WOMAN RECOVERS RAPIDLY

Divorced Wife, Shot by Bolen, to Be Out in Few Days.

Rapid recovery is being made by the divorced wife of S. T. Bolen, Edna Adams, who was shot by Bolen in the Portland Hotel grill Thursday night, just before the man turned the revolver upon himself and took his own life.

The wounded woman is at Good Samaritan Hospital, and unless unfore-

POSTAL RECEIPTS GROW

Portland Gains 17.27 Per Cent; Seattle Figure Is Much Less.

Regarded as reflecting a true comparison of the business activity of the two cities, Portland postal receipts were being compared yesterday with those of Seattle. Portland made an average gain of 17.27 per cent in the first six months of 1910, as compared with the same period last year, and DEER PLentiful; Law Violated.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., July 1.—(Special).—Reports come from persons camping in the woods on the west side of the Upper Klamath Lake that deer are more plentiful this season than for several years. Reports also come of the disregard of the game laws, and the Deputy Game Warden have been busy trying to run down some of those who are suspected of killing the deer out of season. The buck deer season does not open here until August 19.

Oats Over Six Feet High.

CHEWAWA, Or., July 1.—(Special).—The Chewawa Indian School has a stand of 14 acres of white spring side oats that measures an average of 6 feet 5 inches in height. One stack, taken at random, has 21 stalks. The berries are heavy and well filled, one stem having 217 kernels.
