F. E. YOAKUM, M. D., founder of the Piega Homes of California, will be in Portland from Sunday, June 26, at 2 o'clock, to June 30, and will hold meet-ings at the Christian Alliance Tabernacle, corner Ninth and East Clay streets, each afternoon and evening, except evening June 30 meeting will be held at the Cen-tenary Church, corner Ninth and East Pine streets, Dr. Yoakum's visit is in the interest of suffering humanity. Some years ago he met with an injury in a runaway accident in which one of his lungs was severely injured, and, after consulting numerous doctors without re-lief, he was divinely healed. In grati-tude for his recovery the doctor made a vow to devote his life to divine healing. The thousands who have been healed under his ministry, as well as those who orner Ninth and East Clay streets, eac under his ministry, as well as those who have been rescued by the Pisga move-ment, testify to the wonderful work that Dr. Yoakum has been instrumental in doing. No charges. The public is cor-dially invited to attend these meetings.*

CONVICT RESISTS REARREST Grand Jury Law Retroactive, Is

Frank Wayne's Contention.

An effort to quash the information charging Frank Wayne in the Circuit Court with having participated in the robbery of a Gresham bank in January, 1907, is being made by his attorney, John F. Logan, who has filed a demurrer. An effort was made to take the ques-tion up before Presiding Judge Morrow yesterday morning, but the court con-tinued the hearing until 2 o'clock this afternoon. It is the contention of At-torney Logan that as the information was drawn by the District Attorney and torney Logan that as the information was drawn by the District Attorney, and a statute passed by the last Oregon Leg-islature re-established the grand jury system, the information is invalid. It was
