R. G. Busse Is Robsed.—Robert G. Busse, a painter, living at 322 East Forty-third street south, was robbed Monday by a stranger, whom Busse had given a ride across Morrison bridge to the West Side. Mr. Busse drove from his home to East Twelfth and East Saimon streets in his light wagon, where he was accosted by a stranger who said he wanted to get to the West Side, and being unfamiliar with Portland bridges had been unable to find his way. The stranger was invited into the wagon and given a place hestide the driver and taken across to Second street, where Busse stopped to Second street, where Busse stopped and the stranger left. Busse then went to the United States National Bank, but finding it closed dropped into a news-stand to buy a paper. Here he found stand to buy a paper. Here he found that his purse containing $5 in gold and $2 in silver had been taken from his pocket by the man whom he had befriended. The man sat on the seat in the wagon next to Busse and evidently abstracted the purse while crossing the Morrison street bridge, which was crowded at the time. rowded at the time.

CARD GAMES STOPPED.—All card games in the coffee houses in the North End run by Greeks, were stopped yesterday by Police Sergeant Wanless, acting upon instruction from the Chief of Police.

Many complaints have reached the police from these places, it being charged that Greek laborers from the construction camps and other places are relieved of sums as high as $400 in the crooked games conducted by members of the local colony. On account of the fact that the players are all allens it has been imposplayers are all allens it has been impossible to secure positive evidence on which to convict the players of gambling, but playing of all kinds will be discouraged by the police hereafter.

NEGRESS FINED $50.—Neil McKenney, a negress who recently made a vicious assault upon Patrolman Humphries with a hatpin, was in Municipal Court yesterday on charges of disorder and of resisting an officer. She was defended by Attorney A. Walter Wolf. Humphries testified that the woman had accosted him and that when he attempted to arrest her she jabbed him with a hatpin. and that only the intervention of his star to the point of the pin saved him from a desperate wound. The woman was fined $25 on each charge.

CAR SERVICE DURING PARADES.—During parades cars on East Side lines will switch back at west approach of bridges. North Portland cars will switch at Third and Burnside streets. South Portland cars will switch at Third and Jefferson streets. Depot and Morrison cars will switch at Seventh and Morrison streets. Portland Heights, Twenty-third street and Six-teenth-street cars will switch at Seventh and Washington streets.

ALLEGED FORGER HELD.-Louis Klug ALLEGED FORGER HELD.—Louis King was held to the grand jury in Municipal Court yesterday on a charge of forgery. The complaint sets forth that he executed a note for $250 on November 4. 1809, running six months and bearing 8 per cent interest, and signed by himself, Emms Klug. John Rometsch and Leopold Dietz. The complaint is signed by Dietz, who says that his signature to the note is forged.

TRUCK STOPS TRAFFIC.—Traffic on the TRUCK STOPS TRAFFIC.—Traffic on the Steel bridge was delayed for nearly half an hour Monday night, at the busiest time, by a large truck of the Holman Transfer Company, driven by John Glanz. wheels engaged with the right-hand streetear track and the vehicle was too wide to allow ears from the other direction to pass. It was neces-sary to back the truck off of the bridge before travel could proceed.

Vagrant Gers 30 Days. — Thomas Schwartz, accused of stealing a watch from Charles Farnsworth, of Sheridan, pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy in Municipal Court yesterday and was sentenced to 30 days on the rockpile. The watch had been restored to the owner watch had been restored to the owner and the charge was reduced according-ly. Schwartz was arrested by Detective Tichenor a few bours after the com-plaint was made.

HOTEL PATION FALLS.—M. Brenner, a patron at the Bowman Hotel, fell 12 feet from a window yesterday morning to the sidewalk, and sustained painful, but not dangerous injuries. The accident was reported to Patrolman Roney. It was found that the man had struck the walk on his head and had suffered a severe cut in STRANGER STARS LABORER.-J. Ferry, s aborer, was stabled five times by a stranger with whom he had an altercation in front of a saloon, at Third and Couch streets, Monday night. Societt Plans Excursion.—The Consolidation of German-Speaking Societies of Oregon will probably have a special day at the State Fair in Salem, when the societies will attend in a hody. The matter was considered at length at the meeting of delegates held Monday night. Delegates present favored having such a day, and it was decided to have the matter submitted to the several local German societies for their action. If they approve the arrangements will be made. The plan is that a special train be secured for the trip to Salem. There will be athletics by the different organizations. It was also decided to have an excursion to Mount Angel on June 18, in which the Swiss Society of Portland will take part. A special car will be secured to carry the excursionists between Woodburn and Mount Angel. An article written by Otto Kleemann, president of the consolidation, treating of the statewide prohibition movement, was read and ordered printed in the local German papers and also to be circulated as a campaign document among the farmers of the state.

Saloonman Dead in River.—The body of H. S. Simbill a former saloon proof the state.

