus of Unitarian Church, who delivered the address, spoke feelingly of the benevolence of Mrs. Mann. That such philanthropic actions have a ma-terial tendency in the movement to-ward universal brotherhood and general altruism, was the keynote of his remarks, brought out in a style beautifully sentimental, splendid mountain-range vista.

The building is well advanced and shows the extensiveness of the plans. The buildings and grounds were all paid for by Mrs. Mann and will entail an expenditure of about $125,000. The society has already an endowment in money and property, valued at about $150,000 in addition to Mrs. Mann's gift. It is the plan to continue increasing this.

Strong Box Is Depository.

The strong box deposited in the cornerstone by Mayor Simon contained a copy of The Oregonian of May 7, giving the news stories of and and incident to the death of King Edward and the editorial comment; photographs of the late Mr. Mann and Mrs. Mann; the Hible used by Mrs. Mann as a child; an article written by Mrs. Mann in memoriam of Mrs. Mary H. Holbrook, first president of the society, and a history of the organization up and a history of the organization up to the present. This latter was read by Mr. Dolph. It leads off with the inscription on the cornerstone, and is in part as follows:

HEALTH OFFICERS WARN CITI-ZENS TO BE CAREFUL.

Seventy-five Cases of Scarlet Discase Are Under Quarantine in City at Present Time.

Portland people must look carefully to their health and regard quarantine regulations if they would prevent a dangerous spread of the scarlet fever epidemic which now threatens the city, says Dr. Ferdinand H. Dammasch, deputy city physician. There are new 75 cases of the disease under quarantine and the neighborhood of Twenty-third and Everett streets is considered alarming.

Upon the advice of City Physician Zicgler, Superintendent Rigler has decided not to close the city schools for the present unless the Board of Education shall determine to the contrary, but Portland Academy will remain closed, pending a favorable turn in the situation.

At St. Vincent's Hospital there are 14 cases and not enough beds to ac-commodate the scarlet fever sufferers who have applied for admission. Some of the cases are of a very virulent type, while others are mild.

While not trying to minimize the danger of a spread of the disease the city health officers are endeavoring to reassure parents of school children.
They say reasonable precautions are all that are necessary not only to protect one's own family, but greatly to assist the physicians in stamping out the disease.

A complicating feature of scarlet fever is that it can be transmitted from one infected to a new victim by a third person who does not contract the disease himself. For this reason it is necessary to enforce rigidly the isolation of all who come in contact with the infection. From this time on the city officials will enforce a rigid quarantine wherever the disease de-velops and will proceed drastically against any persons found violating it against any persons found violating it or concealing cases of scarlet fever. In its present stage of development the epidemic can be controlled by vigorous

125 WANT TO BE "COPS"

City Physician Will Conduct Examination, for Eligible List.

There are over 125 men in Portland now who want to become policemen. At least there are that many applicants on the list for examination by City Physician Ziegler today. Officers Keith and Leisy were yesterday detailed by Captain Baty to assist Dr. Ziegler in the work, which will commence this morning in the office of the City Physician in the City Hall-It is not believed that more than 25 or 39 men will pass the strict examination imposed on would-be guardians of the peace. The selections will be made in order that the eligible list may be held In order that the cligible list may be held up to normal number. Several members of the force have left the service recently, and consequently the list of cligibles has been decreased. Some time ago, when an examination of about 50 applicants took place, only two succeeded in passing to the satisfaction of the department.

Besides a written examination, which the applicant must pass be less to submit the applicant must pass, he has to submit the applicant must pass, he has to submit to a severe physical examination. To be-come a wearer of brass buttons and a felt helmet, a man must be able to run 100 yards in 15 seconds. He has to be at least 5 feet 7 inches high, and must weigh 145 pounds or more. It is con-tended by some that the physical stand-ard for policemen is too low.
