This is "Boys Week" in Portland. To-This is "Boys Week" in Portland. To-day starts a carnival of fun by the youngsters of Portland in an effort to raise a fund which wil act as a nucleus for the building of a boy's club in Port-land. The voting contest for boy Mayor closes this morning at 10:30 o'clock and this evening the boy Mayor will be in-augurated, following a banquet at the Portland Hotel and a concert by the hand of the Columbia Park Boys' Club of San Francisco.

The programme for the week includes a number of feature parades through the streets, athletic games and entertain-ments in the afternoons and on Thursday evening at the Multnomah Field and vaudeville entertainments by the Colum-bia Park Club boys at the Portland Theater on Tuesday and Wednesday eve-nings.

Boys From South Arrive.

The boys from San Francisco reached Portland yesterday a 7:30 A. M., after two weeks of hard traveling at which a show was given almost every day in some of the small towns in Northern California or Southern Oregon. As soon as the train had come to a standstill in the terminal yards they scattered all over the city and spent the entire morning "seeing the sights." Shortly after noon D. E. Keasey and Will A. Knight took the boys in launches to Mr. Keasey's large house-boat at Riverdale and here the boys simply revelled in fun. The boys from San Francisco reached

Ben Katz, the Boy Mayor of San Francisco, was one of the youngsters in the party. Ben lost his hat, collar and bathing suit in the Willamette River, but failed to lose his smile despite his hard luck.

"Do we have fun out of this?" said "Mayor" Katz, replying to a question to that effect. "Well, I should say we do. Of course, it is a little hard work to give a show every night, but we grown-up actors would get tired of it, but you see we are hove and we are but you see we are boys and we are giving the shows for the ffun of it.

"We have been together a long time and know each other so well that we understand one another. You might think we would have fights with each other. Well, we do. But not many. I don't think you could find many crowds of boys who would live together as we do who get along as well as we do. These trine mean a great as we do. These trips mean a great deal to us. No matter how many trips we have taken we always want to be chosen for the next trip. For that reason we are always trying to keep from breaking the rules and not b kept from the trips that are coming up. Our rules are not hard."

Major in Love With Labors. Major Sidney S. Peixotto, the head of the Columbia Park Boys' Club, is heartily in love with his work. For 15 years he has been engaged in the work of training the boys in the south of Market street district in San Fran-

"What I have been aiming at is to develop the all-around boy," said Mr. Peixotto. "We teach our boys music, athletics, manual training, scholarship, stc., but we do not try to make a musician, an athlete or a scholar. What we want is a boy who has learned self-control, learned the various things we are teaching him fort the good of his body and mind and has developed in every way. I believe that every boy has the gift of music in him and we aim to develop this as it should be. "Our trips has been of great value in giving the boys a wide experience and in teaching them self-control. They are together all the time, but it is surprising how little trouble they have. athletics, manual training, scholarship prising how little trouble they have. Our boys are taken from the poorer class of boys in what is the working man's district in San Francisco.

This Is Second "Boys' Week."

This is the second 'boys' week' that has been held in the country. We held a similar event in San Francisco this Spring with great success and I know that the results have been decidedly advantageous to the children of San Francisco.

"A number of the country towns in California have organized clubs for boys as the results of our trip. In Roseburg, Or., where we stopped for a day, the City Council has taken up the question of seeing what can be done there toward organizing a club for the boys. I sinterely trust that Portland will follow in the footsteps of San Francisco and that our trip may be of some help in getting such a good work started."

At the Y. M. C. A. last night Mr. Peixotto gave an iflustrated lecture. With 200 lantern sildes he showed how the work is carried on in the Columbia Park Boys, Club. Mr. Peixotto told of the results attained in making good citizens results attained in making good citizens of the boys.

