

U'REN FALSIFYING SENTIMENT CHARGED Oregon City Man Misrepresenting Sentiment, Says J. H. Gibson.

POSES AS PEOPLE'S FRIEND Member of Clackamas County Central Committee Declares Assembly Plan Meets With Favor of Majority of Voters.

That W. S. U'Ren is misrepresenting the sentiment of the Republicans of Clackamas County concerning the assembly is the direct charge made by J. H. Gibson, of Oregon City, while in Portland yesterday.

Mr. Gibson is a member of the county central committee of Clackamas and was in attendance at the meeting of that organization held in the County Courthouse on Saturday last.

Mr. U'Ren is posing as the great friend of the people, and the father of the direct primary law, said Mr. Gibson. "U'Ren wants the people to rule, and seems to feel that they will not be allowed to do so should the Republicans of this state and the county, where both reside, be elected."

Mr. U'Ren tried to attend the recent meeting of the county central committee of Clackamas on a proxy, as did his law partner, Chris Schmitt.

Mr. U'Ren tried to force his way into the committee's deliberations, and asserted that the meeting was not legally called.

Johnson had been a frequenter of his place for about a month, he says. The letter says that the Kersh woman met Johnson at the Vincent Hotel, where she was employed. He was deaf and she was of assistance to him and gained a great influence over him.

Right away will be given the case of Webb and the Kersh woman before the grand jury, which assembles today. A sheet of subpoenas was issued yesterday for the various persons who have knowledge of the case, to appear tomorrow afternoon.

It is now believed that the wounds which caused Johnson's death were inflicted by a doorknob which was discovered by Deputy Coroner Frank Dane, hidden in a bureau drawer in the room where the act was committed.

Other witnesses said the lad is truthful, although he apparently told a straightforward story upon the witness-stand Wednesday afternoon.

No Prettier Home Scene Than the Above Can Be Imagined—It Exemplifies

Laurelhurst

The Addition with Character

Portland's Most Beautiful Residence Park

The word "Restricted" is a much abused word as used in reference to a residence section. Small tracts may be restricted, but they are of such small area that a walk of a few minutes puts one out of that restricted district and into homes which are not in a restricted neighborhood.

This is one of the features of Laurelhurst. It is one mile long and three-quarters of a mile wide and all restricted. Residents of Laurelhurst are almost in a community by themselves, in the sense that Laurelhurst is so large that one can start his automobile early in the evening and ride for 26 miles on Laurelhurst asphalt streets alone.

SELLWOOD BACKS ASSEMBLY Republican Club First in Field With Strong Indorsement.

The Sellwood Republican Club, a stalwart organization, is the first club in this county in the field with a strong indorsement of the assembly plan and representative method.

James F. Kerchem spoke at length on the assembly for suggesting candidates for the consideration of the voters at the primaries. He said that the people should be informed that the assembly is not a framed-up convention to nominate candidates, but to suggest candidates that would be acceptable in point of ability and honesty.

"The Sellwood Republican Club," said Mr. Kerchem, "has always stood squarely for Republican principles and has led the way in the past. What we do here tonight will have its weight in other places. It will be the first club in the state to take definite action on the assembly plan. I think that the very best men in the party should go as delegates to the assembly and that they should go absolutely without instructions, but permitted to suggest candidates. The people are watching this assembly movement and we can show the people that we stand for a purely representative form of government by sending out delegates with freedom of choice."

E. A. Austin, Peter Hume and William LaForce spoke along the same lines. It was decided to hold a general meeting in Strahlman's hall Saturday night, July 9, to name 19 delegates to the county assembly, which meets July 19. John Goldman, William LaForce and E. L. Mills were appointed to make arrangements for this meeting. A band will be engaged and several short addresses will be made after the delegates have been elected.

After July 26 the club will meet twice a month. It is understood that the club will indorse William H. Moorhouse for Councilman from the Seventh Ward, and Peter Hume as a candidate for the Legislature. Under the new apportionment of precincts the Seventh Ward will have 29 polling-places, and including the Mount Scott district will come close to being the largest ward in the city.

FINAL SOCIAL SWIM HELD

MULTNOMAH MEN AND WOMEN DISPORT IN WATER.

Diving and Other Aquatic Stunts of Women Exceeds in Some Respects Those of Men Swimmers.

Bigger, better and more successful than ever before was the fourth social swim for the women and men members of the Multnomah Club, which was held last night in the club tank and enjoyed by over 60 swimmers. These swimmers which were created by swimming committee, of which Frank E. Watkins is chairman, have proved one of the features of the club and in another season the swimming accommodations will have to be enlarged to take care of the enthusiastic aquatic lovers of whom the club boasts many.

Led by Arthur Cavill the famous Australian swimming instructor of the local institution, the women started the evening's fun by fancy diving and swimming, after which several and daring stunts were introduced. In nerve and grittiness in diving the women excelled the men, while a number of the fair sex held up their end of the swimming line with the opposite sex.
