ON COUNTY BENCH

John C. Shillock and Judge Frank S. Bennett Will Let Assembly Govern.

BOURNE'S MAN IS ALOOF

Judge Cleeton, Whose Term Ends, to Count on Direct Primary Alone. Shillock Deceived by Benson, Friends Declare.

There are three avowed candidates for the Republican nomination for County Judge in the approaching Fall election. Two of these will seek the assembly nomination, which is to be held under authority of the County Central Committee July 16, while the third, County Judge Cleation who will seek reselection. Judge Cleeton, who will seek re-election, it is understood, will go before the direct Judge Cleeton's failure to go before the assembly, it is said, results from his close association with United States Senator Bourne, chief opponent of this fea-ture of the Oregon Republican organiza-tion. He was proposed by Senator Bourne as the successor to W. C. Bristol as United States District Attorney.

United States District Attorney.

John C. Shillock, a well-known Portland lawyer, and Frank S. Bennett, Municipal Judge, will be opposed, it is understood, for the assembly nomination. Judge Bennett's friends have been pressing him to run for several weeks, it is said, and he finally has concented. He will make the race on his record as Municipal Judge and as a member of the City Council. His term as Municipal Judge does not expire until next Spring and in the event that the assembly nomination is not given him he will not have been to any expense and will still retain his present berth and remain a political factor. Mr. Shillock was an aspirant for the appointment of County Judge at the time Judge Cleeton was appointed. In fact, there is said to be much inside history connected with the controversy over the appointment that would make interesting reading provided he would talk. Governor Benson is said by Shillock's friends to have promised him the appointment and at the time news was given out of the appointment of Claster Shillock was and at the time news was given out of the appointment of Cleeton Shillock was waiting, it is said, for his commission. Mr. Shillock last night admitted that he would be a candidate before the as-sembly. "The Republican organization has decided to hold this assembly and halve. Republican I am Balvally for being a Republican I am naturally for what the authorized and duly-elected representatives of that party decide on as the best policy," he said. "I shall go before the assembly and if I am not recommended to the voters as a man appable of conducting the affairs of the of County Judge I shall retire in Legislative Race. Oliver M. Hickey, a Portland attorney, is the first to file his petition to be placed on the direct primary ballot as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative in the Legislature from Multnomah County. His petition was filed yesterday. Hickey announced his belief in the efficacy of the proposed assembly in conserving the best interests of the Republican country and said he would be delicated. party and said he would be delighted to have the assembly recommend him as one of the 12 Representatives from Grammar School Classes Show Big Gain in Numbers.

TEACHERS' WORK FINISHED

Abandonment of Practice of Awarding Diplomas Has Not Lessened Desire of Children to Complete Eighth-Grade Work.

Abandonment of the practice of giving grammar school graduates diplomas has not lessened the desire of children to finish the common school studies, as is ent Frank Rigler yesterday. In all 768 pupils received promotion certificates to the high school, 118 more than finished the grammar grades last year. Because of the big increase, indicating a growing desire among children to gain an education, it is expected the high schools will open this Fall with a larger attendance than in any previous year. The filing of the lists of grammar graduates was the last detail required of the teachers, active duties ending with the closing session Tuesday afternoon.

The list of grammar graduates follow:

Pleasant Home Wins 4-to-1 Game.

mont Stars Sunday in one of the neat-est, fastest and best played games of baseball seen at that place this sea-son. The final score was 4 to 1, and both teams put up a glit-edged article of ball. Akin, pitching for Pleasant Home, fanned 14 of the visiting bats-men, and otherwise distinguished himmen, and otherwise distinguished him-self by playing a fine fleiding game. Akin had the Piedmont team shut out up to the ninth inning, when an error permitted the only score he allowed. Pleasant Home made seven hits off Brown, the Piedmont pitcher, who pitched a nice game, while Akin, for Pleasant Home, allowed but four hits.

Cool Weather Boon to Grain. DAYTON, Wash., June 22.—(Special.)— Cool weather, following the rains of last week, is proving a boon to crops in Southeastern Washington. Farmers say that, with a continuation of present weather, the grain crop will be above the average. Wheat is heading and the heads are filling nicely. The straw will be short this year, but this is a conventence in harvesting and will cause no loss.
