JUNK DEALERS CAUTIONED Fictitious Purchases Will Not Protect Men From Law.

Mendel Dorfman and Israel Pachurra, junk dealers, were held to the grand jury by Judge Bennett yesterday, on a charge of stealing over $300 worth of sawmill machinery from H. L. Goodwin. In holding the men, Judge Bennett took occasion to warn junk dealers in general that no excuse of purchasing stolen stuff from persons not the real owners would be accepted in such cases. The court said that it was a too common practice of these men to buy junk at ridiculously low figures from anyone who said he was the owner, without reasonable investigation. Goodwin shipped the sawmill machinery to this city, on route to Battle Ground, Wash., and it was stored in a vacant lot on the East Side. Saying he had purchased the property from a man named

229 VOTERS REGISTER Third Day's Record Drops Below That of 1908.

Yesterday's registration of voters at the Courthouse numbered 229, while the registration on the third day in 1908 totaled 211. But the registration booth was open only half a day yesterday, accounting for the shortage. Of the 229, 182 were Republicans, 26 were Democrats and 21 were classed as miscellaneous. On the third day in 1908, 244 were Republicans, 54 Democrats and 13 declined to state their politics.

FATE UNKIND TO 3 TOTS Father in Jail, Mother Indifferent, They Go to "Home."

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 9.—(Special.)—With their father, possibly, on the rocks at Kelly Butte, in Portland, their mother with no means and not much desire to support them, three little children were taken to the County Poor Farm a month ago, and now the County Commissioners have ordered them sent to the Children's Home in Seattle. The little ones are Oriole, aged 7 years; Irene, 4 years, and Ora Mobley, 2 1/2 years old. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ora Mobley. The mother did work in a Chinese restaurant here, and the last heard of the father he was in jail in Portland. The Commissioners were informed of the pitiable condition of the little children, and they were ordered taken to the County Poor Farm. When George Johnson, Deputy Sheriff,

MAUS IS NEARING DAWSON Exodus From Vancouver Barracks to Rose Festival Is General.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., June 9.—(Special.)—General Marion P. Maus, commanding officer of the Department of the Columbia, who is absent on a tour of the six posts in Alaska, has completed the trip to the territory and is now going overland to Dawson. Advances of his progress were received here today. The sum of $25,000 will be disbursed to the soldiers here today and tomorrow. The soldiers in the post were paid today and those at the target range will receive what is due them tomorrow. Major James Canby, of Portland, is the paymaster. Hundreds of officers and soldiers went to Portland today to see the magnificent parades this afternoon and tonight. The post will be almost deserted, except the ### CONFETTI BAN DECLARED Albany City Council Also Prohibits Use of Feather Ticklers.

ALBANY, Or., June 9.—(Special.)—Confetti-throwing is a thing of the past in Albany and the pleasant practice of throwing a feather duster in the face of a fellow-being has also been abolished. A ban was placed on both of these pastimes by the City Council of Albany last evening. The ordinance passed last evening makes it a misdemeanor to throw confetti in this city or thrust a feather duster in another person's face. A fine of from $5 to $25 or imprisonment in the City Jail from two to 25 days are punishments provided for violation of the ordinance.

WRONG ALBANY HIS GOAL Note From Eugene, Or., Gives Clue to Missing Tacoma Man.

TACOMA, June 9.—"Dear Vi: Going to Albany to see Lizzie and the children. My head aches and I'm awful hungry. Goodbye." This note was received this morning by Mrs. H. T. Bona, wife of the manufacturer who disappeared Monday. The letter had been mailed at Eugene, Or., yesterday, and was in Bona's handwriting. The family is unable to account for his being in Eugene if he is on his way to his daughter Lizzie, whose home is in Albany, N. Y., except on the theory that in his confusion he bought a ticket for Albany, Or., 14 miles from Eugene. The aged man is believed to be suffering from temporary mental derangement due to business worry.
