

CAPRICIOUS SOCIAL UPHOLDERS EUSTER

Sunnyside Board's Refusal to Pay Pastor's Salary Declared Invalid.

DISCIPLINE IS VIOLATED

Methodist District Superintendent Says to Withhold Support Is to Be Unfaithful to Vows of Church Membership.

Rev. Mr. W. T. Euster, pastor of Sunnyside Methodist Church, probably will receive his salary in spite of the effort of some members of the official board to prevent it.

Rev. W. B. Hollingshead, district superintendent of the Methodist Church in Portland, has written a letter to Charles A. Gatzka, treasurer of Sunnyside Church, in which he declares the action of the official board in cutting off Rev. Mr. Euster's salary to be illegal.

Rev. Mr. Hollingshead indicated in his talk to the congregation of Sunnyside Church Sunday morning, June 12, what his decision would be, saying the official board could not divert money contributed by the church members for the pastor.

Payment Is Refused.

The order to Treasurer Gatzka not to pay the pastor's salary was sent June 7 by J. P. Newell, secretary of the official board and also a member of the building committee, and H. P. Blake, the acting chairman of the meeting, at which it was moved as follows:

"That we instruct the treasurer to pay the pastor at the rate of $1,000 per year up to June 15, 1910, and to discontinue paying him after that date."

Not all the members of the official board were present at the meeting held the night of June 6, it having been announced by Rev. Mr. Euster that there would be no meeting until the following Monday, as he was busy with the work at the Hart and Mangum Tabernacle.

This decision was to have been read at the services yesterday morning, but it was decided not to do so. No reference to the trouble was made at any of yesterday's services, and to this visit preached with vigor in the morning, receiving several members of the church and making commitments as though all were harmonious.

Broken Faith Charged.

Notwithstanding the declaration of seven members of the building committee last Wednesday morning that there had been no agreement for harmony and peace, it is now charged that some seven broke faith with the friends of the pastor and that they not only shook hands at the meeting Monday night after a session of prayer, but agreed to let bygones be bygones for all time.

The treasurer of the district superintendent, and he declared that there was an agreement to bury all differences and cease all bickering and proceed with the completion of the new church.

Rev. T. B. Ford, of Hood River, former pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist Church, came to Portland in the course of the week and to this visit attributed by some the alleged change in the attitude of the building committee.

Salary Claim Legal.

"Every regularly appointed pastor in the Methodist Episcopal Church is entitled to his claim," Rev. W. T. Euster was a member in good and regular standing in the Columbia River conference and was transferred to the Oregon conference in September, 1909. In September, 1909, his character passed by vote of the Oregon conference. Upon request of the officials and recommendation of the district superintendent he was reappointed to the Sunnyside Church for a second year.

"For an individual to withhold support from his pastor is clearly a violation of the vows of church membership, and for a group of official members to direct a church treasurer to discontinue the payment of a pastor's salary is entirely out of harmony with the spirit and letter of the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and clearly illegal," said the pastor in practice would make the official liable under the laws of the state of Oregon.

The members of the building committee are J. P. Newell, H. Gordon, A. L. Frazer, J. Allen Harrison, W. H. Edwin, G. W. Harvey and F. G. Oppenheimer.

ASSEMBLY IDEAS SWEEPING OREGON

No County Rejects Plan of Sending Delegates to State Gathering.

SENTIMENT IS UNANIMOUS

Action of Clackamas County Is Severe Blow to Demagogues and Agitators—Plan to Disintegrate Party Defeated.

That the "assembly idea" is sweeping Oregon, despite copious advice from County officials to beware of it, is evidenced by reports being received from over the

of this question, it is believed, the hardest fight of all has been won. Oregon City, the capital of the county, has for many years been the hot-bed of demagogical doctrines and practices. During later years self-constituted party leaders there, largely recruited from the Democrats and the late Populist party, have sought to disintegrate the Republican organization and through alignment with Senator Bourne have been fighting the assembly.

A meeting of the Douglas County Committee was held June 4, when action was to have been taken, but owing to there not being a quorum present it was deferred. It is not believed, however, there will be any trouble in securing passage of an assembly resolution.

