PROMINENT MEN HONORED

Governor Hughes Cheered to Echo When Given Degree-J. Pierpont Morgan and ex-Ambassador Porter Lauded -- T. R. Talks.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 29 .- Guest and host in one, Theodore Roosevelt brought energy and animation to Commencement day at Harvard University

The cheers that marked his passage The cheers that marked his passage among the buildings of the ancient yard indicated his position as chief guest of the day, while his presence at the head of the table at the commencement luncheon in Memorial Hall was the token that he was host by virtue of his office of president of the Harvard Alumni Association. It was "Roosevelt of the class of 1880" today and he had a busy time shaking hands with old college friends.

Prominent Men Honored.

When Governor Hughes, of New York, received his honorary degree in Sanders Hall, the audience burst into great cheers and applause. J. Plerpont Morgan, the New York financier, and General Horace Porter, ex-Ambassador to France, also were awarded honorary Nearly a thousand young men re-reived their diplomas today. Colonel Roosevelt tonight went to Nahant as guest of Senator Lodge.

In opening the alumni meeting, Colpnel Roosevelt said in part:
"In the first place, I come home with an increased and hearty friendship and good will for other countries. I have visited many different nations, and the more I see of decent people of other more I see of decent people of other nationalities the more I realize the truth of Abraham Lincoln's statement that there is a deal of human nature in mankind. A good man is a good man anywhere and a scoundrel ought to be made to pay the penalty of his scoundrelism, whatever his hirthplace or nationality. And, with that feeling, there has come a constantly increas ing understanding on my part that the man who wishes to be a good citizen of the world must first and foremost be a good citizen of his own nation.

T. R. Appreciates World's Honors.

"I have been given honorary degrees in sertain foreign universities on the continent of Europe and in Egypt. I am deeply grateful therefor; I appreciate the honor. It was the keenest pleasure to me to visit those universities. I admire them with all my heart. And now, having said that, you will not misunderstand me when I say that I come back feeling more truly than ever that the place for a man truly than ever that the place for a man to be educated is in his own home country. Let him be sent to school and university here in the United States. If he has a chance to take a post-graduate course elsewhere, according as his tastes and needs dictate, good; but let him have the foundations laid here where his citithe foundations laid here, where his citi-cenship must be exercised.

Let me also point out that you cannot be useful abroad unless you have the respect abroad that only comes of your usefulness being proved at home. No usefulness being proved at home. No man ought to receive or will receive re-spect abroad unless as an American he has won his spurs in American life.
"I trust I need not say I speak in no spirit of mere chauvanism. On the contrary, I speak as I have said, from the standpoint of one who sincerely admires other nations, who has a sense of grate-ful appreciation of what they have done ful appreciation of what they have done for him, but whom is more than ever convinced that to be useful to the world at large it is necessary, first, to be bone of your bone and blood of your blood, a citizen of your own country, dealing with your own countrymen, able to do your duty to the fullest extent in dealing with the problems your fellow countrymen have to solve.

have to solve.

University's Work Grand.

'It is important this university should it should turn out men able to do, to the llest extent what is required of them the complex needs of American citizenship, and remember always, that your power to show respect to others will de-pend largely on your own self-respect. In the days when America mistrusted itself. America felt bound to assert itself rather loudly in the face of foreign nations. "The greater America's confidence grows in itself, the more America be-comes strong and able to hold her own in the face of any nation of the earth, the more ready America will become to treat each and every nation in a spirit of the fullest cordiality and friendship and the less apt she will be to take offenses, not merely needlessly, but to take offense when there is some small need, but not enough to warrant losing one's temper.

"The admission of inferiority in the face of another power is often rendered. face of another power is often rendered as evident by over quickness to resent a fancied slight as it is by a tendency to bow down to the other power and America has reached the position when the need show neither one nor the other form of admission of inferiority.

All Look Up to "America."

"One more word and then I am "One more word and then I am through. I was struck by two things everywhere I traveled abroad. One was that the name 'America' stood as a golden symbol of hope for all who felt they were downtroaden, that through no fault of their own they had falled to receive the justice to which they were entitled in life. The name 'America' stood as a symbol of aspiration, of the possibility of realizing ideals according to which every man, rich and poor.

possibility of realizing ideals according to which every man, rich and poor, should be treated on his worth as a man and should be given an opportunity to show that worth and to be judged as he succeeds in showing it.

"Now, you Harvard men here, you men of America, if you won't see that your house is put in order for your own sakes, I suppose it would be useless to ask you to put it in order for the sake of other men; and yet I cannot imagine a more

METHODISTS ARE SCORED

St. Paul Prelate Declares "Go-Between" Conspired to Defeat Understanding Which Was Sure to Have Been Reached.

NEW YORK, June 29. - Responding MAN DIVES UNDER WHEELS to the address of the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopai Church issued May 16, Archbishop Ireland con-tributes to the forthcoming issue of the North American Review an extended article upon the Methodist Epis-copal Church in Italy, reviewing the statement of the Methodist bishops and justifying the action of the Vatican in connection with Colonel Roosevelt.

