LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 16 .- (Special.)—It was a ragged game today, with four pitchers participating, two on each side. The Beavers won again, 8 to 4, thus putting another crimp in the Angels' ambitions. The scoring was done after the following manner: In the first inning, after Ort fanned, Oison was safe when Roth fumbled his hot-grounder to third. Hetling was out at first. McCredie walked. Fisher singled, scoring Oison. Ryan hit to Delmas, forcing Fisher at second. For the Angels, Daley singled and took sec-ond on Rapps' muff of Krapp's throw to catch him off first. Bernard was out at first, Daley taking third and scoring after Ryan had pulled down Wheeler's sacrifice fly. Dillon walked, stole second and was out attempting to steal third.

In the third the Angels went to pieces and after Ort had fouled to Roth, Olson singled to left and took second when Murphy kicked the ball instead of catching it. Hetling singled to cenker, sending Olson to third, from where he scored when Daley tried to field the ball with his feet. Hetling stole second. McCredie singled and Hetling was nalled at the rubber on Daley's perfect peg to Orendorff. Fisher doubled, scor-ing McCredie. Ryan singled to infield. sending Fisher to third, and was out

In the fourth Rapps walked. When Speas went after a high ball to sacrifice the bail slanted off the bat and struck him on the forehead, necessitating a delay to permit him to recover. he singled, sending Rapps to Krapp singled, scoring Rapps and sending Speas to third.

The ball bounced and struck Bernard on the head and more time was taken out for his recovery. Ort sin-gled to left, scoring Speas. Dillon thought this was plenty for Delhi and sent in Criger. Krapp stole second and scored on Delmas' poor threw to throw to catch the runner napping. Ort attempted to reach third on the play and was out. Olson fanned. Hetling singled to center, McCredie grounded out to Dillon Bernard singled for the Angels, then Wheeler singled and Dillon hit to Ort, who overthrew second, all runners being safe and the bases filled, with none out. Murphy went out at first. Roth singled infield, scoring Wheeler. Delmas singled to center, scoring Dillon. Krapp was taken out at this point and Seaton substituted. Ross, batting for Orendorff, sacrificed. Criger went out

There was no more scoring until the eighth, when, for the Beavers, Rapps walked and Speas hit to Wheeler, who touched second, forcing Rapps. Speas stole to second and took third on Senton's out at first.

Ort singled, scoring Speas and was out stealing second. Olson struck out in the ninth and Hetling walked and stole second. McCredie fouled to Delmas. Fisher doubled, scoring Hetling. LOS ANGELES

BORLESKE LOSES OWN GAME

University of Washington Beats Whitman, 6 to 4.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 16.—
(Special.)—The University of Washington and Whitman College battled for 11 long innings this afternoon in what at times was a spectacular exhibition of the National game. Washington won by the score of 6 to 4. But until the last man was out, it was anybody's game.

washington scored three runs in the lith, while Witman had scored one and had two on bases when Ciark buckled down and disposed of the remaining two batters:

Borleske lost the game for Wnitman when he threw wild with men on bases. Whitman ... 4 4 5 Washington 644 9
