WAVERLY GOLFERS ALSO PLAY

Major Morrow Makes Best Score in Contest for Trophy.

Commemorating the birth of the late Tom Morris, one of the earliest patrons of the game of golf, a team of eight men, all members of the Waverly Golf Club, played against bogie for the trophy cup of the Western Golf Association on the Waverly Links yesterday.

This tourney is in the nature of a telegraphic or correspondence competition, for each club affiliated with the Western Golf Association played similar games on their respective links unless prevented by weather conditions.

At the Waverly links yesterday Major J. J. Morrow made the best score, winding up with a down. J. E. Young captured second honors, while Jordan Zan was third among the Portland golfers.

The total average of the team will be sent to the Western Golf Association headquarters in Chicago and the team securing the best average over the regulation Tom Morris trophy courses will be awarded custody of the cup for the year.

The scores follow:

Major J. J. Morrow..... 4 down
J. E. Young..... 7 down
Jordan Zan..... 10 down
J. W. Bennett..... 14 down
A. B. Wright..... 15 down
T. B. Lambie..... 16 down
J. Alexander..... 18 down
D. T. Honeyman..... 18 down

FULTON REPLACES PENINSULA

Blues Are Admitted to Vacancy in Tri-City League.

Through the disbandment and withdrawal from the league of the Peninsula team, the Fulton Blues, a crack independent team of Portland that has made an enviable record in this vicinity, was admitted into the Tri-City League and will play its first game next Sunday on the McKenna Park grounds, Portland, against the Dilworth Dribbles team, the league leaders.

Among the Fulton players are several players that are ready for faster company. Parker, the twirler, was given a tryout last year by the Aberdeen team of the Northwestern League and made good. Jack Gray, who has been pitching for Goldenrod in the Columbia River Valley League and for the former Peninsula team, will also pitch for Fulton. Behind the bat, he will be represented by Gleason, Day or Jorgensen, all of whom are reputed to be reliable catchers. McFarland, who played for Peninsula and who is at present the leading batter of the Tri-City League; Magee, Hoxie, Beagle, Smith and Shearer will make up the infield. Morningstar, Jones, Luckey and Taylor will be the outfielders. Luckey has been with the Fulton team all season and has 11 home runs to his credit. He is expected to make a fight for hitting honors in the league. Sunday's game will be called promptly at 5 o'clock.

MISS SUTTON GOES TO SPOKANE

Northwestern Tennis Tourney Also to See Miss Hotchkiss.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 16.—(Special.)—The sports committee of the Spokane Country Club, at a meeting today, decided to defray the expenses of Miss May Sutton, woman champion of the tennis world, and Miss Mabel Hotchkiss, perhaps her nearest rival, in order to have this great pair of players at the stellar attraction of the international tournament to be held on the club courts in Manisot Park the week beginning July 4.

Miss Sutton and Hotchkiss have both advised local clubmen that they will come for their expenses, and after going over the situation, Joe Tyler, chairman of the tennis committee, said that the committee had decided to take the risk.

M'CHESNEY HERO OF BASEBALL

St. Joe Centerfielder Pulls Off Hard Double Play, Unassisted.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 16.—In a game between the Denver and St. Joseph teams of the Western League today, McChesney, center-fielder for St. Joseph, pulled off a play probably never before seen in organized baseball when he made a double play, unassisted.

Kelly, Denver's third baseman, who was on second, started for third when line drive was hit to center field. McChesney speared the ball with his bare hand and beat Kelly back to the bag.

JAP TO TAKE ON AMERICANS

Jiu-Jitsu Will Be Tried Against Boxing and Wrestling.

On Friday night, June 16, the sport fans of Portland will be treated to a novelty in the athletic line when Young Togo, a Japanese jiu-jitsu exponent, will pit his skill in the Oriental style of wrestling against Jockey Bennett, a boxer, and Ed Abernathy, a catch-as-catch-can wrestler.

Togo is a diminutive chap, weighing but 110 pounds, while the two athletes he will tackle that night each weigh at least 150 pounds more than that.

The fact that he is going to use jiu-jitsu against the scientific art of boxing has excited a great deal of interest. Jockey Bennett, the bantamweight who has appeared here in a number of exhibitions recently, is looked upon as one of the cleverest mital-wielders in the ring at his weight today.

The matching of jiu-jitsu against boxing, it is asserted by Eddie Robinson, manager of Togo, has never occurred before, and this, if so, means that Portland will have the first chance of seeing the merits of the two methods of self-defense.

RENO AFTER FIGHT IN EARNEST

Nevada Divorce City Will Make Substantial Offer.

RENO, Nev., June 16.—Following an enthusiastic meeting of the business men of Reno, a committee representing the business interests of the city today made preliminary plans toward bringing the Jeffries-Johnson fight here, the committee this afternoon toured the city in search of the most available location for an arena.

