GIRL PUPIL DEFIANT

Otha Brooks Will Not Allow Examination for Contagion.

FATHER CALLS IT "GRAFT"

Fifteen-Year-Old Girl Is First to Refuse Submission to Cursory Scrutiny Customary and Will Be Expelled Say Directors.

Backed by her father, Miss Otha Brooks, aged 15, living at 122 Wiberg Lane, has absolutely refused to allow School Inspector Abele, of the City Health Officer staff, to examine her for symptoms of contagion. In doing this, she has forced the Board of Education to consider her case with a view to compelling compliance with the rules or to submit to expulsion from Holladay school, where she attends.

Careful consideration was given her case yesterday afternoon by the Board of Education at its regular meeting, and it was finally referred to the committee on judiciary. She will be expelled from school say the Board members, unless

POLICEMEN ARE SLEEPY

SERGEANT FINDS TWO OF HIS MEN SLUMBERING.

Officer Supposes They Are After Desperate Criminals, but They Are Only Snoring.

Found asleep at 2 o'clock yesterday morning while on duty, Patrolmen Rush Williams and J. J. Mackay have been suspended by Chief of Police Cox. Shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday morning Sergeant Parker saw the two policemen enter the basement of the house at East Twenty-first street and Broadway. He presumed they were in search of a criminal, and so he waited outside for 20 minutes before suspicions entered his mind. Then he entered the basement, where the snoring of the sleepers were to be heard on the still night air.

Flashing his lantern, Sergeant Parker found that Williams was stretched out on the floor, while Mackay was comfortable in a rocking chair. Waking them, Parker told the sheepish duo to get back on their beats. A report was made to Captain Slover, who, in his written statement to Chief Cox, said: "I recommend dismissal, as Patrolman Mackay has been asleep before and Williams is no good."

SMITH MAY BE GOVERNOR

Hood River Man Is Mentioned as Possible Candidate.

R. A. Booth, of Eugene, ex-State Senator, and for many years active in State Republican politics, has announced that he will not allow his name to be used in connection with the nomination for Governor. Many of Mr. Booth's friends have been urging him to make the race.

E. L. Smith, of Hood River, who was a candidate for United States Senator in 1906, is now being mentioned as a possible candidate. Owing to the fact that the assembly idea originated in Portland and because of a disposition on the part of outside county leaders to believe that it is to be operated in the interests of Portland candidates, there is a strong local sentiment in favor of an out-of-town man being endorsed by the State assembly when it meets July 21. Officers of the state central committee, however, are taking great care to keep entirely out of such matters. "The only object we have in making the assembly a success," said an officer yesterday.

CHEHALIS MASONS BUSY

New Home Planned to Cost Close to $60,000.

CHEHALIS, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—The Chehalis Masonic lodge has a project launched that probably will result in this city, having a beautiful five-story lodge and office building. It is proposed to buy the Commercial block, located on the corner of Market and Bolafort streets. The structure is 63x75 feet in size. Three stories are to be added to the building and the old part thoroughly remodeled and rearranged.

The estimated cost of the proposition when carried out is $60,000. Chehalis is the center in Southwest Washington for several of the higher branches of Masonry. The success of the project now depends on the sale of $20,000 worth of 6 per cent bonds.

At this time there are under construction, or projected, with contracts let, public and store buildings of one sort and another in Chehalis aggregating $30,000, not including this latest project.

Celebration Not Popular. JACKSONVILLE, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—At a recent meeting of the Commercial Club it was decided that Jacksonville should celebrate the Fourth of July. This decision does not meet with popular approval, and while no one seems to advocate a "mass Fourth," the business men who are soliciting find that the people prefer to spend the money in municipal improvements.
