

The Oregonian

Entered at Portland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-Class Matter... Portland, Oregon.

Portland, Friday, June 10, 1910.

PROPERTY AND SOCIALISM.

A man at Tacoma, E. F. Baldwin, dissects from recent comment of The Oregonian on President Taft's speech against Socialism.

There are many kinds and conditions of socialistic ideas and they naturally are in frequent conflict with each other.

"Collective ownership of everything that is collectively used" is a catch phrase of certain Socialists.

OUR MOST EFFECTIVE ADVERTISING.

Detailed statistics on bank clearings as presented in the current number of the New York Financial Chronicle.

THE LURE OF GOLD.

Another shipment of gold amounting to $450,000 has been shipped from Alaska, for Seattle.

THE KAISER'S WEALTH.

With his income from the public of $22.50 a minute the Kaiser ought to feel reasonably secure from want in his declining years.

fortunate few. And yet the world welcomes the output of these mines and could not get along without them.

HOTELS AND PROHIBITION.

First-class hotels are injured by prohibition perhaps more than any other kind of business.

BANK RATE AGAIN DECLINES.

The Bank of England's official discount rate was reduced to three per cent yesterday.

REFORMING LEGAL PROCEDURE.

Two important committees have been appointed to help forward the good work of reforming the judicial procedure.

WATER POWER IN COLORADO.

"Interests" Don't Prefer Coal Energy. Yet Pinchot Talks "Trust."

Letter to New York Sun. A year or two ago Mr. Pinchot began a sort of crusade to prevent citizens of the West from developing water power.

BEVERIDGE'S RHETORICAL GEMS.

"Could Any Speech Wing Higher, Face Farther and Say Least?"

Every now and then, and not so rarely these days, the news comes to hand of the pages of the Congressional Record.

LIFE'S SUNNY SIDE

The boys of a local day school applied to the town's education committee for an allowance of money toward the expenses of their cricket ground.

laws of the state because he owned no property. Being industrious, he went to work and presently had money enough to buy a mule.

ALMS AT FEDERAL SUPERVISION OF ALL INTRA-STATE BUSINESS.

Disappointing as is the postponement of the corporate tax case, its enormous importance to the country.

30-C EGG COST PUBLIC 38.

Government Report on Food Margins Between Producers and Consumers.

What the farmer gets for his butter, eggs and chickens and the price which the consumer pays to the retailer.

What Is a Democrat?

At about this time, as the almanacs say, look out for definitions of a Democrat.

Fallacies of Republicanism.

The Republican is the best of all parties; it has saved everything worth saving.

Cleaning a Razor Home.

A razor hone which has been spoiled by steel particles filling the pores can be made as good as new by washing with hydrochloric acid and then in water.

Concedes His Likings.

Springfield (Mass.) Union. Latest reports from Washington indicate that Champ Clark is willing to concede.

The American "Kid."

Scene—A New York city. A young man is holding a large bundle of babies.

Superiority of the Irish.

Springfield Republican. The question of self-government is quite as lively and important in Ireland as in Egypt.

Finds Many Things to Do.

St. Louis Globe Democrat. It isn't that the Colonel does his night work but that it is so much so that he finds so many things to do.

ing power, and therefore the control of the General Government, over important instrumentalities of state government—corporations created by the states.

According to Washington (D. C.) dispatches, the return movement from Canada to the United States has set in.

H. M. Adams, at present traffic chief of the North Pacific Railroad, has been selected by the Gould interests to take the place of Mr. Adams in the Western division of the railroad.

The conscience-stricken Illinois bribe-taking politician asks why they took the Lorimer money.

It must be a comfort to the President to find that there is one town in the United States which would welcome the negro regiment.

Western States paid the highest average price for butter, 37.5 cents, for which the average price in the rest of the United States was 36.2 cents.

Mr. Bryan, Grave-digger.

When the late Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, was in the flesh, Mr. Bryan held him in high regard.

Comet Filled in 1864.

Philadelphia Ledger. It seems that Pepsy, in 1864, was much disappointed to find that the people who are complaining today of Halley's comet, because, after all the free money that he received, it failed to have a more brilliantly iridescent trail.

Pinchot and Jimmy Garfield had a conference at Mentor yesterday.

The matter of paying for crepe was probably not one of the subjects discussed.

Just keep good-natured and move forward.

Ohio has built for sixty years a double capacity these nights.

Minister Crum can hardly be satisfied in Liberia.

The Liberians are all "cuddled folkies."

Everybody could not get a prize, but everybody can feel proud.

Did you get home last night, or was it this morning?

We love our goose eggs, but O. you Beavers.

WATER POWER IN COLORADO.

"Interests" Don't Prefer Coal Energy. Yet Pinchot Talks "Trust."

