

REGULARS CLAIM CONTROL IN IOWA

Resolutions Condemning Cummins and Dolliver Already Considered.

CARROLL'S FIGURES GROW

Surprise of Day Comes in Large Majority of "Progressive" Opponent of Hull, for Which Tariff is Blamed.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 8.—With only five counties missing tonight, Governor Carroll, Republican, is renominated by a majority of 735 votes.

The surprise of the election is the majority rolled up by Judge Prouty, "Progressive," over Representative Hull. Prouty carried every county in the district, his unofficial majority being 3106.

Even the most sanguine "Progressives" had hoped for little better than a small margin. Two years ago Hull was nominated by 49 votes over Prouty.

Tariff Attitude Unpopular. The remarkable shift is attributed solely to the course of the "standpat" Congressmen, of whom Hull was one, on tariff legislation.

President Taft early in the campaign spoke in this city in support of the Administration policies. The defeat of Garret, which is admitted tonight by the Register and Leader ("Progressive") by so small a majority is held to indicate to some degree the general sentiment of the state on National affairs, despite the fact that Governor Carroll insisted that he was running on his state record only. Two years ago Carroll was nominated over Garret by 23,000 votes.

Pepper's Nomination Surprise.

The Second District Democrats at first believed to have chosen De Armond, nominated I. S. Pepper.

Results of the primaries were as follows: Republican—First District, C. A. Kennedy, "standpat"; Second, Charles Grilk, "progressive"; Fourth, Gilbert N. Haunshen, "progressive"; Fifth, James W. Good, "progressive"; Sixth, N. E. Kendall, "progressive"; Seventh, R. F. Prouty, "progressive"; Eighth, H. M. Towner, "standpat"; Ninth, Walter I. Smith, "standpat"; Tenth, Frank P. Woods, "progressive"; Eleventh, E. H. Hubbard, "progressive"; Twelfth, J. S. Pollard, "standpat"; Thirteenth, John Demmons, "standpat"; Fourteenth, D. D. Murphy, "standpat"; Fifteenth, S. C. Huber, "standpat"; Sixteenth, Dan Hamilton, "standpat"; Seventeenth, Clint L. Frew, "standpat"; Eighteenth, W. L. Cleveland, "standpat"; Nineteenth, Will E. Whittington, "standpat"; Twentieth, no candidate; twenty-first, no candidate.

Regulars Claim Convention.

In the 11th district the Democrats made no nomination, but the name of Will I. Whiting was written into the ballot, as it is allowed in this state, and he was chosen.

The regular Republicans assert that they will control the next state convention, having a bare majority of the 1400 delegates chosen yesterday. If this proves true and no hitch in the present plans, the insurgent delegation will get at best but brief mention.

The platform, it is said, may go so far as to condemn the course of Senators Cummins and Dolliver.

HULL'S DEFEAT BRINGS JOY

Cummins Says Issue Overshadows Others in "Progressive" Camp.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Senator A. B. Cummins of Iowa, who was here today, saw a great victory for the "progressive" Republicans in Iowa primaries yesterday. He said the defeat of the Republican candidate Hull, "standpat" Republican, overshadowed all the other issues in political significance.

"The fight of the 'progressives' was waged on Representative Hull," said Senator Cummins. "He has been in Congress for 29 years and is chairman of the military affairs committee and a leading ally of Speaker Cannon. His retirement is a big victory for the 'progressives'."

"I believe Garret will be chosen as the candidate for Governor. The progressives have had an uphill fight, as it has been the custom to give the Governor two terms in Iowa."

"The result of the Iowa election," continued Senator Cummins, "is a victory for the 'progressive' element in the Republican party, which I am sure will prevail in the future. There may be some disposition in circles at Washington and throughout the country to get the two factions together and it may prevail. A united party must be had in order to win the coming or future elections; but if one element is proved right, the other should abide by that result."

"How are we to tell which is right? I guess that will have to be left to the people and if the voters express preference for one faction as against the other by electing that faction it is a fair sign which is the choice of the people. I believe the 'progressives' will win."

Questioned regarding the alleged bribery charges made in connection with the election of Senator Lorimer, Senator Cummins said:

"I cannot talk of the Lorimer case, for I will probably speak on the question when it comes up in the Senate, and that may be a long way off. We cannot tell when it will be considered—maybe not at this session, as we probably shall adjourn the first week in July. The time is short for consideration of such a serious problem as the unseating of a member of the United States Senate."

SMITH PERSONALLY POPULAR

Insurgents Comforted, Though Opponent on Rules Has Won.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—"It was Judge Smith's great personal popularity that overcame his record in the House rules fight in the primaries yesterday," was the insurgent view of the results, as voiced by Representative Murdock, of Kansas.

