MILWAUKEE PLANS PAVING.—A. H. Dowling, Milwaukee's City Auditor, said yesterday that proceedings for hard-surface pavement on Main street and macadam on Front and several other streets are now going through the Council. Special meetings are being held at 8 o'clock in legal to expedite the preliminaries. Mr. Dowling said it was hoped to let the contract for the hard-surface improvement on Main street within a month. Concrete pavement will be laid at an estimated cost of $1.25 per square yard. It will consist of a layer of crushed rock and then a top coating of concrete well rolled into the rock. Main street is 50 feet wide, but will be parked so that the paved roadway will be 40 feet wide. Front street will be graveled and covered with crushed rock. Later the crushed rock will be covered with concrete. This work will be done under the direction of L. H. Campbell, who has been working for the past three months establishing the grades. He testified that Pressley was running up the stairs with a knife in his hand and that only the intervention of the wife and a bystander saved him from using it. He then struck Lewis with his knee and drove him halfway down the stairs.

FRIDAY, 13TH, UNUSUAL DAY IN COURT.—Yesterday was Friday, the 13th, in Municipal Court. Officer Martine had been just 13 weeks on his present beat and endeavored the event by arresting 13 men. The 13th one was J. Daley, who when searched at the station, had just 13 cents in his possession. It was then found that he had been in jail a short time before and had been given a sentence of 13 days, which was suspended on his agreeing to leave town within 13 minutes.

MAN FEARING DEATH SEWS UP POCKETS.—Louis Veno, an Italian, was arrested yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct, but it developed that the man's conduct was induced by a hallucination that the Black Hand was after him. He was sent to the County Court for examination.

NO SHIRT IS OBSTINATE HEAD OF WALLA WALLA INDIANS AGAIN BLOCKS CENSUS. Desires Personal Assurance from President Taft That No Harm Will Come to Band.

Charley No Shirt started a second rebellion on the Umatilla Indian Reservation yesterday against taking the census. No Shirt is the leader of the Walla band, and it was believed that following the visit of Captain O. C. Applegate, the suspicion that census enumerators were representatives of the tax department of the state which blocked the count before had been eliminated.

Leaders of two other bands on the reservation submitted to the count, but No Shirt returned to the hills and ordered his followers to disobey yesterday. Supervisor Beach was informed that Charley No Shirt would not allow the enumeration to proceed without a personal assurance from President Taft that no harm would result. Supervisor Beach has sent Captain Applegate back to the reservation to endeavor to pacify No Shirt. In case he continues obstinate, a warrant will be secured for his arrest and he will be removed from the reservation.

Herman J. Sperling, proprietor of the baby-fronzy on Vaughn street, yesterday of the local opponents of the census enumerators to pay a fine in United States Court. Mr. Sperling refused to give any information and was fined $25.

A blanket order extending the time in which the Second Census Enumerators District was practically issued yesterday at census headquarters. So many of the districts are applying for extensions, but there is a hardy perceptible downward tendency in some kinds of meat.

OREGON CITY Wants More Names.—The census was discussed last night by the publicity committee and advisory board of the Oregon City Commercial Club. Secretary Sawyer has a large supply of census blanks, which will be distributed to any volunteer enumerator who is interested in the welfare of the county. Members of this committee will be glad to answer questions and the regular enumerators to be counted at once.

2 BIG DEALS MADE

High Prices Paid for Corners Near Business District.

FAMILY HOTEL IS PLANNED Herman Leffert Buys Sprenger Property at Seventh and Salmon Streets — Syndicate Purchases for Investment.

Two important real estate deals were closed yesterday. One of these was for $25,000 and represents not only the purchase of a new building but the establishment of a new high-class hotel in the South of Morrison street district. The other deal was for $70,000 and was the purchase of a corner lot in prices in the same district in the course of a few weeks.

Herman Leffert, a local jeweler, has purchased from Mrs. Abbie A. Sprenger a lot 50 by 75 feet at the northeast corner of Seventh and Salmon streets. The purchase is shown here when the purchase of a quarter block at Park and Salmon streets, which was bought by Mrs. W. Leffert months ago for $65,000 and resold by him inside of three weeks for $85,000, is recalled.

Miss Sprenger has had this property in her family for 20 years. The sale was negotiated through the agency of Adams & Apperson, a newly-formed real estate firm.

Hotel Is Planned. Mr. Leffert announced yesterday he would improve this location with a six or eight story family hotel building. Arrangements for a lease for such a building are now being made. He says that he has already received an offer for a 25-year lease at 5 per cent interest on $55,000 ground valuation with a revaluation clause for every five years of the lease. This offer was rejected as the requirements of the building to be erected were unsatisfactory.

