40,000 SEE PARADE

Vancouver Is Royal Host on Fourth of July.

SENATOR WILSON ORATOR

Spanish-American War Veterans Awarded Prize for Largest Marching Body With 86 in Line—Celebration Success.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 4.—(Special.)—Never before in the history of Vancouver was the Fourth of July celebration as great a success as the one held today. It is estimated that nearly 40,000 persons were in the city, but with all this crowd, there was not a serious accident.

In the morning, a monster parade, in which over 1000 persons took part, was held. The First Infantry Band and the Vancouver city band furnished music. All of the soldiers in the post were in line with their guns, and the Second Field Artillery with its mountain batteries took part.

The prize for the largest marching body was awarded to the Spanish-American War Veterans, who had 86 in line. The Elks, wearing linen dusters and small hats, much resembling fried eggs straight up, were 65 strong. The best woman's mount was won by Miss Avan; the M. R. Sparks automobile with a number of girls won the prize for the best decorated machine, E. G. Crawford second, and William Du Bois third.

The United Artisans had the best float and the B. & M. Grocery took first prize for the best business float; the Central Manufacturing Company second, and Kong Loy, a Chinese gardener, third. The best double drivers were owned and driven by Charles McCafferty Miss De Yarmon led the best Jersey cow, and Rector & Daly won the four-horse team prizes. The neatest dressed newsboy was Leslie Vance, 7 years old.

The judges of the parade were Mrs. Leo McGuire, Mrs. F. S. Palmer, M. M. Connor, Del Hildreth, and N. W. Merrifield.

The Grand Army veterans and the Women's Relief Corps took prominent parts in the parade.

Following the parade, Senator Wilson of Seattle delivered an eloquent address to a large audience in the city park, and his remarks were punctuated at intervals by explosions of firecrackers.

The general committee was: J. J. Padden, president; William N. Marshall, secretary; M. S. Cohen, treasurer, W. E. Carter, C. C. Turley, Thomas P. Clarke, C. D. Hayes, A. W. Calder, F. C. Leathers, Jacob Westhoff, Lloyd Davis, B. A. de Yarmon, L. Lloyd du Bois, A. B. Eastham, A. J. Dorland, Leo S. McGuire and William du Bois.

In the afternoon the motorboat races, under the auspices of the Vancouver Yacht Club and the Portland Motorboat Club, occupied the time.

About 4 o'clock a Portland automobilist on the ferry slip attempted to crank his machine and the brake did not hold it when the engine started. The machine dashed down the incline through a large crowd of people and narrowly missed injuring a number. Officer Adams, 6 feet and 5 inches tall, attempted to hold the machine, but was crowded against the side of the embankment and his legs were seriously bruised.

Guy Bennett, a member of the Vancouver Yacht Club, was starting from the bank to the judge's scow in the Columbia when Henry Bird, a Vancouver jeweler, jumped into the boat and upset them both. The day was warm and the water wet, and the thousands looking on enjoyed a good laugh on the couple as they splashed around in the water, but they were not injured.

BIG CROWDS THRONG EUGENE

Celebration Is Best One in History of Lane County Town.

EUGENE, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—In point of attendance and interest, Eugene has had one of the best celebrations in its history. The programme for the day included a good parade, consisting largely of floats and decorated automobiles and carriages. The oration was delivered by O. P. Coshow and the Declaration was read by Professor Joseph Schaefer.

Daylight fireworks were a new feature of the celebration. A fair crowd attended the sports and races at the fair grounds this afternoon, but hundreds remained downtown to get the report of the fight.

In Eugene were scores of men who have met Jeffries, and when the flash was read that Johnson had won, the disappointed crowd dispersed without a cheer for the victor. The contest was bulletined by both the Guard and Register.

Order was almost perfect in spite of the large crowds, and only one arrest was made.

CHEHALIS HAS BIG CROWD

Sane Fourth Is Celebrated With Old-Time Enthusiasm.

CHEHALIS, Wash., July 4.—(Special.)—Chehalis observed the Fourth of July with one of the biggest celebrations in the history of the city. There was a parade at 11 o'clock, followed by a patriotic programme at the Glide, where General J. M. Ashton, of Tacoma, was the orator of the day.

The Chehalis band appeared in new uniforms, and the State Training School band also furnished music. Many decorated autos were in the parade.

Following the noon hour there were sports of all kinds on the streets.

