Utah Posses Unable to Locate Desperadoes Who Get About $1000.

HORSE AIDS TRIO'S ESCAPE

With Darling, Equal to Any Robbery Ever Pulled Off by Jesse James Crowd in Early Days, Is Har- riman Line Incident.

OGDEN, June 27.—The three desperadoes who held up and robbed the Oregon Short Line passenger train within the city limits of Ogden this morning are still at large, with posses headed by Sheriff of three counties and the detectives of the Harriman lines following what is believed to be their trail.

All the information that the officers possess at present is that the robbers are headed toward Nevada, along the line of the Southern Pacific, west of Ogden. All roads, trails and the railroad tracks are guarded by members of the posses.

Railroad telegraphers at the stations along the line of the Oregon Short Line Railroad have been instructed to keep a close watch for the robbers and advise division officials at this point if they are seen.

Express Company Loses $500.

The officials of the American Express Company announced today that the robbers secured less than $500. The express officials are of the opinion that the robbers had intended to hold up the first section, which carried many valuable packages.

The robbers drove to the scene of the hold-up in a rubber-tired vehicle, with which they made their escape to the west. A farmer in a field near Slaterville, 15 miles west of Ogden, saw the three men driving furiously toward the depot of the Southern Pacific Company across Great Salt Lake at 4 o'clock this morning. The officers are following this clue at present.

The hold-up men stopped the train by the use of railroad torpedoes on the track.

Head Brake Man Struck on Head.

When the engineer brought the train to a stop the head brakeman went forward to ascertain the cause of the delay, and was struck over the head with a revolver by one of the robbers. He was then taken to the point of a gun to the express car and compelled to call to the messenger to open the door. As soon as the door was opened one of the robbers crawled in and commanded the messenger to open the safe. After rifling the safe the robbers turned their attention to the coaches. As they started for the coaches, Rear Brake Man N. B. Franklin was met as he was on his way forward. The hold-up men commanded him to halt, but he continued, and two shots were fired at him.

With a daring equal to any robbery ever pulled off by the famous Jesse James gang, the train robbers went through each coach with a deliberation and calmness he jumped and they were not novices at the game.

Brakeman's Ruse Works.

After one of the men had struck Brake Man Franklin to the ground, he rolled into a ditch, where he feigned unconsciousness. After seeing that he was not watched he jumped out of the train three blocks to the home of Deputy Sheriff John Hutchens, whom he contacted and informed of the robbery. The deputy hurried to the scene, arriving there just as the train was pulling out for the north.

Conductor E. L. Williams was one of the first to leave the train. He was covered by one of the robbers and ordered back into the coach. While one of the desperadoes stood guard over engineer Kirkwood, the others went through the coaches, rousing the passengers from their slumber and relieving them of their valuables. The day coach, sleeper and two chair cars were entered by the robbers with drawn revolvers and the conductor was ordered to hand over his valuables. One woman, Mrs. J. H. Ball, was relieved of a pair of diamond earrings, which were ruthlessly torn from her ears by the robbers.

Although there were nearly 100 passengers from the train, every one of whom lost something, the conductor estimated the total losses at less than $500.

Train Released at 2 A. M.

At 2 A. M. the robbers released the train which proceeded on its way. A special train, carrying a posse in charge of Joseph Jones, chief of the Short Line detectives, reached the scene of the robbery early this morning and the officers have been in the field all forenoon rounding up suspicious characters.

In his report of the hold-up, Conductor E. L. Williams says that the three robbers wore masks. Two of them weighed about 150 pounds each and the third one was heavier. They wore black slouch hats with greasy bands.

TWO KILLED IN RACE RIOT

Farmer's Death Starts Trouble and Negro Dies by Bullet.

JACKSON, Miss., June 27.—Meager details have been received here today of a race riot near Harrisville, Simpson County, on Sunday. Several hundred white men here, now searching for fugitive negroes. One white man, Luther Buckley, and a negro have been killed.

The trouble started when two negroes quarreled with a white farmer and left him lying unconscious from a blow on the head. A posse started in pursuit of the colored men. Shortly after dark yesterday, while one of the searching parties was riding along the public road, fire was opened by the fugitives, and Buckley, a young farmer, was shot dead from his horse.

The posse gave immediate pursuit, and a negro named Jones was captured and shot to death.

