

WITHDRAWAL BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Provision for $30,000,000 Irrigation Bonds Accepted Without Debate.

ALASKA AMENDMENT FAILS

Effort to Extend Philippine Land Laws to Friar Holdings Is Unsuccessful — Withdrawals Will Be "Temporary."

WASHINGTON, June 15.—With $50,000,000 provided for the completion of irrigation projects and various other amendments, the House today authorized the withdrawal of public lands by the President passed the Senate today.

Several other amendments were presented, but none of importance was adopted. Among the more important provisions rejected were an amendment by Beveridge specifically withdrawing from entry the coal lands of Alaska and one by Gore bringing the operation of the Philippine laws on those islands. There was no roll call on the final passage of the bill.

Bonds Pass Overwhelmingly.

The bill was taken up soon after the Senate convened and a vote was ordered on the Carter amendment authorizing the issuance of $30,000,000 worth of certificates of indebtedness for irrigation. There was no debate and the amendment was accepted with practical unanimity. Senators Burton, Gallinger and Keen casting the only negative votes out of a total of 69.

Dixon Presented an Amendment

authorizing the appointment of a conservation commission of 15 and spoke in support of it. Heyburn sought to have the amendment changed so that the commission be selected from west of the 100th meridian. He said the East was not interested in conservation and Eastern men were not familiar with the subject.

Pinchot Not Wanted.

"In my prophetic mind I see Mr. Gifford Pinchot at the head of the commission," he said. "We want no such commission—no such masters."

He said he was opposed to the commission on general principles and complained it was intended to "make places for some people and give the commission an air of exclusion and imperial power."

Gallinger Agreed with Heyburn

and said: "If the mistake overtakes us of having at the head of the commission the gentleman mentioned I can see nothing but trouble to come of it."

Senators Overman, Clarke of Wyoming, Lodge and Gallinger opposed the Heyburn amendment as sectional, and it was withdrawn.

After Further Discussion the Dixon Amendment Was Laid on the Table.

Friar Lands Not Extended.
An amendment by Gore extending the public land laws of the Philippines to the friar lands was voted down.

While speaking in support of his amendment, Gore criticized a decision of the Attorney General authorizing the acquisition of more of the Philippine lands, saying:

"No first-class lawyer other than the Attorney General would have rendered such a decision."

He declared the tendency seems to be to give the sugar interests a monopoly of the Philippine islands.

Burton presented an amendment, the effect of which would have been to restrict mining and prospecting rights on withdrawn lands donated to the crown in the face of a protest from Smoot.

Burton was unsuccessful in an effort to strike out the word "temporary," as defining the proposed withdrawal.

Alaska Coal Discussed.

Presenting an amendment authorizing the withdrawal of coal lands in Alaska and providing for their lease, Beveridge said if the principle included in the amendment had been adopted 20 years ago enough returns would have been insured to pay off the national debt and pay most of the taxes.

Borah charged the policy was to close up Western coal mines in the interests of Eastern miners. He said the leasing system would place the control of the mines in the hands of a few men. Carter declared that coal is now being shipped from West Virginia to Valdez, Alaska, when just as good coal could be had within gunshot.

"This," he exclaimed, "is not conservation; it is waste—criminal waste."

Beveridge declared that the forests of Michigan had been "ruthlessly slaughtered" to put more money into the already bulging pockets of private owners. He contended the general public should have had some of the benefits of these returns from their own property.

Replying to Beveridge, Nelson declared that the leasing provision of the bill had been drawn by someone utterly ignorant of conditions in Alaska.

Beveridge replied that the bill was a mere abbreviation of an earlier bill introduced by Nelson himself. The amendment was voted down. The bill was then passed.

S. BAN NOT ON STEAMER

Error in San Francisco Paper Misleads Friends Here.

S. Ban, president of the S. Ban Company and the S. Ban Shing Company, is not a prisoner on the Nippon Maru, now lying in quarantine in Golden Gate harbor. Mr. Ban yesterday called at the Oregonian office in person to show that he was in Portland and stated he had not been out of the city for several months.

Based on a news item in the San Francisco Chronicle, a brief note in the Oregonian yesterday stated that Mr. Ban was returning from Yokohama and in quarantine with the rest of the passengers on the Japanese liner. The California paper plainly identifies Mr. Ban as the Portland merchant and presumably must have been misled by some passenger using the name of the Portland man.

KIDNAPED CHILD LOCATED

Parents of Youngster Divorced in Spokane Several Years Ago.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 15.—Following news of the arrest of her former husband, John K. Stack II, of Montreal, as a sequel to the kidnaping of her son, Mrs. Roy E. Burbank, of this city, left for Los Angeles with her present husband today to endeavor to recover the child. Since the boy disappeared six months ago no trace of him has been found. Stack is a millionaire and lives in Ecandada, Mich. Mrs. Stack received a divorce several years ago and was awarded the custody of their son. She married Roy E. Burbank later, and while they were on a visit to Mexico John K. Stack III was stolen from the home of Mrs. Burbank's mother in St. Louis. Since then detectives have been constantly on the trail of the boy's father, but without finding trace of the child. John K. Stack II was arrested in Michigan and placed under $10,000 bonds. His hearing on a charge of kidnaping was continued from time to time, and several days ago he left Detroit and went to Canada. Fearing that he was trying to escape there, he was arrested on an execution warrant.

If Stack has knowledge of his son's whereabouts, he seemingly has made no efforts to see the boy, and the hunt for the latter has failed utterly thus far.

