JEFFRIES POUNDS SPARRING PARTNER

During Fast 3-Round Bout, Ex-Champion Draws Blood From Bob Armstrong.

TROUBLE RUMOR IS DENIED

Big Fellow Says He and Berger Are on Best of Terms and Brands Story of Strife as Work of Trouble-Makers.

BEN LOMOND, Cal., June 8.—Three fast rounds with Bob Armstrong in which Jeffries drew blood from his colored sparring partner for the first time since the training began at Ben Lomond, constituted the principal feature of a comparatively quiet day.

Jeffries was faster than usual, and countering heavily on the negro's mouth, made the blood flow freely. Jeffries and Corbett did not box but probably don the gloves tomorrow, as the outdoor boxing platform was completed late this evening.

Jeffries this afternoon reiterated his statement that no difficulty had arisen between himself and Manager Sam Berger, that Berger's work had been entirely satisfactory and that no change was contemplated. Jeffries displayed warmth in branding the rumor of trouble with his manager as coming from trouble makers.