MRS. JAMES SCHOOLCRAFT SHERMAN.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 27.—(Special.)—Mrs. James Schoolcraft Sherman, wife of Vice-President Sherman, is in the Johns Hopkins Hospital, this city, seriously ill. She has been in the institution since last Friday, but the cause of her illness is not definitely known. She is under the care of Dr. William S. Thayer, who said he will diagnose her case tomorrow morning. Vice-President Sherman arrived in Baltimore immediately after the adjournment of Congress Saturday night and kept a ceaseless vigil at the bedside of his wife all Saturday night, when she had a relapse, and all day Sunday.

Mrs. Sherman was brought to this city on a special train Friday and hurried to the hospital in a closed automobile, which was in waiting at the Union station. Every effort was made to keep the matter from the public.

FATE IS IN DOUBT

State Department Is Silent About Porter Charlton.

PRISONER NEAR COLLAPSE

Wife-Murderer Declared by Allentown to Be Demented—Italian Government Making Efforts to Secure Young Man's Extradition.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Although word comes from Rome that the Italian government has decided to ask for the extradition of Porter Charlton, the young wife murderer, the Hudson County (N. J.) authorities who are detaining him as a fugitive have received no advice from the State Department concerning the steps the government will take.

Charlton's arraignment has been set for tomorrow, but it is understood tonight his lawyer will ask for an adjournment. This probably will be granted. Meanwhile, the State Department probably will make known its desires and, unless insanity proceedings are taken, Charlton will be turned over to the Federal authorities if they decide to grant extradition.

The young prisoner is still in a highly nervous state, verging on mental and physical collapse. He eats little, and alternately paces the floor of his cell or attempts to read.

The young prisoner's breakdown of yesterday was followed by a night of sleeplessness with frequent spells when the youth seemed to lose control of himself and to break into sobs and moans.

His condition today was considered worse than last night when Warden Sullivan sent a hurry call for physicians.

Already Charlton has been examined by the group of alienists engaged by his father, Judge Paul Charlton, to determine his mental state, and Dr. W. J. Arlitz, who saw the prisoner when he was in his state of collapse, declared himself confirmed in the opinion he had expressed previously that Charlton was suffering from a form of dementia.

DESPERADO FOUND DYING

Georgian, Who Killed Three and Wounded Three, Taken Alive.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 27.—W. H. Bostwick, the desperado, who killed three men and wounded three at his home near Ocella yesterday, was found dying in his barned home at 4 o'clock this morning when the Fitzgerald Company of the National Guard rushed and captured the house. He expired within an hour. The five children who were in the house when they were rescued and injured. It is supposed a bullet fired during the fight with posse last night struck him. Sheriff J. F. McInnis died today about the same time as Bostwick.

The militia company on arrival today promptly rushed to the house which had been the scene of a fierce fire of bullets all night. For fear of hurting the children, the soldiers did not fire but assembled on all four sides of the house, 200 yards away and at the command "forward" moved upon the place at double-quick time. The first ones kicked in the door and with drawn revolvers entered.

Bostwick was found on the floor unconscious. The children, terrified, huddled near the father, had kept them off the floor all night and thus they had escaped the bullets.

TAFT AIDS VICTIM OF SON'S ACCIDENT

President Asks That Best Surgeon in Boston Attend Man Hit by Auto.

PERSONAL MESSAGE SENT

Nation's Executive Greatly Distressed When He Hears That Robert, Driving Motor Car, Knocks Down Laborer.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—President Taft was greatly distressed when he learned of his son's unfortunate automobile accident at Beverly, Mass., today. While motoring in the Taft car, the President's son, Robert, who was at the wheel, ran down a laborer, seriously injuring him.

The President immediately sent a telegram to his son, the text of which was private, but which is said to have contained instructions to do everything possible for the injured man. The following message was sent to an old college friend of the President.

"Samuel Carr, Boston, Mass.—By an unfortunate automobile accident at Beverly, my son Robert struck a street laborer, fracturing his skull. He is at Beverly hospital. Will you not call up by telephone, the best surgeon in Boston and have him visit the hospital at once and tender services to the resident physician and do all he can for the injured man."

"W. H. TAFT."

The President then sent a personal telegram to the injured man expressing his profound regret over the accident and conveying to the victim his earnest hope of a speedy recovery. This telegram was not made public.

YOUNG TAFT'S AUTO HITS MAN

Surgeons Fear Victim of Accident Has Fractured Skull.

BEVERLY, Mass., June 27.—One of President Taft's automobiles, driven by his son, Robert A. Taft, ran over and seriously injured an Italian street laborer today. At the hospital it was said there were indications that the workman's skull was fractured.

