CHARGE AGAINST TEAMSTER DISMISSED

A last effort was made in Municipal Court yesterday by John Renfro to obtain the conviction of Ray Courtney, teamster, whom he charged with willfully injuring his son. Renfro was unloading a reel of wire from a wagon and had his team in the middle of the street with skids up to the side of the wagon.

HATCHET WIELDED ON MAN IN STREET

A hurry-up call yesterday morning at 7 o'clock took Sergeant Keimlein and Patrolman Rupert to the site of the murder of a man in the street. The man was identified as John Grendel, a laborer. Before the arrival of the officers Grendel had leaped upon another man with a hatchet and inflicted a severe cut on his head. He followed this blow with another even more vicious, but it glanced and hit the victim on the shoulder.

WIFE IS HUSBAND'S ACCUSER

A charge of immoral conduct was placed against Jack Robinson, an electrician, by his wife, Mrs. Robinson, who took the man into custody Tuesday. In Municipal Court yesterday his hearing was set for today. Opal Bach is accused with him. The charge is brought by Gusie H. Robinson, the wife. A former complaint was lodged against the pair by Mrs. Robinson and the woman was brought into court but Robinson was not apprehended. The woman was released with a warning and upon promise to keep out of Robinson's company in the future, but Mrs. Robinson says that the man has not been keeping his promise.

STREET PREPARED FOR PAVING

The Pacific Bridge Company, which secured the contract for paving, grading, putting in the sewers, gas and water mains on the boulevard between East Twenty-eighth and East Twenty-ninth streets, has a large force at work. Before the hard-pan pavement is laid, double street-car tracks will be installed from East Twenty-eighth street to a connection with the tracks on East Burnside street.

SWEEPSTAKES CONTEST

The sweepstake contest, under the auspices of the Rose City Park Improvement Club, will be judged July 16. This will be the second contest of the series starting this year by the league, the rose contest having closed June 4. The contest in sweepstakes will include two classes—best assorted fruit, peas and best single variety, and will be judged by a committee of prominent citizens outside of the district. The last contest for general civic improvement closed August 15.

RUNAWAY BOY PROMISES TO GO HOME

Earl McKnight, 14-year-old son of a Seattle policeman, was in Municipal Court yesterday, charged with running away from home. He was picked up by Detective Coleman and Snow, who know his father. They told the court that on two previous occasions the boy had run away and come to Portland and that each time his father had come after him. He was allowed to go upon promising to return to his home.

TANKLEY GETS OFF EASY

James M. Tankley, who was captured following a hard chase after rifling the room of Mrs. Anna Gillet Tuesday night, was allowed to plead guilty to vagrancy in Municipal Court yesterday, the charge of larceny from a dwelling being dismissed. He was sentenced to 90 days on the rockpile. A large bundle of lace curtains and woman's clothing, part of his loot, was introduced as evidence against him.

HUSBAND SENTENCED ON WIFE'S CHARGES

George McKnight was arrested on Morrison street Tuesday night by Patrolman Schaffer in the midst of a heated argument with his wife and was taken to the police station. The woman appeared against him yesterday morning and told the court that he had persistently beaten and killed her for a long time. He was sentenced to 15 days.

ASSAULT COSTS $30

John Johnson was fined $30 yesterday in Municipal Court for assaulting T. Yuasa, a Japanese. Yuasa said that he caught Johnson in the act of opening a bureau drawer in his lodging-house and that when he remonstrated Johnson struck him. The prisoner pleaded his intoxicated condition and was let off with a fine of $30.

ESPIONAGE CHARGE MADE

Alexander Maxwell, who was brought back from Eugene by Detective Craddock to answer to a statutory charge, was arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday and his preliminary hearing set for today. His bond was fixed at $3000.

PRINCIPALS GET LEAVE OF ABSENCE

J. W. MacCormac, principal of the Davis school, and C. L. Strong, principal of the Bellwood school, have both received one year's leave of absence from the Board of Education. Mr. MacCormac plans an educational tour in Europe and Canada. He will leave Quebec about August, spending the winter in London and Scotland. He will proceed to the Netherlands in the early spring and will then travel through the Continent. Of the changes made by the Board of Education, there are thus four of the six principals whose services have been dispensed with. When Mr. MacCormac and Mr. Strong return they will probably be assigned to other schools than those they have hitherto been affiliated with as principals.

CLUB BAKERY IN OPERATION

Hereafter when Commercial drivers eat toothsome pastries it will be with the assurance that there need be no fear of the proper material not being used in their concoction. The complete bakery recently installed in the basement of the building was placed in operation yesterday. An expert baker, who draws a high salary, was brought here from San Francisco to take charge of the new department. He gave the name Bernie Bergholz, which, while not exactly French, would indicate he knows something about the baking art. Bergholz also speaks excellent English, which is another disappointment, but if his first products may be taken as a criterion of his capabilities, he will make good in a hurry.