Saloonman Dead in River.—The body of H. S. Simbill, a former saloon proprietor, was discovered in the river yeaterday morning by a party of longshoremen at the Aibina ferry, and was turned over to the Coroner. There were no marks of violence and the man is believed to have thrown himself into the river while in a fit of despondency induced by drink. He was last seen Monday night in a Washington-street saloon, had plenty of money and was drinking heavily. There was no money on the body when found. About two months ago. Simbill sold a saloon which he formerly conducted on Washington street and had since been drinking a great deal. The case will be investigated by the Coroner today.

Moving Signs Must Go.—Unsightly moving billboards are not to be tolerated by police during the Rose Festival. Yesterday afternoon, Bert Taylor was arrested by Patrolman Thorpe, of the traffic squad, at Third and Washington streets, on a charge of violating the billposting ordinance. Taylor had devised a huge billboard, which, propelled by a horse inside, wandered around the streets, blazoning forth the merits of various proprietary articles. The offending sign was taken to the police station and the owner was placed under bond to appear this morning and answer to the charge. He was warned to keep his billboard off the streets in the future.

Auto Hits Pony and Rider.—Fifty dol-Moving Signs Must Go.-Unsightly

AUTO HITS PONY AND RIDER.—Fifty dollars' reward is offered by Dr. E. M. Hutchinson for the discovery of the automobile driver who knocked his son, Brubaker Hutchinson, from his pony, injuring the steed. The boy was riding in the vicinity of Sixteenth and Washington strets yesterday morning, when an automobile came along at a high rate of speed, knocking down pony and rider. The horse was badly injured but the boy escaped injury. The description of the car is known and an effort will be made to find its driver. The autoist went on without offering any inquiry or assistance.

SUM OF $1500 ALLOWED FOR VACATIONS. Acting Postmaster Williamson was yesterday in receipt of an authorization of $1500 as an allowance to meet the expense of the employment of extra clerks at the Portland Postoffice during vacation time for the regular clerical force. There are 140 regular clerks, each of whom is entitled to 15 days leave of absence at full pay. Clerks will be forced to work extra time for regular pay in order that each may have a vacation.

POLICE, Too, ARE DECORATED.—Every police officer of the city yesterday were above his shield a beautiful Portland rose above his shield a beautiful Portland rose and will continue to do so throughout the life of the Pestival. An order to that effect was issued by Chief of Police Cox and in a few hours every member of the force on duty had provided himself with the finest specimen he could secure. There was much emulation among the officers to excel in this little incidental feature of the great show.

Salvation Army Meet.—The Salvation Army will hold a big Rose Festival meeting tonight in hall No. 1, 265 Davis street, at which all the Western territory commanders will participate, assisted by the field, industrial and rescue staffs. A special service will be conducted and a large crowd is expected. Commander T. Estill, Colonel G. French and Brigadier R. Dubin will be the principal speakers.

Dubin will be the principal speakers.

STREETCAR HITS MAN.—John Bick, living on the East Side, was knocked down by a St. Johns streetcar at 3 P. M., yesterday, suffering a scalp wound but no apparent serious injury. Witnesses say that the man started to walk in front of the car with his head down when it was not more than 20 feet away. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

Gypsies Ordered to Leave.—Louis Adams, a gypsy, was fined $25 yesterday for beating Mary Yoanivich and the band was ordered out of town yesterday, in the Police Court. The woman submitted no evidence to prove that other gypsies had murdered her child, as she charged, but the beating was witnessed by Deputy Sheriff Beatty.

Charter Changed Asked.—The South Portland Booster Club is asking the East Side push clubs to co-operate in chang-ing the charter so that big fills may be paid for out of general taxation in-stead of by district assessment as at present. Bridges are now being built by general taxation. WOMAN PROFANE IS CHARGE.-Warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Mrs. J. W. West, of 1294; Russell street, on a charge of using profuse and abusive language. The woman, who is 60 years of age, was arrested on the complaint of of age, was arr W. H. Barrett.

stand Taken by Mayor and Police Meet With Approval of Union Drivers-Relief Distant.

The efforts of Dr. Benjamin Young and H. W. Stone to bring about a peaceable settlement of the teamsters strike have thus far met with little success. The voluntary arbitration success. The voluntary arbitration committee met a number of the team owners yesterday forenoon, and in the afternoon a meeting was field with the leaders of the teamsters. With the Draymen's Association firmly determined to establish the open-shop policy and the teamsters firmly convinced that they have the strike already won, there seems little chance of a peaceable set-

The teamsters say that the drivers for one of the largest non-union transfer companies in the city will join the union today, and that a number of other companies probably will be tied up within a few days.

The stand taken by Mayor Simon is highly commended by the leaders of the strike. G. A. Rogers said:

"The stand taken by Mayor Simon is just to both the team owners and members of the union. We have tried to conduct this strike without violence to conduct this strike without violence and thus far we have succeeded, and so long as we get the fair treatment we have thus far received from the Mayor's office and the police depart-ment, I feel assured that there will be no cause for any demonstration. We added 20 new members to the union last night, and it looks as though many more will join within the next few days."

Teamsters' Union was strictly maintained yesterday and nearly all of the non-union drivers sent out were induced to desert their wagons.