Robert Taft, with two college friends, Lester King, of Minneapolis, and George Harrison, of Washington, started out this morning for a spin along the Massachusetts North Shore. Robert, who has been driving the car about the city considerably since his arrival last week, was at the wheel when the accident occurred.

At Prides Crossing, about two miles from home, the streets were being oiled. The automobile was slowed down, the horn sounded, and most of the men stepped aside. One of them, however, was not quick enough, and the machine struck him, tossing him into the gutter. He was unconscious when picked up by Robert Taft and his friends. The men said that his name was Michael Phisth-wick.

A physician was summoned, and the injured man sent to the hospital, while the President's son and his friends followed after.

The hospital surgeons said the skull appeared to be fractured and that the victim was in a serious condition. All those who saw the affair said it was purely an accident, that the automobile was going slowly, and that the man stepped directly in front of it.

MOLTEN IRON KILLS TRIO

Score of Other Workmen Injured in Big Steel Plant.

CHICAGO, June 27.—Three men were probably fatally burned and a score of others painfully injured as a result of being splashed with molten metal pouring from a blast furnace of the Gary, Ind., works of the Illinois Steel Company last night. The property loss is estimated at $10,000.

The injured were taken to the company's private hospital. The furnace had just been opened and the string of ladles was ready to pour the molten metal when the train way gave way, and there was no way to plug the furnace or take care of the hot pig iron. It soon spread over an area of about 250 square yards, and a big section of the south end of the building was destroyed.

arrested as a result of a fight on a car. With the 6 o'clock rush to work tomorrow morning, more trouble is looked for. General Manager Dean states that he proposes to keep at it trying to collect those extra nickels, and the commuters say they will pursue the present tactics all Summer if necessary. It is likely the company will try to somehow appeal to the Federal courts today.

"The Twins" at Lyric Theater

"THE TWINS," another musical melange of the Edward Armstrong Musical Comedy Company, which commenced a week's run at the Lyric Theater yesterday afternoon, is quite as laughable if not as exciting as previous pieces produced by that company. Just as many laughs may be gotten out of it as any other of the musical comedies presented at the little playhouse on the corner of Seventh and Alder streets.

As usual it is one of those "gather-around-closely-friends" pieces, with the chorus featuring. And such a bunch of girls it is! Indeed, aside from the two comedians, and the leading lady and her partner, they are the whole show with emphasis on the show. Jack Hardman, and he looks the part, is in love with pretty Laura Munyon, daughter of Dr. Munyon, a famed surgeon. In an advertisement the doctor offers $10,000 and his daughter's hand in marriage to anyone who will bring to him a wonderful freak of nature that he may operate on it and thus add to his fame.

Fearing that someone may respond to this appeal Hardman rigs up an Irish section hand and a Hebrew peddler as the Siamese twins. He sells them to the doctor for $10,000 and elopes with Laura. Everything goes well throughout for all of the principals save Dr. Munyon and the Siamese twins, the Irishman and the Hebrew.

The "twins" are real funmakers, but the role of Dr. Munyon, as essayed by a person whose name is not printed on the official programme is below even the standard of a cross-roads minstrel. Miss Ethel Davis, leading lady of the company, who is possessed of a really pretty figure and a breezy manner, makes a great hit singing "Whoop La," which is equalled if not exceeded by Miss Clara Howard, singing "Gambou Land."

One of the hits of the performance is a paragon, part dialogue number presented by Ben T. Dillon, Irish comedian and Miss Cassell, a recent addition to the company, entitled "Uppea" and "Lower Pipe." In it there is portrayed in a striking manner the situation in life with reference to those who take it easy and those who must take living as a problem.

PASTOR DONS SHIRTWAIST

Billings Preacher Advises Men in Congregation to Do Likewise.

BILLINGS, Mont., June 27.—(Special.)—Something of an "innovation" in the way of dress in Billings churches came yesterday when Rev. Mr. McCulloch, of the First Presbyterian Church, appeared in the pulpit without his customary Prince Albert and wearing a shirtwaist.

Rev. Mr. McCulloch declared that some improvement should be made to get people to attend religious services, which should at least be as attractive as the baseball diamond. From this time on during warm weather male members of the congregation are invited to attend wearing shirtwaists.

CHICAGO, June 27.—Within sight of a score of women and children, Antonio Viji, 20 years old, and his cousin, George Viji, 25 years old, were drowned by the Grand Calumet River at Gary, Ind., yesterday. George Viji was swimming and was seized with cramps. His cousin plunged into the water to save him. He attempted to drag him to the shore, but the drowning man grabbed him about the throat and the two sank.
