

IOWA, AT ELECTION TODAY, IS WATCHED

State Will Go on Record for or Against Administration of Taft.

PROGRESSIVES MAY WIN

Gubernatorial Fight Most Bitter With Both Factions Making "Night Before Battle" Predictions of Victory.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 6.—Iowa, at tomorrow's primary, will go on record for or against the Taft Administration. Full state and Congressional tickets will be nominated by the Democrats and Republicans.

In six of Iowa's 11 Congressional districts the progressive candidates have no opposition within their own party, and at the November election the issue will be squarely between them and the Democratic candidates.

In the First, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Districts the Republicans have contests between the so-called "stand-patters," or "stalwarts," as they prefer to be known, and the progressives.

In each of these districts two Democrats also seek the nomination of their party.

Taft Enemy Running. In the Tenth, Frank P. Woods, progressive, is opposed by Lewis H. Mayne, whom President Taft yesterday refused to reappoint as postmaster at Emmetsburg.

Both factions in the contested territory make "night-before-the-battle" declarations of victory. In the gubernatorial fight, Governor E. P. Carroll and Warren Garst, his progressive opponent, allege majorities of from 25,000 to 40,000.

Delegates Important Feature. This convention, besides drawing the Republican platform, will name a state central committee. Hence the selection of delegates to the convention is regarded of great importance.

It is understood, however, that the great majority of delegates have been named from the Iowa Taft Club, which is organized in every voting precinct of the state, and that they are being opposed to legislative insurgency.

So far Governor Carroll has ignored National issues as bearing on his case. It is quite probable that the Iowa Taft Club, with its perfect organization, has been working for Garst. The Governor has publicly ignored the club but the club has, by no means, ignored him.

Claimants Make Predictions. From campaign headquarters tonight the following declarations have been given out.

"If 150,000 votes are polled, Governor Carroll will win by 40,000 majority."—Joe Long, secretary Carroll campaign committee.

"Garst will win by 15,000 to 25,000 majority."—Ed Chassell, one of the managers of the Garst campaign.

"I will carry by 20,000."—Judge S. F. Prouty, Progressive candidate, Seventh District.

"Hull will win by a safe majority."—Hull booster committee.

Progressives May Control. It is quite generally believed that the Progressives will control the convention, even if they do lose out on the head of the ticket.

While many of the counties of the state may return majorities for Carroll, the county delegates, which will select the delegates to the state convention will be progressive.

In the Congressional rights Progressives are confident that Judge S. F. Prouty will win over Representative J. A. T. Hull.

In the Ninth District, where Attorney-General Byers has been waging a terrific struggle with Congressman Walter I. Smith, the situation is much the same.

Progressives are equally confident in the Eighth District and predict the nomination of John Darrah, of Chariton, over Judge H. M. Towner.

OIL INSPECTOR PAYING UP F. A. Clark Checking Up Vouchers for Portland Office.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 6.—(Special.)—"I am here to check up the vouchers for the Portland office to see that certain bills owing there are paid, and then to make final settlement on the state," said F. A. Clark, ex-Oil Inspector, who reached here tonight.

"I was authorized by Governor Head to arrange for some one in the Portland office at those times when the inspector was out of town, and John W. Taggart, whom I employed, has presented a claim for about $200 for such services. Some rental is also due for the Portland office, and I want to see those claims settled."

"The bureau report shows me owing $333. I have other business to engage my attention at once, and have decided to accept these figures as correct and to settle on that basis."

COOS BAY GETS FAST MAIL Stage Will Run Over Old Road, Much Improved.

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 6.—(Special.)—P. Barnard, of Eugene, who has the new contract for carrying mail in and out of Coos Bay, will begin on the new schedule July 1. Instead of coming by way of Myrtle Point and then by train to Marshfield, the Coos Bay mail will come by way of the old Coos Bay wagon road from Roseburg and will reach here early

TRAUT PAID LOBBY

Fund to Defeat Illinois Fish Bill Traced to Him.

SAYS HE KEPT NO MONEY

Corruption Fund Traced to Man Who Distributed It and Whose Stories to District Attorney and Grand Jury Differ.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 6.—Progress was slow today in the legislative inquiry now centered on the fishing license bill, which, opposed by the big fishermen of the Illinois River, died in the closing hours of the General Assembly.

Three witnesses were examined by the grand jury and one of them, J. F. Traut, of Bardonia, to whom the fund to defeat the bill has been traced, will return tomorrow for further examination.

Traut's version of the fund told to the grand jury differs from that he gave Saturday night to State's Attorney Burke, when he declared to Mr. Burke that he kept the money. To the grand jurors he said he spent the money for the fishermen's lobby against the bill.

F. E. Schweer, of Bardonia, told the jurors of bringing the fund to Springfield and giving it to John Dixon, who has already declared he delivered it to Traut. Schweer declared he knew nothing regarding alleged payment of money to defeat the bill.

Charles Gridley, of Virginia, Ill., who represented the fishermen in the Springfield lobby, was given a clean bill by Mr. Burke after he had testified before the grand jury and had declared that his work was purely professional.

Ralph O. Lord, bookkeeper for Henry Lemm, of Pekin, one of the contributors to the fish fund, identified the check which Lemm gave as his share of the fund.

BROWNE'S TRIAL IS DELAYED Habeas Corpus Petition Blocks Empaneling of Jury.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The trial of Leo O'Neil Brown, indicted on charges of bribery in connection with the election of United States Senator William Lorimer, was set back another day by the arguments of counsel on the plea for a writ of habeas corpus today.

Judge Kitcham Scanlan took the question under advisement and will give his decision at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

While the arguments were being made in Judge Scanlan's court, Judge McSurley and 100 veniremen were waiting for the case to be brought to trial. When he heard Judge Scanlan would give no decision until tomorrow, Judge McSurley adjourned his court until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The main contention of the defense in its argument for a writ of habeas corpus was that the state courts had no jurisdiction. Ex-Judge Ebbetts Hancey advanced the theory that, while the Legislature was sitting as a joint assembly to elect a United States Senator, its delegates were not within the jurisdiction of the state courts.

Foundrymen Meet in Detroit. DETROIT, June 6.—A convention of foundry interests embracing the American Foundrymen's Association, American Brass Foundry Association, Foundry Foremen's Association and Foundry and Manufacturers' Supply Association, opened in Detroit today.

It is estimated that before the convention is adjourned 6000 delegates will have been in attendance.

MAUDE ADAMS AT BAKER Erection of New Theater Causes Bungalow to Be Abandoned.

Maude Adams, when she appears in Portland next week in "What Every Woman Knows," will play at the Baker Theater instead of the Bungalow. The erection of George I. Baker's new theater at Eleventh and Morrison has made this change necessary, as one wall of the Bungalow Theater has already been torn out.
