

E. J. DALY'S HOME

Faith in Portland Renewed After Trip to Europe.

CITY IS WORLD FAMOUS

No Such Water as Bull Run on Continent—Interest in Western America Will Result in Influx of Immigrants.

Strengthened in his faith in the great future commercial power of Portland and the Pacific Coast, and richer by the experience of four months in Europe, Edgar J. Daly has returned home. He enjoyed the trip, but he said yesterday that he was glad to be back again in a city where business is conducted on business principles.

"Portland is well known all over the world," said Mr. Daly. "Everywhere I went I heard Portland well spoken of and the American and European tourists who had visited the Pacific Coast were loud in their praises of our city. It was Portland roses and Portland Heights which seemed to have created the most favorable impression. Of course I expected to hear the roses praised, but I was a little surprised to hear that the trips taken to the heights had made such a lasting impression. We have seen to accept the heights as a matter of fact, but visitors cannot say enough about them."

Lesson Can Be Learned. "Portland certainly compares well with the great cities of Europe. Here something real is being done, there everything seems to have been done centuries ago. Some of those things, though, we would do well to copy. Portland's streets are a disgrace when compared with those of the cities of Europe, which are kept spotlessly clean. One of the principal methods is to lay wooden blocks on a good concrete base and then flush the streets every day.

"I heard a great deal of praise of Roosevelt in Europe. The entire continent and England are simply crazy over him and are talking of him continually. It is not all the work of press agents—the fuss they are making over him. He is regarded as a wonderful man by the Europeans.

Auto Fares Appealing. "There were customs in England and all Europe which made a good impression on me. For one thing, I was struck with the remarkably low fares charged for automobiles there. A person could ride and hour for about 40 cents and all day for $3 or $4, and the cars furnished are far better than can be hired in Portland. And what is more, they all seem to make money at those prices.

Table with 4 columns: Station, Minimum, Maximum, Wind. Lists weather data for various cities like Boston, Boise, Calgary, Chicago, etc.

THE WEATHER. During the last 12 hours the barometer has fallen decidedly over the North Pacific states and light rain has occurred in Western Oregon and in portions of Washington. The weather is threatening in Idaho and Eastern Oregon. It is much cooler in Washington and Oregon except near the coast, and also decidedly cooler in the interior of Northern California and in southwestern Idaho.

FORECASTS. Portland and vicinity—Tuesday, showers; south to west winds. Oregon and Washington—Tuesday, showers; south to west winds. Idaho—Tuesday, showers and thunderstorms; cooler southeast portion.
