LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 15.—(Special)—The Beavers trimmed Happy Hogan's Villagers in the opening game.

The visitors put up a superior sample of baseball and only once were they threatened—and that was in the seventh.

McCredie's Advice Works.

Only once did he show signs of weakening and that was in the seventh. McCredie calmed him down by some whispered advice—as is his wont—and the danger passed without a Hoganite showing at the plate.

Climax Comes in Eighth.

The climax, however, came in the eighth, which was opened by a double by Olson and was out. Lindsey then hit a hot one to Hettling and Brashear dashed for the plate, but Hettling fielded perfectly and caught Brashear with a clever throw.

FANDOM AT RANDOM. BACK IN THE lead for at least one day in the result of Vern Gregg's work against the Vernon bunch yesterday, for Portland shut the Hooglians out, while Sacramento did likewise with Oakland.

Gregg, the Portland southpaw, pitched some fine ball yesterday, for he was steady and had the Hooglians on his staff throughout.

The way the first four clubs are bunched in the Pacific Coast League race is enough to cause the most ardent fan heart failure.

Jack Fitzgerald, the Sacramento twister who has been on the carpet on several occasions, enjoyed one of his good days yesterday, and when he is good he can beat any club in the world.

Walter Nagle had a bad day against the Hooglians yesterday, for the Hooglians would have put it all over the San Francisco club.

The Portland fans need not be surprised in the least if Fred Harkness, better known as "Speck," should be found twirling for the Beaver band in a few days.

Hosp and Brislawater are both in the South, having been sent back last week, but it was not known here that their releases were to follow.

Hosp has not shown the expected form since returning to the Los Angeles club from Cincinnati, which purchased him on the strength of his work in the early part of last season.

Hosp has notified Hosp to appear for practice with the Vernon club tomorrow.

PLAIN FACTS

Many Reasons Why Murraymead Should Be Thoroughly Investigated by Realty Buyers.

NEW TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENTS

Purchasers in Closest In East Side Tract Will Realize Handsome Profit.

I have believed for a long time that one element that you will always find present in Nature—human and otherwise—is laziness.

Certain downtown property has its large value because it is the easiest to get at for the largest number of people; and so it is with each succeeding grade of property.

In Murraymead, you have all that the laziest could desire. Aside from the Oregon City line, the Mount Scott and Hawthorne-avenue line is the only broad-gauge carline in town.

As to improvements, Murraymead's are of the very highest type. Cement walks, paved streets, sewers, water, etc.

Prices are $1700 to $2000 for inside lots, and $250 to $2650 for corners. Building restrictions, $2500 to $3500.

To purchasers of the first ten lots I allow, as previously advertised, a 100 discount, if purchase is made on terms, or 10 per cent on a cash purchase.

Remember, Sunday is opening day, and things will probably go with a rush. I think it will pay you to look the property over between now and Sunday and make your reservation early.

Take Hawthorne-avenue or Mount Scott car to East 24th and Hawthorne and walk four blocks south to my tract office; or come direct to my downtown office, and one of my salesmen will take you out in the machine.