A second deal negotiated yesterday was for the quarter block at the southwest corner of Sixth and Madison streets. This property was purchased by a syndicate composed of C. H. Davis, Jr., H. N. Burpee, Howard W. Adams, Arnold S. Rothwell, P. V. Fry, and D. Parker Bryon & Co. The syndicate was formed by the deal made in the purchase of the agency of D. Parker Bryon & Co.

Increase Shown. The principal significance of this deal is the increase in value of the land. The property is that of the old Steele home and has been in the family 42 years. Mary Lauder, who owned the property last, has not occupied it as a home for several years but has rented the property for $20,000. The deal was made on April 1, L. V. Rawlings, local agent for the Kansas City Life Insurance Company, purchased the property for $25,000. He held the corner for six weeks on an initial payment of $5,000 and has now resold the property at an advance of $5000.

The deal is a landmark in the history of the corner as an investment.

Good Things in Portland Markets

THE vegetable markets are steadily increasing in attractiveness just now. The crisp Oregon greens and salad plants, the young and tender "new roots" and the advance guard of Summer vegetables from the South help to solve the Spring appetite, or rather lack of appetite, problem that is troubling many housekeepers. Oregon Spring cabbage, quite a different flavored vegetable from our firm white winter cabbages, new this week and costs 8 to 10 cents a head. Specially fine asparagus is to be had at 15 to 20 cents a bunch, while the less choice kind sells at 10 to 12 cents a bunch for a quarter. Asparagus is getting scarcer; celery, too, is disappearing temporarily from the market. Tomatoes, growing with new color and choice, Bermuda onions are all somewhat lower in price; the two former cost 15 cents a pound and the others 5 and 6 cents a pound. Cucumbers still cost about 25 cents each and new "baby" squash 20 cents a pound. Magnificent mushrooms, our inches or more in diameter, of the luxury class at $1 a pound; and the new eggplant at 40 cents a pound is not an exactly cheap dish either. Spinach is particularly good and low-priced just now. Oregon peas add to the joys of life and cost 10 to 12 1/2 cents a pound. There are a few early sweet pod runner peas also to be had. Oregon head lettuce provides salad for one meal and greens for the next in its usual generous fashion. Watercress and mint are ready to be sent to commonplace dishes.

Hood River strawberries at 25 cents a box were a feature of the fruit market yesterday. There were also Oregon willies at 15 to 25 cents a box, and good California berries at two and three boxes for a quarter. Gooseberries are coming in from the coast this week and cost 2 1/2 to 15 cents a pound. Cherries are not to be seen in any quantity as yet, and they cost 25 to 40 cents a pound. Currants are plentiful, costing about 2 cents a pound. Oranges are beginning to be slightly higher in price. Good Newtown and Winesap apples are still available at 25 to 40 cents a dozen.

Poultry prices remain unchanged this week. Butter and eggs also remain steady, but there is a hardy perceptible downward tendency in some kinds of meat.

In the fish market, Columbia River shad is of particular interest as far as the most delicious (provided you get it fresh and cleverly boned) and inexpensive of dinner materials. The possibilities of planked shad and of shad roe, in various forms, are well-known to local epicures. Chinook salmon costs 15 cents, Rock Cod 10 cents, herring, both new this week, cost 12 1/2 cents; halibut, perch, red snapper, herring and flounder cost 10 cents a pound. Mussels are again in the market at 10 cents a pound. Salmon checks sell at 25 cents a dozen. Clams and crabs are selling cheap and plentiful and give rise to delight or despair, according to their treatment by cook and consumer.

FASCINATING NOVELTY. Dvorak's "New World" Symphony Will Be Given by Damosch's Orchestra. Dvorak's brilliant imagination finds full play in his symphony, "From the New World," which will be given the leading place in the programme Wednesday afternoon at the Damosch orchestral concert. His daring orchestration, so warm and rich in color; his striking sense of rhythm and melody; overflowing with vivid, original beauty; make him eminently fit to embody the spirit of the American people in symphonic form. The fact that he, with all his Bohemian genius, had been transplanted to America, where many of his later works were given their first production, makes this interpretation of American National life doubly interesting.

Tachalkowsky, Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Gounod, and Goldmark will also be given a place on the afternoon programme. Wednesday night will be devoted exclusively to Wagner. These two concerts take place at the Armory, management of Steers-Coman.
