DETECTIVES EVADE WRIT Clamoring of Accused Forger Stilled by Hurry Trip to Vancouver.

Quick work on the part of the Portland detective force yesterday prevented a probable appeal to the upper courts for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of George H. Townsend, an alleged forger from St. Paul. Townsend was arrested here more than a week ago on telegraphic advices from St. Paul, and his case has been continued in police court from day to day.

The Minnesota authorities have been dilatory in sending for Townsend, and it was not until last Wednesday that the officers here were notified that an officer had started from St. Paul. Deputy Sheriff Cook arrived from St. Paul Thursday night. He found that his prisoner was severely ill in St. Vincent Hospital and had intended to wait a few days until he could be moved with comfort. Learning yesterday that Townsend was beginning to clamor for action in his case and that he had sent for an attorney, the Minnesota officer secured an automobile and taking Townsend from his cot in the hospital, whisked him across