Printing Firms Organize.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 26 .- (Special.)-SEATTLE. Wash., June 25.—(Special.)— Printers of Seattle have organized a campaign intended to keep all printing at home. The Allied Printing Trades Council and the employing printers have made elaborate preparations to win over merchants and business men who have beep in the habit of sending their work East. They show that there is invested in the printing industry of Seattle upwards of $1,500,000; that it employs more than 1500 wage earners and pays out wards of $1,000,000; that It employs more than $100,000 a month in the clerical and mechanical departments. The argument is made that if the work were done at home the number of employes would be increased and the enlarged payrolls would immediately benefit Sestile's business houses . SAN FRANCISCO BOY VISITORS SPEND DAY IN RECREATION ON THE RIVER.

Voting for boy mayor of Portland will come to a close this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Who will be the successful candidate is a question in which every boy in Portland is interested. Sam Weinstein, the newsboy candidate, holds the lead, which he yesterday increased by 611 votes, giving him a total of 19,219, while "Bud" Kribs, his closest competitor, has 15,528 votes. The fact that yesterday was Sunday was responsible for a light vote. The various voting booths were closed and the candidates were busily at work collecting material for the finish. The total vote cast yesterday was less than 1160.

It is expected that, 50,000 votes will be cast before the polis close this morning. All the voting booths will be open and hourly bulletins will be given out at first as to the standing of the candidates. As the finish approaches the cessful candidate is a question in which didates. As the finish approaches the time between bulletins will be shortened and the various booths will report to headquarters every few minutes so that the candidates can see just how they stand. D. E. Keasey, chairman of the committee in charge of the voting con-test and the boys' carnival, said yes-terday he expected the total vote to run close to 100,000.

Colton Decreases Gap.

There were no changes in the positions of the candidates yesterday, although some of the leaders were brought closer together. George Colton, for whom 201 votes were east, gained a stronger hold on fifth place, and he has been showing such a steady vote throughout that it is believed that today he may come near the top. All those now holding leading positions have reported considerable reserve strength, and even those who have been following the contest closely from the start are unable to say who will be the six boys to secure the positions of Mayor and Councilmen.

Mayor and Councilmen.

The position of boy Mayor will continue a week, though the carnival comes to an end, on Thursday. The boy Mayor and his Council will have an automobile all week. They will take an automobile parks and playgrounds and, while abstaining from the politics indulged in by the "grown-ups," will take an active interest in the administration of civic affairs governing children and will hold fairs governing children and will hold daily meetings with the regular city officials, in which their ideas and observations will be given and in which they will make suggestions for the betterment of the youth of Portland.

This was done in San Francisco, when the boy Mayor and his Council held full sway for a week. There the boys visited parks and playgrounds and made sugges-tions that swimming tanks be installed. that cinder running tracks be placed in the city parks for the boys and that a certain portion of every park be set aside for the children.

Suggestions Carried Out.

These suggestions were made to the Council and park commission, and as a result $24,000 has been appropriated to carry them out. It was an experiment in San Francisco but proved to be a wise one, and the boys were warmly praised for their wisdom.

The vote last night in the race for boy Mayor stood as follows: boy Mayor stood as follows:

Lawyer Out for Congress Before Direct Primary.

SILETZ VETO LAST STRAW

Oregon Resources for Oregon People to Be Platform-Land Grants Needed for Settlement, and Not for Reserves.

A. W. Lafferty, a Portland lawyer, whose activities in connection with the claims of the Siletz Indian Reservation settlers have attracted considerable atsettlers have attracted considerable at ention, yesterday announced his can tention, yesterday announced his candidacy for Congress. Beaten in the Courts, he went to Washington and secured the passage of a bill authorizing the issuance of patents to the Siletz settlers. This bill was vetoed by the President, which action, he said, is largely responsible for his announce-

Lafferty will be opposed to Representative Ellis, who seeks re-election, and George S. Shepherd, of Portland, for the Republican nomination in the direct primary September 24. Representative Ellis, who lives at Pendleton, is now serving his fifth term in Congress, having been elected first in 1892, serving three terms successively. He was superseded in 1898 by M. A. Moody, of The Dalles, who was defeated in 1904 by N. J. Williamson. Mr. Ellis was returned to Congress in 1906 and again in 1998.

