STUDENTS PRESENT PLAY

ST. FRANCIS ACADEMY'S ENTERTAINMENT WELL RECEIVED.

Young Actors and Actresses Acquit Themselves Well in Production of "The Promise."

The annual entertainment given by the students of St. Francis Academy last night took the form of an exceptionally interesting play, "The Promise," introducing the best talent of the institution. The Bungalow Theater was packed with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience.

"The Promise," a comedy-drama, in five acts, afforded an excellent vehicle for the accomplished young women who participated, and vocal numbers and artistic tableaux were interpolated with effect.

Miss Ethel Craib was seen in the leading role, and gave a charmingly unaffected and sincere bit of work. Miss Nellie Daly was heard to advantage in a gay little song, "I'll Do the Same for You," to which she gave an additional interest by her dramatic interpretation of the lines.

"A diminutive miss, Lavinia Lund, captivated with a vocal selection, and John Belfie, who possesses an unusually good baritone voice, sang "One Sweetly Solenn Thought."

The cast of the play:

Mrs. McDermott.....Miss Irene Studley
Peggy, servant.....Miss Ethel Craib
Evangeline, Kitty, Mabel, friends of Marian.....Miss Nellie Daly, Miss Lulu Monahan, Miss Arilla Cook.
Leona.....Miss May Nadeau
Peggy, servant.....Miss Ethel Craib
Mathilda, servant.....Miss Alice Drennen
Granny Gilligan.....Miss Ethel Dugan
Lady Melrose.....Miss Ethel Craib
Alma, her little daughter.....Miss Nellie Daly
Ethel, her niece.....Miss Lavinia Lund
Ethel, her niece.....Miss Ruth Brooks
Lucille, her niece.....Miss Ethel Craib
Lucy, the governess.....Miss Ethel Craib
Madame Felice.....Miss M. Alsworth
Topsy.....Miss M. Alsworth
Mother Zenda, the Gypsy Queen.....Miss M. Alsworth
Gypsy Zola, daughter of Lady Richards.....Miss Nellie Daly
Gayly costumed gypsies added a picturesque note of color, while the girls who essayed the principal roles were greeted beautifully. The entertainment reflected the excellence of the dramatic training as well as the talent and skill of the pupils of the Academy.

WOMAN AIDS WITH KNIFE

She Stabs Longshoreman Fighting With Her Husband.

Marian Thompson, a longshoreman, was stabbed in the back twice by Mrs. Harry Knauss yesterday afternoon while the husband of the woman was engaging in a fist fight with Thompson. The participants reside in a lodging-house at 67 1/2 East First street, and, although Thompson refused to attend to a complaint against the woman, all concerned in the affair will be brought up in the Municipal Court on a charge of disorderly conduct. Later in the afternoon Thompson swore to a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Knauss.

Officer Stark Lytle was sent to investigate the cutting scrape, learning that the fight was the outgrowth of an old feud between the wife of Thompson and Mrs. Harry Knauss. At 3:30 yesterday afternoon Thompson and Knauss had a worthy battle in the hallway outside their rooms, which soon developed into a battle of bare knuckles. Knauss apparently was getting the worst of the scrap when his wife is said to have grabbed a big jack-knife and to have made two vicious jabs from behind at Thompson.

The longshoreman was so weakened from the knife wounds that he staggered towards his apartment, followed by a fusillade of dishes and glassware. He left a stream of blood on the floor behind him, and covered the walls and tables in his own room with a gory smear. A physician was called to attend to his wounds, both of which were nasty and painful, although not serious.

A hurry call was sent to the police station, but when the patrol wagon arrived Thompson refused to make a complaint against the woman. An investigation showed considerable evidence of disorderly conduct, however, and the story of the affair was laid before the District Attorney's office.

Salem, Oregon.—I have sold 3 1/2 lbs. Texas Wonder of St. Louis, Mo., for the last five years for kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles, and have never had a complaint and cheerfully recommend it to the public. J. C. Perry, Sixty days' treatment in each bottle.

REALTY PROFIT LARGE

$5500 INVESTED NETS $12,000 IN THREE YEARS.

Property South of Morrison Street May Be Held by Present Owner for Further Increase.

Following closely upon numerous sales made last week south of Morrison street, comes another like sale negotiated for a quarter block at Fifth and Montgomery streets. This property, at the southeast intersection of the streets, was bought by Dr. A. E. Rockey from J. C. Friendly and Jacob Rosenthal for $25,000. The deal was negotiated by Jack Kirkman, Messrs. Rosenthal and Friendly bought this corner three years ago for $13,000. At that time instead of paying the full amount in cash, the buyers paid only $500, giving a mortgage for the remainder. The profit of $12,000, realized from the original investment of $5500 is clear. The property, which is occupied by old frame barns, brings in a rental of $95 a month. This sum has been far more than enough to pay the taxes, insurance and interest on the mortgage and leaves more than the usual interest on the $5500 investment.

Dr. Rockey bought the property as a site for an apartment-house, but his plan for improvement are now in an incipient state and it is said he may decide not to improve at all but to hold the corner as an investment and take advantage of the expected further increase in value.

One prominent real estate dealer offered something akin to a nervous shock. He had negotiated a deal for the sale of a property at $140,000. The abstracts were examined by the prospective buyer and found satisfactory and a deposit of $10,000 had been left with the realty dealer to bind the purchase. The property owner, a woman, had agreed to the purchase price and the real estate operator took his $10,000 check around with every expectation of making a comfortable commission.

Upon reaching the home of the woman

APARTMENT-HOUSE SITE SOLD

R. V. Jones Buys Quarter at Eleventh and Montgomery.

A quarter block at the southwest corner of Eleventh and Montgomery streets has been bought by R. V. Jones, of the Western Oregon Trust Company, from J. C. Mitchell and J. A. Messner, for $28,000. Several old frame residences are now on the property. These will be replaced with a high-class apartment-house. The sale was made through the agency of Dabney & Dabney.

P. V. W. Fry, of the firm of D. Parker Bryon & Co., will leave tonight for Los Angeles and San Francisco on business connected with the organization of another large syndicate for the handling of an inside business property in Portland. D. Parker Bryon returned from Los Angeles yesterday, where he had been attending to the preliminary arrangements for the organization of the syndicate. With him came his cousin, James K. Bryon, of the Wells-Fargo-Nevada Bank of San Francisco. Mr. Bryon will locate in Portland.

GUILTY WILL BE PLEA

GUILDFORD STANDS BY STORY OF ATTEMPTED BRIBERY.

Fitzgerald Criticizes Lawyers' Practice of Looking Up Data on Men Drawn for Jury.

That Howard Guilford, the young man who confessed to an attempt to bribe Juror Barton in the Morris trial, will enter a plea of guilty when he comes to trial and throw himself on the mercy of the court, is now believed, Guilford has stuck to the story told in his original confession, which shifts the chief blame for the bribery attempt on other persons, Attorney Campbell and Gossland, who are representing Guilford, say that they have cross-examined the lad in the most rigorous manner, but have failed entirely to shake his first story. The whole matter will be taken before the grand jury, which meets on Monday.

"It seems to have been somewhat of a custom for lawyers to look up the life history and pedigree of members of a jury just as soon as a new panel is drawn," said Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald yesterday. "I have often tried cases where the lawyers for the defense have a whole mass of notes about every juror, telling just who he is and how much he is worth. I don't believe this is fair, for the rich and the poor are not given the same kind of consideration. If there is no law which covers this business, I think there should be. At any rate, the grand jury will have an opportunity to delve into the matter."
