Hunt and Garrett battled along evenly for the entire nine innings, allowing little hope of run-making until the tenth. Then Casey laid down a bunt which would have made an easy out had Thomas not been too anxious and tried to field it when it was Hunt's ball. The clash kept it out of reach of anybody, and Casey was credited with a hit.

McCredie Changes Batteries.

McCredie Changes Batteries.

McCredie was afraid of the game in the last of the tenth, after Shinn had singled, and replaced his battery, using Gregg and Fisher in place of Garrett and Murray. Van Buren went out on an infield grounder and Perry knocked a hot liner to Hetling which would have been good for a run if the third sacker had not been playing just right.

Martinke's triple in the ninth threatened to break up the game, but two were already gone and Hunt fanned Hetling. In the last of the ninth, Sacramento made it look dangerous when Briggs got on through Olson's error and Boardman was hit by a pitched ball. Grounders by Heister and Darringer to the infield cut off the men on bases.

Young Frank Tallaheo Strikes Ont 19 Men, Allowing No Hit.

That Portland has a baseball prodigy in the pitching line was revealed yester-day afternoon when Frank Tallaheo, twirling for the Calef Brothers' team, formerly of the Columbia Hardware League, in a game against the Oawego team shut out the latter aggregation, al-lowing them polither a bit program. lowing them neither a hit nor a run and striking out 19 of their men. The score was 27 to 0.

was 27 to 0.

Tallaheo is an 18-year-old lad and has had no professional coaching.

His work yesterday stamps him as another baseball phenomenon. Tallaheo is large for his age and has a free and easy delivery and a good assortment of curves.

Calef Brothers hammered three Os-wego pitchers all over the lot. Gillespie was the star hitter of the day, getting two home runs and a three-bagger. Keys and Baird also hit hard. The Calef team will play the Crystal Lake Park team on the latter's ground next Sunday.

Sellwood Club Loses Fast Game by Lone Run.

PITCHERS' BATTLE SEEN

To Errors Were Due Runs Though Pinch Hitting Materially Aids

Class Ball Played.

In one of the neatest and best-played games in the history of the Tri-City League, the Dillworth Derbies defeated the Sellwood club yesterday by the score ing, as well as interesting to the big crowd.

Both teams scored in the first inning, and both runs were due to errors. Mc-Hale, the first man up for Sellwood, fanned, but Bauer dropped the ball and the runner landed safely on first before the catcher could retrieve his error.

A single to right by McKinley sent Mc-Hale to third, and when Keys let Van Hoomisen's throw, to catch the runner, get through him, McHale toted home the Sellwood ione tally, for, after that inning, Townsend had the opposing batsmen "on his hip."

his hip."

In the Derbies' half of the initial inning. Robinson was safe when D. Craig muffed Scott's toss of the batsman's easy grounder. Robinson stole second while Keys was being retired, and when "Rusty" Hargreaves slammed a single to left, "The Rabbitt" scooted home because McHale's throw carried wide of the mark. Until the Derbies scored the winning ace in the fifth inning, both teams settled to real baseball, and the last run, being carned, made the balance of the game look like high-class ball.

The deciding tally was annexed by earned, made the balance of the game look like high-class ball.

The deciding tally was annexed by Dillworth in the fifth canto. "Rabbitt" Robinson opened with a clean hit to left field. Keys dumped a neat sacrifice and sent the runner along to the midstation, from whence he advanced himself by stealing third. Hargreaves again proved the pinch-hitter by clouting safely to left and Robinson walked leisurely home with the run which decided the game.

In the ninth iming, the Sellwood bunch, after McHale had opened by fanning out, started a rally. McKinley was safe on an error by Irwin, and Locke singled to right, the ball being booted by Van Hoomisen, which permitted McKinley to reach third and Locke second with only one out. J. Craig popped a fly to Robinson, and Woods ended the game by hitting to McConnell and was tossed out at first. Yesterday's game marks the last appearance of the Tri-City Leaguers at the Vaughn-street lot for four weeks, as McCredie's Beavers are home Tuesday and will occupy the grounds during that period. and will occupy the grounds during that period.