Three generations were represented at the gathering of the clan, which was an informal affair, being merely a huge family reunion. The clan is composed of descendants of the Roelofson sisters, who were Mrs. Martha Caffee, Mrs. Superior September 24. Representative Ellis, who lives at Pendleton, is now serving his fifth term in Congress, having been elected first in 1892, serving three terms successively. He was superseded in 1898 by M. A. Moody, of Esther Johnson.

All these were descendants of Lawrence and Mary Roelofson. Mrs. Caffee was a pioneer of 1832; Mrs. Johnson came Veto Determines Him.

"I had about decided not to run for Congress this year," said Mr. Lafferty yesterday, "but, with the new evidence of a lack of consideration at Washington for the rights of Oregon people, as evidenced by the vetoing of the Siletz bill by the President last night, on recomendation of the Interior Department, I have resolved to enter the race. Oregon has had the worst of it for years, and the time has come to put a stop to it. The Interior Department certainly abrogated to itself supreme wisdom when it determined to ask the President to veto the Siletz measure. After hearing the case upon its merits the House committee on public lands consisting of 19 members, unanimously reported that the bill was just and that if ought to pass, and that report was made in the face of an adverse recommendation to the committee by the Secretary of the Interior. The Senate committee also heard the case upon its merits and reported unanimously in favor the passage of the bill.

"I am in favor of Oregon resources for Oregon people, and that will be my platform. If elected I believe that I can get a law upon the statute books that will return to Oregon the $5,560,000 due this state for irrigation work. We have produced that much for the Federal treasury from the sale of our lands, in excess of the pittance of $2,500,000 we have received in return.

Idahe Shows Contrast.

"Contrast this with Idaho, which state has produced $2,440,009 to the reclamation fund and has got back $6,000,000; Montana has yielded $4,260,000 and has received $4,750,000; Colorado has yielded $4,100,000 and has received $4,300,000; Wyoming has yielded $2,700,000 and has received $4,500,000; Wyoming has yielded $2,700,000 and has received $4,500,000; Washington has yielded $4,910,000 and has received $4,400,000; Nevada has yielded less than half a million and has received $4,100,000. While Oregon has received $4,100,000. While Oregon has contributed nearly double the amount of the next best state named, and 15 times the amount of the lowest state on the list, we have received only about half as much for irrigation work as the other states.

"Oregon is also being held back and ranged for Entertainment by Portland Lodge Members.

Three weeks from today Portland will be hostess to delegations accredited to the National Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. E. H. Deery, chairman of the arrangements committee, announces that everything is ready for their advent.

"Oregon is also being held back and choked by forest reserves and land grants. More than one-third of the state is locked up in non-taxable Government reserves. Yet the bureaucrats at Washington are demanding more. They would gladly reduce this state to a partial Federal dependency if they could, and divert the magnificent destinies of Portland, as marked out for her by the wealth and beauty of her natural surroundings, to a mere head-quarters for Federal office-holders. quarters for Federal office-holders.

Lands Should Be Settled.

"The present Administration is making a grandstand play toward breaking up the 2,060,000-acre Southern Pacific land grant, by seeking in the Federal court a judgment of forfeiture so that those lands may also go into the forest reserves. I filed the first suits to enforce the terms of these grants, and

ROELOFSON CLAN GATHERS

More Than Hundred Attend Reunion of Pioneer Descendants.

More than 100 people attended the third annual meeting of the Roelofson Clan yesterday in the Alisky building. An appetizing banquet was served, after which the election of officers took place, followed by a short musical programme. All of the old officers were re-elected, as follows: President, J. L. Johnson; vice-presidents, Mrs. A. S. Duniway and Mrs. Elmer N. Hall; secretary, Miss Nina B. Johnson.

The Dalles, who was defeated in 1904 by N. J. Williamson. Mr. Eills was returned to Congress in 1906 and again in 1908.

Some weeks ago reports were current that Mr. Lafferty intended entering the race for Congress. At that time he was in Washington urging the passage of his Siletz bill. When he returned, however, he announced he would not be a candidate, as it seemed that the Siletz bill would become a law.

The Change of Life is the most criti cal period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.
