Beverly Conference Indicates Colonel's Policy to Be to Withhold Advice.

NEW VISIT NOT EXPECTED

Whether Ballinger-Pinchot Controversy Was Discussed Thursday Is Not Learned-No Comment Made as to Politics.

BEVERLY, Mass., July 1 .- Yesterlay's interview between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt seems to indicate that the Colonel is not to be regarded in the light of adviser of the President in public affairs. Though it is not known to the world what topics the two discussed, the whole tenor of the meeting was against the theory that the Colonel sought to give advice, or that the President sought it. It was a meeting of old-time friends, who regard each other highly—and although some serious subjects might naturally have been talked over, there was, upon the whole no indication that there was the whole, no indication that there was planning for the future, or that the Colonel is to have any place of the na-ture of "unofficial Cabinet member."

Politics, if they entered into the discussion, did so in only a casual way. This gave rise early today to the report that Colonel Roosevelt had engaged to come to Reverly again this Summer. But Colonel Roosevelt denied that he had any such plan in mind.

Considerable interest has centered in the effect that the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy might have had on the re-lations between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt. Nothing could be learned either last night or today as to wheth-er this controversy was discussed. President Taft played golf again this EMPLOYERS MAKE SOCIETY EVENT OF CEREMONY.

Big Cake Is Feature of Wedding Supper at Home of Wealthy Los Angeles Physician.

LOS ANGELES, July 1 .- (Special.)-At the home of Dr. W. J. Barlow, 2329 South Grand avenue, tonight, a pretty wedding was celebrated, the culmination of a romance between Miss Christine Lindstrom, the Barlow cook, and William Filgate, the family gardener. The ceremony took place in the handsome parlor of the Barlow home, and was followed by a wedding supper, the main feature of which was a big cake, the gift of Dr. and Mrs. Bar-low. The doctor and his wife, attired in evening dress, made a real society event of the occasion, some of the city's most prominent society folk be-ing invited guests.

Filgate, the groom, has been in the employ of Dr. Barlow, a wealthy and noted physician, for five years as foreman of the ranch at Sierra Madre. The bride, who is a type of fair-haired Norse beauty, has been in the employ of the family for six years.

Both will continue their service in the employ of Dr. and Mrs. Barlow.

-When George West, a civil engineer of Seattle, concluded to take a wife be went to Paris, Ont., and applied for a job with the Penman Woolen Company.

West worked for half a day, devoting most of his attention to the 1909 girls engaged at the factory. Along about noon he saw Miss Piorence McMillan, one of the company's importation of girls of the company's importation of girls from England, and decided she'd do. Having secured her address, he left the mills, called upon her the next evening, and the following day Rev. Canon Brown performed the ceremony which made them man and wife.

West refunded to the Penman Company the $80 advanced for his bride's passage from England to Paris. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs .West left for Seattle.

GIRL, SET ADRIFT, SUES Admirer Abandons Young Woman in Boat for Refusing Kiss.

BALTIMORE, July 1. — Miss Mary Donaldson wants $5000 damages from James Walsh because of alleged cruel treatment while taking a boat ride. Walsh invited Miss Donaldson to accompany him to Miller's Island, and while there they went for a row on the river. When some distance out Walsh, according to the young woman, insisted upon having a kiss, and when this was refused he threatened to overturn the boat. When she still refused he took the oars from her and cast her adrift, she says.

The bill gives no explanation of what happened subsequently, or how Walsh himself reached shore. This is to be explained when Miss Donaldson is summoned to testify.