"O. K.s" Are Received. Among the counties from which reports of "O. K." for the assembly have been received are the following: Gilliam, Hood River, Josephine, Klamath, Morrow, Tillamook, Union, Wallowa, Wheeler, Clatsop, Columbia, Crook, Curry, Grant, Harney, Jackson, Lincoln, Sherman, Wasco, Washington and Wheeler.

The Marion County precinct caucuses will be held July 9, and the County Assembly July 9, when a full set of county officers will be indorsed and delegates selected to the state assembly.

The Yamhill County Central Committee will meet June 28 to pass its assembly resolutions. Other counties are getting in line rapidly and before the last day of the present month it is believed all will have taken definite action.

PYTHIANS ARE ARRIVING

GRAND LODGE OF STATE WILL BEGIN SESSION TOMORROW.

No Important Affairs to Come Before Convention—Rathbone Sisters Also to Meet.

Officers and members of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias began pouring into Portland yesterday for the annual session of two days, which will open at the Knights of Pythias building, Eleventh and Alder streets, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The grand master of the exchequer, J. W. Haloney, of Pendleton, is the first officer of the Grand Lodge to appear, arriving at the Imperial Hotel headquarters yesterday afternoon.

It is believed no important legislation will be attempted at this convention, the meeting being required by the necessity of electing officers for the ensuing year and checking the reports of the financial condition of the order.

There appears to be no opposition to the election of D. E. Yoran, of Eugene, as grand chancellor. He is the second highest officer in the Grand Lodge at this time, and it is a custom of the order to advance the officer to the highest office would make acceptable officers and the most of them are candidates.

Grand Keeper of Records and Seal Hanson and Grand Master of Exchequer Mayne will be re-elected without opposition. They have served the Grand Lodge for many years in those capacities.

On Tuesday night a large number of novices is to be hurried over the hot sands to the oasis of Khorrassan, and at the conclusion of the ceremony a banquet will be given.

The credentials committee of the Grand Lodge, with Past Grand Chancellor Waldman as chairman, met engaged yesterday afternoon in passing upon the membership of the body, and will be ready to report at the opening hour.

Clackamas Gives Joy.

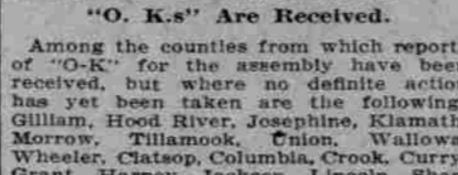

There was much rejoicing yesterday among local party workers over the action of the Clackamas County Committee in deciding to send delegates to the state assembly. With the determination to the recommendation of the State Committee, which named July 9 as the time for holding the precinct caucuses and July 16 as the date for holding county assemblies.

PYTHIANS ARE ARRIVING

A letter from Dr. J. K. Norris, Atlanta, Ga., condenses to the following: "Have tried your Renal Compound on myself and received such great benefit in only one week's treatment that I have thought of the thousands of sufferers who are in need of a place to go where they can receive systematic treatment. As my husband and I are practicing physicians and have completed a sanitarium which we didn't know what to do with owing to my failing health the idea came to me after obtaining such results from your compound to do there was no institution of the kind in our city that it could be made both helpful and profitable."

Would like to hear from you as to terms. The same mail that brought this letter brought one from another physician in an adjoining Southern State, who got such results in the first half dozen cases of Bright's Disease treated with your Renal Compound that he is devoting himself to kidney practice, and he also asks for terms, with a view to establishing a hospital to treat kidney cases solely.

It is possible that these things can happen and that physicians will overlook them and permit their patients to die from the futile ingestion of nitro glycerine, Basham's Mixture, etc., etc.

Kidney disease of over six months' standing was considered incurable up to the time Fulton worked out his Renal emollient, Fulton's Renal Compound. It is now curable in a great majority of all cases. Fulton's Renal Compound can be had at druggists. Literature mailed free. We desire to hear from all who are afflicted with cases not yielding. Address, John J. Fulton, Co., 215 First St., San Francisco, Cal.
