TWO JURORS CHALLENGED

Attorney Fulton Refers to Old Political Feud in Questioning Prospective Juror-Government Presents Evidence.

More than one year after an indictment was found against him in the case, begun.

Only once during the long afternoon Only once during the long afternoon was an interrogation directed which may indicate that the old feud between the defendant and J. M. Church, leader of an opposition bank and another po-litical faction at La Grande, will be alred in the hearing. Senator Fulton asked Juror S. A. Dawson, of Albary, as to his connection with Church. "For the most part the attorneys con-

More than one year after an indict-ment was found against him in the United States District Court, J. W. Scriber, of La Grande, and formerly a resident at Salem, yesterday faced trial. The Eastern Oregon financier is accused of having misappropriated the funds of the Farmers & Traders Na-tional Bank, of which he was cashier, forcing that institution to fail in the Fail of 1908. Scriber stood with folded arms while District Attorney McCourt read four in the fundix of the failures of the bank. As they were concluded, Attorney Charles to the w. Fulton entered a general plea of not guilty, and requested that the Govern-ment elect upon which of the service ton. Dater a ruling of the court, the pros-cution was allowed to place its evi-dence before the jury prior to making a choice, and the questioning of jurors as to their competence to sit in the case, begun. When the doors of the Farmers & Traders National Bank closed in 1908, and Claude Gatch, Bank Examiner, as-close their doors through mismanagement of officials.

Before the close of the afternoon session, the defense had exercised two of its 10 percemptory challenges. The Government is confined to three such challenges and is holding them back as a measure of precaution.
The first juror challenged by Attorney Fulton was Thomas Glaze, a horticulturist of Benton County, and who came from Kansas 20 years ago. Soon after his arrival. Mr. Glaze became a creditor of the Linn County National Bank during a liquidation period, and although the juror informed the suspicious that the experience might have left a tinge of bitterness in the mind of the gray-haired fruitgrower. The Government refusing to order any juror from the box, the defense excused A. L. Hagey, a farmer of Yaming stock in the First National Bank of Newberg.

LEE RESOLUTION DROPPED Washington County Veterans Avoid

Acrimonious Discussion.

FOREST GROVE, Or., May 9 .- (Special.)-In the fear that an acrimon discussion would ensue, the motion roduced at the semi-annual meeting on he Washington County Veterans' As The Washington county votering as sociation at Cornellus, in which it was stated that the sense of the associa-tion was that the statue of Robert E. Lee and that of other Confederate of-ficers should not be erected in the Hall ficers should not be erected in the Han of Fame at Washington, D. C., was withdrawn. The semi-annual meeting was the largest in attendance in the history of the organization. Colonel McNutt, of Cornelius, was appointed to make ar-rangements for the presentation of a flag to the Cornelius public school.

Lebanon Invites Governor.

Evangelist Urges People to Neglect Dinners, "Washings" and Social

Calls to Aid in Work.

Three hundred men and women will start out this afternoon to visit every home on the East Side between the Willamette River and Montavilla and from Seilwood to North Albina, to invite the families to attend the revival meetings being held in Hawthorne Park Taber-nacle, under the direction of 30 East Side churches.

Rev. H. C. Hart, evangelist in charge, in his afternoon talk yesterday put special emphasis on this canvass and called for volunteers to do the work. He extended the same invitation at the general meeting last night. Each of the canvassers will have printed invita-vided into districts for more thorough work. The workers in the central district will assemble at the tabernacle this morning at 9 o'clock and for the outside district at the same time, the entire day being devoted to the can-and some of the erispest, freshest styles ever shown in Portland. The lot includes rabats, bows, cascades, side pleats, chemisettes, bows, collars, yokes, 1/2 Price

Rev. Mr. Hart in his afternoon talk spoke mainly on "Personal Work and How to Do It." He said: "Nothing less than a physician's certificate of ill health or an undertaker's certificate ought to keep anybody out of the can-vass tomorrow. We want the sinners to know that these meetings are in progress and that they are welcome. We have been having Christian mem-bers at these meetings, but now we want the sinners and the ministers and want the sinners and the ministers and Christians will take a back seat. "Neglect everything and get busy for God in this canvass. Let the dinner go and cut out the washing for one day. If anybody wants to call upon day. If anybody wants to call upon you call them by telephone and tell them you are busy in God's business and won't be at home. Women of the church work to pay off the debts and now can do work for the Lord. If you have the rheumatism a little walking might cure it. "The text of my afternoon talk is 'He That Wins Souls Is Wise.' Most people are engaged in gathering wealth or political honors, and the society reach the West. Young men must meet and overcome obstacles. Bradstreet says that 92 per cent of the successful business men have failed some time, but they never gave up and now we have the greatest financial institutions in the world.

"I have no use for a conservative church. When I find a conservative church, afraid that something is going church, airaid that something is going to happen. I think that a charge of dynamite would be a good thing to stir it up. Why do you want to be con-servative, anyway? The command is 'go?' It is not a question of failure. You must do personal work. You must be aggressive.

'Some church members are merely sponges. They don't do anything to help the cause of Christ, but are hind-rances. We want the boys and girls at these meetings. They are not too young to be Christians. You must be prepared to go down the aisles and ask people to come to Christ."

Last night the subject was along the line of personal work, but tonight Rev. Mr. Magann will start on special talks to the general public and his subject will be "Hell."

The attendance has been increasing so rapidly that it has been found neces sary to provide more seats. Sunday night several hundred were turned Columbia R away from the tabernacle. away from the tabernacie. Rev. Mr. Magann, leader of the choir, yesterday began drilling a choir of boys and girls to sing next Friday night. About 150 children were present