SPOKANE, June 15.—Orion Bright Allen Stack was divorced from J. K. Stack in Spokane, August 12, 1908, on charges of cruelty and infidelity. Her marriage to Roy Burbank was announced last December. Her son, Jack Stack, is about 6 years old.

STREETCAR SPILLS MILK

Gottlieb Schwob Thrown From Wagon When Crash Comes.

Milk cans were scattered in every direction, the wagon almost completely demolished and the driver, Gottlieb Schwob, was thrown from his seat by the force of the impact when an inbound Montevideo streetcar ran into the rear end of a milkwagon on East Ghess street. The accident occurred at the intersection of East Third and East Thirtieth streets, last evening shortly before 7 o'clock.

Schwob was injured about the face and body, sustaining several painful bruises, but was not seriously hurt. Blame for the accident is an unsettled question. Schwob says he was unconscious of the approach of the car while the conductor, A. L. Helm, declared the normal sound of his warning bell. The car was going about eight miles an hour, say those who saw the accident.

FILE $1,500,000 MORTGAGE

C. A. Smith Timber Interests in Six Counties Involved.

ALBANY, Or., June 15.—(Special.)—A mortgage for $1,500,000 was filed in the County Recorder's office here today. It was given by the Linn & Lane Timber Company and the C. A. Smith Lumber & Manufacturing Company to the Union Trust Company and Frederick H. Ranston, trustees. It covers all of the immense timber holdings of the Smith interests in Coos, Curry, Douglas, Lane, Lincoln and Linn counties.

The mortgage is given to secure the 6 per cent gold bonds of the Linn & Lane Timber Company for $1,500,000. These bonds fall due in sections of from 25 to 50, semi-annually, from 1911 to 1927, and the real estate covered in the mortgage is to secure the payment of each bond as it falls due.

The instrument was signed in Hennespin County, Minnesota, June 4, 1910. C. A. Smith signing it as president and Charles L. Trabert as secretary of both of the companies giving the mortgage. The instrument is printed and bound into a small pamphlet, it contains 24,000 words and the filing fee in the Recorder's office here was $40.

2 KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Oriental Limited Crashes Into Box Cars on Main Track.

WENATCHEE, Wash., June 15.—East-bound passenger train No. 2, Oriental Limited, due here at 2 A. M., crashed into three freight cars which had been abandoned on the main line through apparent carelessness, with result that two men are killed, two cars entirely telescoped and the passenger engine wrecked.

The killed are Thomas G. Kenney and one unknown man. Both dead men were beating their way up the train; one was on the top, the other on the blind baggage. One of the most marvelous things of the wreck was the fact that neither Engineer W. D. Russ nor Fireman John Soplak, of the passenger engine, were injured. After telescoping the boxcars, the engine toppled over to the west side of the track, and both men climbed out the rear way.

GUS QUICK TO SEIZE DOG

Army Officer in Vancouver One Day When Pet Disappears.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 15.—(Special.)—"Gloomy Gus" Nelson, Vancouver's unpopular dog-catcher, today came to the attention of the city's police officer when he captured Lieutenant George F. Rosell's pet dog and impounded it.

The officer spent half a day looking for his pet before some one suggested that the dog might have crossed "Gloomy Gus" wide path.

Lieutenant Rosell found that Gus did have his dog, so went to the pound, paid a dollar, making Gus smile and himself happy. The dog was glad to be returned to his master, so everybody connected with the episode is happy.

The lieutenant arrived from the Twenty-second Infantry, in Alaska, yesterday, and brought his dog with him.

FARM HANDS ARE NEEDED

Preparations Under Way for Harvest in Southeastern Washington.

DAYTON, Wash., June 15.—(Special.)—With continued favorable weather, harvest will begin in southeastern Washington, by the middle of next month. Owing to the fact that more machinery will be used this year than ever before and the prospects for a light yield of spring barley, harvest is expected to be shorter than ever before. That farm hands will be scarce when grain cutting starts is the belief of leading Dayton farmers, many of whom are already seeking specialists such as separator tenders, engineers and combine harvester men.

It may be found necessary materially to increase the wage scale for harvest hands in order to get enough men to take care of the crops, in view of the demand in other parts of the Northwest. Hay harvest began around Dayton this week and men are reported scarce for this work.

Not Hold Assembly.

PENDLETON, Or., June 15.—(Special.)—While unloading wood from a flatcar in the local O. R. yard, Fred Daugherty went to sleep in the shade of another car. One foot was thrown across a rail, with the result that when a freight train backed onto the track with a long string of cars his foot was cut off. Daugherty is 25 years of age and a resident of Pendleton.

Experiments are being made in Cuba in manufacturing paper from sugar cane fiber. The paper is high grade, and cheaper than it could be made from wood pulp.

ROADS GIVEN FRANCHISE

Spokane Council Gives in to North Coast and Northern Pacific.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 15.—(Special.)—Franchise to the North Coast and Milwaukee Railroad Companies and for the union passenger station in Spokane were granted by the City Council today. This puts an end to the long and acrimonious discussion in the Council and in the public press, extending over a period of three months, and it also disposes of the proposition that franchise matter be left to a vote of the people.

An amendment that the city receive compensation for streets to be vacated, when such vacation occurs, was adopted. Another amendment proposing that, beginning with the year 1911, the city road pay a yearly revenue of $1000 for the franchise was voted down. An amendment requiring that the franchise be submitted to a vote of the people to determine whether or not they approve the franchises on terminal rate basis was twice voted down.

In the audience, which filled about half the hall, were Mrs. Robert Strahorn, wife of the president of the North Coast and a party of her friends, and they joined in thanking the Council and those instrumental in passing the franchises.