"The insurgents scored a net gain of two in the primaries," continued Mr. Murdock, "and the result bespeak the progress of insurrectionism."

REGULARS REJOICE AT NEWS

Victories of Smith and Kennedy Acclaimed at Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The reported victory of the "standpat" candidates for Governor in the Republican primaries in Iowa and of the two regular Republican candidates for Congress, Walter I. Smith and C. A. Kennedy, against whom the insurgents, under the leadership of Senator Cummins, made their strongest fight, caused jubilation in the camp of organization Republicans at the capital today. Mr. Smith, who was renominated in the Ninth district, is a member of the rules committee of the House, and one of Speaker Cannon's staunchest supporters. He telegraphed to Sergeant-at-Arms Casson today that he had been nominated by a majority which a telegram from ex-Representative Lacey, of Iowa, put at 5000. Lacey's telegram claimed 35,000 majority for Carroll for Governor.

JAPANESE PRINCE, VISITING WASHINGTON, RECEIVES HONORS DUE TO HIS RANK.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Prince Fushima, of Japan, who arrived in Washington last night, today officially received the attentions due his exalted station. With considerable ceremony the Prince gave up the day to a series of social affairs.

In the morning he received formal calls from Secretary Knox and Secretary Meyer. In due course he returned both calls, accompanied by Baron Uchida, the Japanese Ambassador.

Tonight the President will entertain the Prince at dinner at the White House.

BOWLBY IS DENOUNCED

Walla Walla Business Men Give Up in Despair Improvement Plans.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 8.—(Special.)—Declaring that the State Highway Commissioner H. L. Bowlby went about his business like a schoolboy and was lacking when it came to a common business transaction, J. H. Morrow, a member of the committee appointed last fall by the Commercial Club to look after the interests of good roads in this county, bitterly denounced the action of the commissioner yesterday.

Without any notification of its coming arrangements for its removal to the Dixie stone quarry, the machinery purchased by the state to crush rock at that quarry in the mountains arrived several days ago, and still remains unloaded and unclaimed, exposed to the elements.

When the local delegates went to the good roads convention at Aberdeen last week ago, and it was learned that the people of Walla Walla would have to raise $5000 for the placing of the machinery after it arrived in Walla Walla, upon inquiry the Walla Walla delegates learned through a statement from Bowlby that they would have to stand approximately $1000.

At this point the business men threw up the fight, refusing to have anything further to do with the quarry. It is not known what will be done with the machinery.

LIQUOR RETAILERS FORM ASSOCIATION

Elevation of Business They Are Engaged in, One of Members' Objects.

PORTLAND MAN PRESIDENT

Many Reforms in Trade and Opposition to Prohibition Are Among Aims of New Organization With Statewide Membership.

Oregon retail liquor dealers organized a permanent association in Portland yesterday, at a convention held in the Mar-quon building, and which was attended by 200 delegates. The organization adopted the name of Retail Liquor Dealers' Mutual and Protective Association.

The following officers were elected: President, Frank Hoffman, of Portland; secretary, C. D. Elder, of Portland; treasurer, A. G. Magers, of Salem; trustees, Al Seafelt, of Astoria; B. A. Miller, of Aurora; E. A. Gerechten, of The Dalles.

Business to Be Elevated. Elevation of the business in which the members of the organization are engaged is one of the principal objects of the association, and in carrying out new ideas in that respect, those who were at the convention yesterday were enthusiastic.

It is probable that when the resolutions are adopted they will contain declarations favoring the association of the liquor business from gambling and all questionable houses, and favor the revocation of the licenses of liquor dealers who do not comply with the laws of the Government, state or city. It is also said that a resolution is under consideration advocating the issuance of licenses only to American citizens.

Discussions Will Be Held. During the sessions, state-wide prohibition will be discussed and some measures for combating the movement of the prohibitionists will be decided upon. The members of the association will probably subscribe to a fund to be used in the publishing of literature and for expenditure in other legitimate ways of protecting their interests.

The only open meeting of the session was held yesterday morning. Frank Hoff, man called the meeting to order. Mr. Patterson, of Salem, was chosen temporary chairman and Mr. Peterson, of Portland, temporary secretary.

Purposes Are Outlined.

Several short addresses were made concerning the objects of the association and Mr. Fitzgerald, representing the League, spoke on the purposes of that organization.

The meetings will be continued today, at which time the resolutions will be taken up and considered. It is possible that the association will go on record as favoring the use of Oregon-made products wherever possible.

The delegates who are in the city represent practically every locality in the state, where local option has not been enforced.
