PYTHIANS GATHER FOR GRAND LODGE

Knights of State Will Open Annual Sessions in Portland This Morning.

YORAN WILL BE HONORED

Contests Are Promised for Many of Offices of Order--Women's Auxiliary Will Also Hold Meeting, Commencing Today.

Grand Chancellor Frank Menefee will drop his gavel at the opening of the twenty-ninth annual convention of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of Oregon in this city at 10 o'clock this morning, and will face 300 delegates gathered from all corners of the state.

While the belted and spurred representatives of the chivalry of ancient knighthood are gathered at the castle, Eleventh and Alder streets, Grand Chief Inez R. Chase, of Coquille, will preside at the opening session of a no less important organization, the Pythian sisters, composed of the wives mothers, daughters and sisters of Knights of Pythias. The latter meeting will be held at the Woodmen Hall.

The credentials, finance and other standing committees of the Grand Lodge have been at work at headquarters since Sunday, and their reports will be ready to expedite the work of the organization. During the morning session, reports will be received from Grand Lodge officers and distributed among the various committees for investigation, and during the afternoon the annual election of officers will take place.

Yoran Has Clear Field.

Darwin E. Yoran, of Eugene, has a clear field for the highest office within the gift of the grand body, and will be elected grand chancellor by acclamation.

For the office of grand vice-chancellor, there were a number of candidates announced last night, and it is believed that a number of ballots will be required to make a selection. Salem Pythians are urging the selection of Frank T. Wrightman, now serving in an appointive capacity as grand tribune.

Rainier Knights are here to land something for their lodge, and if they fail to elect A. L. Clark as grand vice-chancellor, will present the name of J. B. E. Bourne for grand master at arms.

Friends of City Attorney Grant developed a large amount of strength among the delegates last night for Grant for grand vice-chancellor. Mr. Grant himself is not an active aspirant, but his friends insist he should run. For prelate of the grand lodge, it is believed that the contest has narrowed down to Thomas Laughary, of Astoria, and W. W. Elfert, of Medford.

"We do not expect that a large amount of legislation will be presented to the grand lodge for consideration this year," said L. R. Stinson, last night, "but no one knows what sort of a proposal may be hidden away in the grips of the boys who are arriving on every train."

Grand Orator Urged.

It is certain that it will be proposed to create the position of grand orator, and require that official to make visits to all district conventions to speak on the history and current events of the order. There are 18 such meetings held in the state each year.

It will also be proposed that arrangements be made to divide the state into three districts for the purpose of rotating visits from the grand chancellor, the grand vice chancellor and the junior past grand chancellor. The scheme is intended to provide a visit from the grand chancellor to each of the 74 lodges in the state, once every three years.

Propositions looking to the immediate construction of a grand lodge building in Portland are to be considered, and it is probable that the slowly-growing fund now provided for that purpose will be supplemented by a bond issue to be placed among members of the fraternity. Subordinate lodges of Oregon now have $350,000 invested in buildings in this state.

Enrollment Is Big.

Reports from the grand chancellor will show that Oregon now has about 6400 Knights of Pythias in good standing, and that they have a record of expending $15,654.70 for charitable work during the past year. Were it possible to list all private donations made on account of the order, that sum would probably be doubled.

Among the delegates to the grand lodge are men who were present at its birth in Oregon, George W. Hochstedler and E. D. Curtis, having failed to miss a convention for 30 years. Supreme Representative L. M. Curl has been coming regularly for 17 years, L. R. Stinson and G. W. Maloney, 16 years; Judge William M. Cake, 17 years, and many others for from 10 to 15 years.

Ivanhoe Lodge No. 1, of Portland, the second largest subordinate lodge of Knights of Pythias in the United States, last night tendered a reception to the members of the grand lodge, fully 900 members of the order attending. Among the speakers were: Judge W. M. Cake, Judge Bradshaw, of The Dalles; Judge Robert Morrow, Gus C. Moser and Professor E. D. Curtis.

Noives to Cross Sands.

Tonight, the Dramatic Order Knight of Khorassan will initiate a class of 100 tyros, a true Arabic welcome being promised the novaites whose nerve fails them not. Cushions are being provided for 400 of the faithful who will have made their peace with the secretary. The journey with Mokanna is said to be over sands which scour and blister.

Hillsboro and Portland temples of the Pythian Sisters will tonight exemplify the degree work of that order at Foresters Hall.

During the year just closing, the Pythian Sisters have gathered in eight new chapters as against one subordinate lodge for the Knights. While the latter were instituting one at Point Adams, the women organized at Wallowa, Lebanon, Bandon, Myrtle Point, Klamath Falls, North Bend, Canyon City and Long Creek. There are 35 Pythian Sisters Temples in the state.

Supreme Representatives—W. L. Bradshaw (Term ending December 31, 1911), of The Dalles; L. M. Curl (Term ending December 31, 1913), of Albany.

Trustees—M. F. Davis (one year), George W. Jett (two years), Gus C. Moser (three years).

Grand Tribunal—Chief tribune, George E. Swafford, of Eugene; associate tribune, F. T. Wrightman, of Salem; associate tribune, J. H. Gwinn, of Pendleton.