Tonight the committee will meet William McCahey when he arrives from San Francisco, for the purpose of securing licenses for the two big contests of July 2 and July 4, and will ascertain what are the wishes of the parties he represents.

Reno is prepared to make a good, substantial offer for the privilege of furnishing the battleground for the championship fight.

Richard C. Goddard, Attorney-General of Nevada, today issued the following statement:

"The Legislature having prescribed certain conditions, which, if properly complied with, permit glove contests, it is beyond the functions of any executive officer to prevent such a contest. The license is issued when accompanied by a physician's certificate as to the condition of the men, the county clerk is bound to issue the license. The Legislature made it lawful to conduct glove contests in Nevada and no power except the Legislature can prevent them."

SAN DIEGO FORBIDS FIGHTS

A' Fistic Contests Prohibited in Resolution Adopted by Council.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 16.—As a result of the action of Governor Gillett against the holding of prizefights in California, the City Council, in session this morning, adopted a resolution, introduced by the superintendent of the police department, forbidding the scheduled bout between Morris Bloom and the Montana Kid at Dreamland Pavilion tomorrow night.

The resolution, in addition, provides that no boxing contests, sparring exhibitions or prizefights may be conducted within the city limits at any time in the future. This, it is believed, effectually kills the fighting game in San Diego and puts the promoters out of business.

Fandom at Random

FOR the first time in many days there was no change in the standing of the clubs in the Pacific Coast League yesterday, for all the leading teams lost.

Some of the rabid fans are highly elated because Portland has remained on the top of the heap two successive days. The "knockers" cannot believe it and are inclined to think there is a mistake.

Big Ben Hunt, another southpaw, was "to the good" yesterday, and he succeeded in repeating the dose of whitewash administered Oakland Wednesday. It seemed a day for southpaws and shutouts.

Governors and Mayors are likely to steer clear of Chicago in the future, for Mayor McCarthy, of San Francisco, was quoted on a story about the big fight, which he is credited with denying later a la Gillett. Wonder if the California officials ever really mean what they say?

Elmer Koestner, the former star pitcher of the Los Angeles team, mounted the hill for the Cleveland Americans yesterday and defeated the speedy New York Highlanders by the score of 5 to 3. Koestner has pitched several times, but this is his first full game.

Roy Hitt was "all to the candy" yesterday, and like all left-handers, working good, he had no trouble in pulling out against the McCredie band with ease. The goose eggs came regularly and easily.

Many of the fight fans who bought pasteboards at $50 a throw are commencing to wonder whether the refund, guaranteed in the event the fight is prohibited, will take place or not.

Frank Arrellanes, the California "rooky" with the Boston Americans, was given a terrific slamming by the batsmen of the champion Detroit team. Jennings "hopeful" collected a dozen runs and 14 hits of Arrellanes.

Beter Buzukos, the Greek wrestler, who appeared here on several occasions last winter, has returned from an extended tour of the East. Pete brings reports of several victories he achieved while in Chicago, Kansas City, Salt Lake and other places.

AMERICAN JOCKIES WIN

FIVE FIRST PLACES CAPTURED IN ASCOT RACES.

Fairies' Bayardo Takes Gold Cup, While Vanderbilt's Seaside II Is Next in Feature.

ASCOT HEATH, England, June 16.—The Gold Cup, the feature of today's racing here, was captured by Mr. Fairies' Bayardo, ridden by the American jockey, Danny Maher. W. K. Vanderbilt's Seaside II was second and J. Lowry's Bachelor's Double third.

A gold cup, with a stake of 100 sovereigns and 3500 sovereigns in specie was offered for 3-year-olds and upward. The distance is two miles and a half. Mr. Vanderbilt's Seaside II and W. A. Aumont's Aveu were brought over from Paris to compete.

The all-aged stakes of 5 sovereigns each, with 300 sovereigns added for 2-year-olds and up, distance six furlongs, was won by H. P. Whitney's Newcastle II. Lawrence was second and Nevoince third. Only three horses ran. Bayardo won easily, leading by four lengths at the finish. Sir Martin, owned by Louis Winans and ridden by "Skeets" Martin, was nowhere.

Danny Maher, American jockey, who has scored more than 1000 successes on the English turf, had a remarkable run of victories today. He piloted horses that won in four races and finished second in another event. "Skeets" Martin, another American jockey, captured premier honors in the fifth race.

GLIDDEN CARS IN ALABAMA

Great Parade in Nashville Escorts Tourists to City Limits.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 16.—The Glidden tourists left Nashville this morning, escorted by upward of 300 cars in a parade to the city limits. The parade was headed by a large number of decorated cars. Tour cars are out of the race. The noon stop was at Columbia, Tenn., 41.5 miles from here, and the night stop at Sheffield, Ala., 119.7 miles away.
