RIVER PIRATE GUILTY

"PAL'S" TESTIMONY CONVICTS FERRAN OF THEFTS.

Jury Recommends Prisoner to Leniency of Court—Looting of Launch Was Crime.

George Ferran, one of the river pirates who with George Burke was accused of numerous thefts along the Willametta River, was convicted at 6:30 o'clock last night of having stolen a revolver, gun, belt, holster, ammunition, pair of boots and three brass launch lanterns from the boat house of W. E. Roberts. The jury retired at 5 o'clock and was out one and one-half hours. Ferran was recommended to the leniency of the court. Judge Cleland, in whose department of the Circuit Court the case was years and six months, was brought back to Portland and testified yesterday against his "pal." He declared Ferran took the articles, while Ferran, on the witness stand in his own behalf in the afternoon, insisted Burke stole them. The houseboat was near Linnton. Roberts, Constable Wagner and J. F. McCullough were the chief witnesses for the state. Wagner told how the thieves were captured. After locating them, Wagner sent a farmer to tell them he had a sick horse that had fallen and that he wanted them to help get it up. They fell into the trap and were pounced upon by the Constable and his deputies. Burke reached for a revolver when ordered to throw up his hands, but a few shots fired in the air induced him to submit to arrest. Ferran started to run toward their boat, in which was a small arsenal, but McCullough, who helped in the arrest, headed him off. The two were brought to Portland and placed in jail. Burke was tried on a charge of stealing motors and relays from the O. R. & N. Co., his conviction and sentence resulting. The boat house charge against him was dismissed yesterday morning as

DALLESS PLANS FOR FOURTH

Judge Webster, of Portland, to Deliver Orator at Celebration.

THE DALLESS, Or., June 24.—(Special.) Judge Lionel R. Webster, of Portland, will deliver the Fourth of July oration at The Dalles. Tracy Griffin, a high school graduate of 1910, will read the Declaration of Independence. The committee having the celebration in charge are leaving nothing undone to entertain the expected crowds. Attractive prizes are offered in the horse races and for the best decorated automobile in the parade. Two league ball games will be played between the two teams winning most games during the season. Excursions will be run from Hood River and Dufur, tried, will pass sentence at 9:30 A. M. Tuesday. Burke, who was convicted recently and sentenced to the penitentiary for five it was necessary to dismiss it before he could testify for the state.