The following is the official roster of Pythian Sisters' grand lodge: Past grand chief, Margaret Slocum of Union; grand chief, Inez R. Chase, of Coquille; grand senior, Mai Gevurtz, of Portland; grand junior, Elizabeth Stinson, of Salem; grand manager, Emma P. Anthony, of Baker City; grand M. of R. and C., Mary R. Hogue, of Klamath Falls; grand M. of F., Hannah Vincent, of St. Johns; grand protector, Nellie McGowan, of Medford; grand guard, Minnie M. McKinzie, of Milton; grand trustee, Sarah E. Hochstedler, of Portland; grand trustee, Mary J. Kelly, of Albany; grand trustee, Emma J. Snyder, of Aurora; supreme representative, Miriam B. Brooke, of Portland; supreme representative, Lilly B. Brock, of Hood River; supreme alternate, Eliza Imbrie, of Hillsboro; supreme alternate, Mildred L. Bright, of Wasco.

KLAMATH MEN WILL FIGHT

Pierce and Worden to Carry $23,000 Decision to High Courts.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 20.—(Special.)—J. G. Pierce and Major Charles E. Worden, of this city, against whom a judgment for $23,901.10 was rendered in the Federal Court in Portland recently in the case of Alfred Daniels, have announced that they intend to ask for a new trial and in case this is refused they will carry the case into the United States Federal Court.

This litigation has been pending for several years. It grew out of the sale of 18 certificates of purchase issued by the State Land Board for timber lands. The State Land Board selected certain timber land in Southern Oregon as indemnity due the state from the National Government, and as soon as the lists were filed with the General Land Office, sold them on the certificate of purchase plan. Later the Government caused the filing to be canceled. Prior to the cancelation Pierce and Worden had arranged a sale of a lot of these certificates to Daniels and had received the money for them. The court held that these certificates represented nothing of value and for this reason the judgment was rendered against the two Klamath Falls capitalists.

Mr. Pierce said today that the judgment and costs and accruing interests would amount to something like $33,000 and as he believes the decision to be unjust he intends to fight it to the highest courts of the land.

MAYOR WORKS ON PLAN

COMMITTEE TO SELL BRIDGE BONDS UNCOMPLETED.

Announcement Expected Today, However--Meeting to Oppose Railroad's Concessions to Be Held.

Mayor Simon, because of pressure of official duties yesterday, was unable to complete the personnel of the committee of business men which is to take charge of the sale of the Broadway bridge bonds. He is also working on a plan of action for this committee, and it is expected that today both the names of the members of the committee and the details of the plan will be made public.

Meanwhile on the East Side there is seemingly a difference of opinion arising in regard to the acceptance of the tenders made by the O. R. & N. Co. in response to the demands of the city for concessions as to the Broadway bridge. The request of the road for the vacation of certain East Side streets needed for the construction of the freight depot and terminal yards asked by the shippers apparently is bringing about a critical situation among the factions favoring and opposing the vacations for this freight depot.

A mass meeting is called for tonight in Carpenters' Hall, at Grand avenue and East Morrison street, the avowed purpose of which is to discourage, by resolutions, the members of the City Council from accepting the offer of the railroad which was recommended for acceptance by the street committee of the Council Friday. It is said to be the purpose of the meeting to oppose the vacation of any streets for the uses of the railroad.

Railroad Officials at Fossil.

FOSSIL, Or., June 20.—(Special.)—J. P. O'Brien and R. B. Miller, of the O. R. & N., reached here yesterday at noon after a hard trip from Condon over muddy roads. They left this morning in their own automobile for Klamath Falls by the way of the John Day Valley.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The low pressure area which has caused the stormy weather in this district is now central over Northern Utah and a high pressure area of decided character is moving north from the Northern California coast. Good rains fell during the last 24 hours in Western Oregon and in Western and Northern Washington, but none occurred in Southeastern Washington and Idaho. The temperature has fallen decidedly in the Great Salt Lake Basin and remained nearly stationary elsewhere.

The conditions are favorable for fair weather in this district Tuesday with rising temperature in Oregon and Washington.

FORECASTS.

Portland and vicinity—Tuesday, fair and warmer; northwest winds.

Oregon and Washington—Tuesday, fair and warmer; northwesterly winds.

Idaho—Tuesday, fair.

PRESIDENT, Main 212.
SECRETARY, Main 509.
HUMANE OFFICER, East 4779.

NEW TODAY.

The French ship "Buffon" is on her way to Portland with a cargo of triple-screened Anthracite hard coal for The Edlefsen Fuel Company, Inc., who have discontinued their office in the Chamber of Commerce, but arranged with Hartman & Thompson to accept payment of fuel bills. Their main office is located at the largest coal depot in Portland, on Railroad and Russell streets, Albina. At present they are engaged in putting in thousands of tons of excellent Rock Springs lump coal for the needs of their patrons on the West Side, Irvington and Piedmont. Customers on the Lower Peninsula will be served from St. Johns branch and those in Mount Tabor and Southeast Portland through a depot in that section. The company accepts orders for the delivery of coal of all kinds and for prompt delivery of hard wood and fir cordwood. References, any bank. Phones East 303 and C 2303.