CONVICT GETS 30 DAYS

Jack O'Brien, a paroled convict from Walla Walla penitentiary, was sentenced in Municipal Court yesterday to serve 30 days for carrying concealed weapons. When arrested by Detective Coleman and Snow, he was carrying a gun. He was convicted two years ago in Washington for a hold-up and at that time showed fight when an attempt was made to arrest him, taking refuge in a house after a pistol battle. Driven from there he jumped through a window and broke both wrists. Inquiries will be made to learn if he is still wanted at Walla Walla.

NEW PASTOR ARRIVES

Rev. Robert McLean, Jr., has arrived from Albany, N. Y., and begun his work as pastor of the Anabel Presbyterian Church. The new pastor is a son of Rev. Robert McLean, Sr., present pastor of the Grants Pass Presbyterian Church and former pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of Portland. He graduated from the Albany, N. Y., Theological Seminary June 1. The call from Anabel church was voted Rev. McLean several months ago. He has been in the pulpit last summer acceptable to the membership. He will be installed in a few weeks.

TRACKS TO BE TORN UP

Among the changes in tracks that will be made by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company in altering the course of the North Portland cars will be the complete tearing up of the tracks on Nineteenth street, north of Thurman, to Sherlock avenue, and along Sherlock avenue. Tracks will be laid on Twenty-first street, from Thurman to Sherlock, and on Thurman, west from Nineteenth to Twenty-first. By this means the run along Sherlock avenue, with the danger to the street cars, will be avoided.

HORSE CRUELLY BEATEN

Dripping blood from nearly a hundred cuts on his sides, a decrepit horse, the property of Reuben Wiseman, was taken to the police station yesterday and a charge of cruelty to animals placed against the owner. Sergeant Riley and Detective Tichenor testified they had never seen a horse bearing the marks of such cruel treatment. The animal was blind. Judge Bennett expressed regret that he could not inflict the same punishment upon the man that had been given the horse. Wiseman was fined $20.

Miss Marie E. Hembree, secretary of the Epworth League, will address the meeting. The organizations are expected to form in bodies and march to the tabernacle with their banners. There are about 3000 in these societies, but there is ample room in the tabernacle for the entire membership.

Concrete piers for the East Twelfth-street bridge across Sullivan's Gulch are being completed, preparatory for the steel structure. A force of men is at work on the north side of the gulch putting in the remainder of the piers. The wooden sections of the bridge have been pulled down. LODGES IN DISPUTE

Some Workmen Oppose Session of Grand Lodge 1910.

OFFICERS WOULD ADVANCE

Those Who Urge Omission of Meeting Believe Money Could Be Put to Better Advantage—Portland Lodges to Meet.

Controversy over the proposed plan of doing away with the regular biennial session for this year of the grand lodge for Oregon of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, threatens to become serious, unless a settlement can be had at a meeting of all the Portland lodges, to be held Friday night at the rooms of Portland Lodge No. 2.

Officers of the grand lodge have opposed holding the session this year chiefly because a special session was held last November, and they think that another at this time is useless. They argue that the $2000 necessary to pay the cost of the session should be used in field work, with the prospect of much better returns.

Some of those who have become leaders of the factions favoring a session of the grand lodge are accusing the present officers of avoiding a meeting that they might continue in office two more years. When asked yesterday for a statement concerning this accusation, Philip Gevurtz, grand master workman for Oregon, said that if no session were held it was the intention of all the officers of the grand lodge to resign this summer. Mr. Gevurtz acknowledged, however, that in that case, all the officers, with the exception of himself, would be appointed immediately to the position next higher to the ones from which they would resign. Thus Mr. Gevurtz, as grand master workman, would be the only person who would not benefit in an official way by the postponement of the session.

"There are many good arguments for and against the holding of the session this summer," said Mr. Gevurtz yesterday, "and I am perfectly willing to abide by the decision of the meeting to be held Friday night.

"The out-of-town lodges have voted in favor of postponing the meeting, but the lodges in Portland are about equally divided on the question. I do not think, however, that there will be any difficulty in coming to a settlement."

At the special meeting of the grand lodge last November, the state lodges withdrew from their affiliation with the supreme lodge of the country. Thus there is no higher authority to which to refer the present dispute than the various lodges of the state. Officers of the state organization say that a grand lodge meeting must be held every two years.

ROMANCE IS RECALLED

PIONEER COUPLE PLAYMATES ON LONG RIDE ACROSS PLAINS.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hembree's Childhood Friendship Ripened Into Love in New Country.

Among the romances of early days in Oregon that were brought to light at the pioneers' annual reunion yesterday, when those present exchanged stories of their lives, was that of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hembree, who, accompanied by their parents, were with the first train of immigrants that broke roads west of Port Hall in 1843.

Mrs. Hembree told in detail how she and her husband, at the ages of 8 and 14, respectively, were playmates, crossed the plains together, and suffered hardships together, little thinking that at some future time they would be man and wife.

When they arrived here they separated, Mrs. Hembree's parents locating two miles west of Forest Grove, while Mr. Hembree, with his parents, settled in Yamhill County, near McMinnville, but mutual regard brought them together again, and they were married in the early '60s.

Although many years have passed, Mrs. Hembree has a vivid recollection of the trip across the plains and told