He quotes extensively from the writings of Methodist missionaries, bishops and newspapers in Italy attacking the papacy, and sets forth that each visit of a public man of America to the Methodist college in Rome has been selzed upon by the local representa-tives of the Methodist Church as an open in greeting Mr. Roosevelt.

"So, in reply to Mr. Roosevelt's request for an audience, a message was sent, courteous and confidential, acceding, of course, to the request, yet intimating the unpleasant position to which the Vatican should be reduced were there the least peril that what had happened to Mr. Low and to Mr. Feirbanks by any miscalculation or Fairbanks, by any miscalculation or oversight, would happen to him. The more illustrious the visitor, the more was he to be put on his guard.

Vatican Message Unfortunate.

"Unfortunately, the message of the Vatican reached Mr. Roosevelt under the cover of comments from the hand of the American Ambassador to the quiri-nal and was read in the glare of those comments. Certainly the situation was perplexing. With the comments of Mr. Leishman under his eyes, the answer given by Mr. Roosevelt is not a sur-prise to Americans.
"Subsequent development brought fur-ther confusion. There were other and yet more embarrassing comments from Mr. Leishman to Mr. Roosevelt; and there was the cavaller and unwarranted declar-ation of Mr. O'Loughlin to the cardinal that Mr. Roosevelt was just the man to go from the Vatican to the Methodist hall. Circumstances, let us say, conspired to defeat an understanding which was sure to have been reached had Mr. Roosevelt and the cardinal secretary of state come face to face or had they spoken to each other in direct correspondence without hindrance by intermediaries."

"However as things went the correspondence of the correspondence without hindrance by intermediaries."

"However, as things went, the cardinal secretary of state, supremely preoccupied, as it was his duty to be, with the necessity of safeguarding at all hazards the honor of the holy see, was allowed no alternative.

Audience Made Impossible.

"The audience was made impossible. Such was the Roosevelt incident, in which, back of all the immediate cir-cumstances, the one controlling ele-ment was the American Methodist to put it in order for the sake of other men; and yet I cannot imagine a more stirring appeal being made to any people than this well nigh voiceless appeal from those who in other lands have not had the treatment to which they are in justice entitled; who appeal to us to mansage our Republic according to the highest standards of morallty and decency, so that they can keep unshaken their faith in a realizable ideal."

With persons differing from it bearing, the Vatican is always most tolerant, most courteous. But, as was the Savior himself, so is the Vatican severe and intolerant when confronted by the Pharisee and the money-changby the Pharisee and the money-chang-er of the temple."

An East Side Piano Store

Eilers Music House Opens Fine Establishment on Grand Avenue

We take pleasure in announcing the formal opening for active business of our new East Side Store, at 84 Grand Avenue. (Opposite Morgan-Atchley's.)

For some time we have watched the splendid upbuilding of the East Side Business Section. We feel that a strictly up-to-date Piano Store, conducted on the Eilers wellknown "Small Profit and Quick Sales Policy," will be given the support by loyal East Siders to warrant the maintenance of such an establishment.

We've acquired the quarters formerly occupied by J. Roussellot & Co., and have installed a most magnificent assortment of all that is worthiest and best in upright Pianos, Baby Grands, Player Pianos and Organs.

You'll find here the same low-price policy —the same courteous treatment—the same careful attention to detail-which has resulted in Eilers Music House selling annually more Pianos than all other dealers combined. THE ADVANTAGES OF BUYING OF EILERS MUSIC HOUSE

We will sell nothing that we know is not right. When we sell to you it is with the knowledge and the belief that if we satisfy you, you will influence your friends to deal with us. We have utilized every modern economy in order that we might give better value and better satisfaction to our patrons. Buying and shipping in tremendous quantities, factory inspection mendous quantities, factory inspection of planos by our expert representatives, a binding guarantee with every plano sold, a corps of expert tuners and regulators—all these have contributed toward making the big following we now have and making our business what it now is.

As the plano purchaser knows the advantages in buying from the Eilers stores, so the manufacturer realizes the advantage in selling through the Eilers stores. No three plano stores in any large city combined, can offer the plano purchaser more variety and merit in plano manufacture than we do.

From America's oldest and supremethe grand old Chickering—to the genuine Planola Plano—the newest creation—there is scarcely a name, well and favorably known in the plano trade, that does not find representation in the Eilers stores. The Weber, the favorite of the most appreciative musicians; the world-renowned Kimball; the cians; the world-renowned Kimball; the rich-toned and durable Lester; that aristocrat of pianos, the Hazelton; the genuine old Decker; the old reliable genuine old Decker; the old reliable Schumann; the artistic Hobart M. Cable; the Marshall & Wendell; the Story & Clark—all these, and many others, are significant guarantees of piano excellence.

To buy a piano of the Eliers stores means to have the service of piano experts in making the selection for you—it means a guarantee which insures you against disappointment in any way, and best of all, it means that you are enabled to secure a high-grade you are enabled to secure a high-grade plane for the money that would other-wise be paid for an inferior instrument.