Letter to New York Sun. A year or two ago Mr. Pinchot began a sort of crusade to prevent citizens of the West from developing water power.

H. M. Adams, at present traffic chief of the North Pacific Railroad, has been selected by the Gould interests to take the place of Mr. Adams in the Western division of the railroad.

The conscience-stricken Illinois bribe-taking politician asks why they took the Lorimer money.

It must be a comfort to the President to find that there is one town in the United States which would welcome the negro regiment.

Western States paid the highest average price for butter, 37.5 cents, for which the average price in the rest of the United States was 36.2 cents.

Mr. Bryan, Grave-digger.

When the late Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, was in the flesh, Mr. Bryan held him in high regard.

Comet Filled in 1864.

Philadelphia Ledger. It seems that Pepsy, in 1864, was much disappointed to find that the people who are complaining today of Halley's comet, because, after all the free money that he received, it failed to have a more brilliantly iridescent trail.

Pinchot and Jimmy Garfield had a conference at Mentor yesterday.

The matter of paying for crepe was probably not one of the subjects discussed.

Just keep good-natured and move forward.

Ohio has built for sixty years a double capacity these nights.

Minister Crum can hardly be satisfied in Liberia.

The Liberians are all "cuddled folkies."

Everybody could not get a prize, but everybody can feel proud.

Did you get home last night, or was it this morning?

We love our goose eggs, but O. you Beavers.

BEVERIDGE'S RHETORICAL GEMS.

"Could Any Speech Wing Higher, Face Farther and Say Least?"

Every now and then, and not so rarely these days, the news comes to hand of the pages of the Congressional Record.

H. M. Adams, at present traffic chief of the North Pacific Railroad, has been selected by the Gould interests to take the place of Mr. Adams in the Western division of the railroad.

The conscience-stricken Illinois bribe-taking politician asks why they took the Lorimer money.

It must be a comfort to the President to find that there is one town in the United States which would welcome the negro regiment.

Western States paid the highest average price for butter, 37.5 cents, for which the average price in the rest of the United States was 36.2 cents.

Mr. Bryan, Grave-digger.

When the late Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, was in the flesh, Mr. Bryan held him in high regard.

Comet Filled in 1864.

Philadelphia Ledger. It seems that Pepsy, in 1864, was much disappointed to find that the people who are complaining today of Halley's comet, because, after all the free money that he received, it failed to have a more brilliantly iridescent trail.

Pinchot and Jimmy Garfield had a conference at Mentor yesterday.

The matter of paying for crepe was probably not one of the subjects discussed.

Just keep good-natured and move forward.

Ohio has built for sixty years a double capacity these nights.

Minister Crum can hardly be satisfied in Liberia.

The Liberians are all "cuddled folkies."

Everybody could not get a prize, but everybody can feel proud.

Did you get home last night, or was it this morning?

We love our goose eggs, but O. you Beavers.

LIFE'S SUNNY SIDE

The boys of a local day school applied to the town's education committee for an allowance of money toward the expenses of their cricket ground.

"But why should poor Mr. Smith be left out?"

"Oh, no, sir," was the uneasy reply. "But we'd rather he didn't come. You see, we made our pavilion out of old bacon boxes we borrowed from his back yard, and we're a bit afraid he might recognize them."—Tit-Bits.

When Brittonham, of the Twentieth police district, hears the cry of "Help!"

"Help! Help! I'm sinking for the third time!"

"You're all I've got, pard," he told the copper. "but one of 'em's yours. You've got my life, and my pocket."

A man went into a druggist's shop and asked for something to cure a headache.

"But didn't it ease your headache?" asked the apothecary.

"Yes, it did," answered the boy, brightening up.

"Mark Twain," said a magazine editor, "liked to tell, as an illustration of persistence and push, a story about a Sheephead Bay race.

"The Devil's Dance."

No larger than a mouse, the conscience and sanity of the world than that of ending by limitation of armament the arms race.

IN THE MAGAZINE SECTION OF THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN

REVIEW OF THIS YEAR'S GREAT ROSE FESTIVAL

Special edition to meet the demands of thousands who wish to send copies to distant friends.

IDEAL TROUT STREAMS CLOSE TO PORTLAND

Together with valuable hints to beginners and to new residents, by a man who knows the fishing game from A to Izzard.

AN OUTING IN THE MOUNTAINS OF OREGON

Enthusiastic Californian relates some experiences which include a bear and a mountain lion.

JIM JEFFRIES' CAREER UP TO THE PRESENT TIME

The greatest of all fighters tells of his early battles, and speaks enthusiastically of Oregon as a huntsman's paradise.

T. R.'S MEMORABLE RECEPTION IN NEW YORK CITY

The Japanese schoolboy, in his own original style, tells what happened next week on the arrival of the steamer.

ORDER EARLY FROM YOUR NEWSDEALER