BASEBALL PARK WANTED.—At the meet-ing of the Sunnyside Improvement Club Wednesday night, at the office of Dr. J. A. Pettit, on Belmont street, it was de-cided to submit to the Park Board plans for a baseball ground at the east side of the Sunnyside Park. J. P. Newell, chair-man of the park committee, reported he had ascertained that a baseball ground could be made by moving the lake a little west. The Rose Festival com-mittee reported that the extension of the route of the automobile parade of the Rose Festival out Belmont street and back on Hawthorne avenue was not considered practicable. Rev. W. T. Euster suggested that the Hawthorne Park Tabernacle, where union meetings BASEBALL PARE WANTED .- At the meet Park Tabernacle, where union meetings are now being conducted, be retained during the Festival and that a big Sun-day Rose Festival rally be held.

BROADWAY IS IMPROVED.-The improve-ment contemplated for Broadway street ment contemplated for Broadway street will make it the longest street running east from the river between Sullivans Gulch and Killingsworth avenue. It has been filled up between Union avenue and East Second street and sidewalks are being laid. It is now being paved from East Tweniy-fourth street to East Thirty-second. Here grading has been completed and hard-surface pavoment will be laid out to East Thirty-second. At the river end a fill will be made between Vanout to East Thirty-second. At the river end a fill will be made between Van-couver avenue and Wheeler street. It was first intended to build a steel bridge over this ravine, but a change was made to a solid fill, which means a district assessment. The street will probably be opened and improved out to Rose City Park before the Broadway bridge is com-pleted. pleted.

CAMPMEETING GROUNDS SELECTED. - Grounds for the annual campmeeting of the Western Oregon Conference of the Seventh-Day Adventists, which will be held June 2 to 12, have been secured in the grove on West avenue, two blocks north of the Montavilla carline. Minis-ters will be present from the Union Conference and also from Washington, D. C. At the conference officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Elder Bunch, who has been president of the Western Oregon Conference, will not bo re-elected as he has been chosen presi-dent of the Southern Oregon Conference recently organized. the Western Oregon Conference of the recently organized.

O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman lines, yesterday telephoned him that he would be free for a further conference with the Mayor and the special committee either today or tomorrow. Mayor Simon promised to make an appointment for one of the two days. A conference was arranged for last Monday but owing to Mr. O'Brien's linese and preas of work he had to postpone it. Mr. O'Brien goes out of town Monday and the conference, of make will have to be before GREEK HAS FAMILT TROUBLE.-George Oullas, a Greek, living at 564 Williams avenue, was arrested yesterday afterwas released on ball. Oullas claims that the prosecution is in retailation for his having recently prosecuted his wife on a statutory charge. He says she came out of town Monday and the conference, if any is held, will have to be before that date.

SEWER WORK PROGRESSES-Work has been started on the Milwaukie sewer system, which will extend from Division to Holgate streets, and cost $20,000. It is a branch of the Brooklyn sewer system. Work is also in progress on the Stephens Addition system, which is independent of the Brooklyn district. It provides sewer-age between the Sunnyside and the Brooklyn districts, and the cost will be H8,000. On the north branch of the Brooklyn system, which will furnish sewerage for Mount Tabor, work is pro-gressing rapidly. This branch will cost It's Due screating rapidly. This branch will cost $251,009. All through the territory south of Division street sewers are being haid, nearly every street being torn up for them. It is estimated that contracts inthem. It is estimated that contracts in-volving more than $500,000 for sewer work have been let south of Division street. NEIGHBORHOOD ROW AIRED. - Ross Goldberg, well known to the police as a moving spirit in neighborhood rows, is again in court, this time as a complain-ant. She caused a warrant to be issued yesterday for the arrest of Issac Felstein on a charge of ensurit and battery. Felyour account with us and we will increase your saving by paying interest on your yesterday for the arrest of Issac Pelstein on a charge of assault and battery. Fel-stein says that the Goldbergs, who are his neighbors on First street, near Mar-quam Gulch, want to get him out of the neighborhood. Yesterday, he says, Mrs. Goldberg came in his store and began abusing him and he ordered her out and forced her to go when she refused, whence comes the battery charge. The Goldbergs have been frequently in the public eye. Goldberg was recently ar-rested for feeding his horse on ex-celsior.

celsior CITY ATTOENEY NOT YET, NAMED.

Mayor Simon is not yet ready to an-nounce the name of the man who is to succeed John P. Kavanaugh, City At-torney, who has been appointed by Gov-ernor Benson as Circuit Judge to take the place of Judge Bronaugh, resigned. Frank S. Grant chief denuty in Mr. the place of Judge Bronaugh, resigned. Frank S. Grant, chief deputy in Mr. Kavanaugh's office, is in line for the pro-motion, but it cannot yet be stated whether or not he will succeed to the place. Mr. Grant is familiar with the work of the City Attorney's office and is a lawyer of wide experience. It is felt by many that he would be able to handle the duties more successfully than an outsider, as he has had much experi-ence with city cases.

QUARANTINE BREAKERS TO BE AR-RESTED.-The scarlet fever situation has RESTED.—The scarlet fever situation has now aliminered down to nothing more than occasional skirmishes between offi-cers of the Health Department and In-babitants of foreign quarters over break-ing quarantine. Now that the epidemic has been checked, the difficulty encoun-tered is keeping exposed persons cor-railed. Yesterday Dr. F. H. Dammasch made a trip to "New Jerusalem" and after driving those who had broken quar-antine back into their homes. threatened artine back into their homes, threatened arrest if the offense is committed again.