The baseball game at Millett Field, at 3:30, attracted a crowd that taxed the capacity of the great grandstand. At night there were dances, moving picture shows, street vaudeville and other amusements. The city ordinances prohibiting the firing of explosives of all kinds, including firecrackers, was enforced.

ALBANY'S CROWD IS 20,000

Linn County's Metropolis Holds Monster Celebration.

ALBANY, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—Twenty thousand people celebrated the Nation's birthday in Albany today in one of the biggest celebrations ever held in the Willamette Valley. Big crowds came from all nearby towns, and from all parts of the surrounding country.

The parade this forenoon was by far the best ever seen here. Scores of decorated automobiles and numerous floats were the leading features. Following the parade a patriotic programme was held in Chautauqua Park Percy R. Kelly, of Albany, was orator of the day, and delivered a splendid oration. The afternoon was devoted to baseball games, races and athletic sports. The principal contest was an old-fashioned horse race. The Corvallis fire department won from the Albany fire department in this event, the Corvallis team running two blocks and getting water in 31 seconds, defeating Albany by four seconds.

The celebration closed tonight with a grand display of fireworks. The Albany-Corvallis and Shedds bands furnished music for the celebration. No accidents marred the day.

TRIO INJURED IN SEATTLE

Fourth Celebration Claims Victims Before Day Dawns.

SEATTLE, July 4.—Before the dawn of Independence day three people had suffered serious injuries in Fourth of July accidents in Seattle. One of these, John Vant, aged 15, will probably lose the sight of his right eye as the result of injuries sustained when a cracker which had failed to explode blew up in his hand, burning his face.

Ephraim Charland, aged 16, was the victim of a "didn't-know-it-was-loaded" accident. His chum, 17-year-old Elmer Elliott, played Tracy, the bandit, and Charland failed to throw up his hands. He received a .32-caliber revolver bullet in the side of his head. Physicians say the wound is not dangerous.

Augustus Boffies, 19 years old, was taken to the city hospital last night with a badly mangled hand, injured when a giant cracker exploded prematurely. The hand can be saved.

ROSEBURG HONORS FOURTH

Grand Celebration Held Under Auspices of W. C. T. U.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—Independence day was generally observed in this city, with a grand celebration at the fair grounds under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of Douglas County. The weather was ideal. Promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning occurred the parade, in which were displayed numerous floats, both of humorous and artistic design; members of the various fraternal orders, members of the Roseburg Sunday schools and individuals.

The Fourth of July oration was delivered by W. E. Critchlow, of Portland.

The afternoon programme included foot, sack races and egg races, catching the greased pig, dog races and a target shoot, in which several local marksmen of prominence participated.

Newberg Has Big Celebration.

NEWBERG, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—Independence Day was celebrated in Newberg by a crowd estimated at from 6000 to 10,000 people. At 10 A. M. there was a parade made up of 75 floats, many of pretty design, representing the varied business interests of the city. Hon. D. S. Mulkey, of Jacksonville, was the orator of the day. In the afternoon a baseball game was played between the St. Paul and Columbia Hardware Company teams, the former team winning, 4-0. Fireworks were displayed at night.

Fort Band Appears.

FORT STEVENS, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—Today at noon the Fort Stevens military band appeared for the first time in a public recital. This is the culmination of months of patient effort on the part of Sergeant Hayward and Mr. Utzinger, the instructors. Amid the roar of saluting cannon and the flash of gleaming weapons the Fort Stevens band contributed its part in the salute to the Nation, a ceremony that takes place annually as the sun reaches its zenith on the fourth day of July.

10,000 Attend Celebration.

MOSCOW, Idaho, July 4.—(Special.)—The attendance, parade, amusements and business at today's celebration exceeded all former celebrations held by this city. The attendance was estimated at 10,000. The address by Rev. Jonathan Watson was unique in that he was a native of England, and a naturalized American His discussion from the Englishman's side of the issue of the Revolutionary War was a pleasing innovation.

Colfax Boy Loses Fingers.

COLFAX, Wash., July 4.—Max Berry, the 16-year-old son of L. P. Berry, of Colfax, who was saved from drowning in the Palouse River several days ago by heroic efforts of friends, today came near meeting death by the explosion of a dynamite cap from a short fuse, losing the first two fingers of his hand and the thumb. He had planned to frighten his parents at 4 A. M., having found the dynamite caps in an old building.

Elgin Has Last Noisy Fourth.

ELGIN, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—Elgin today had its last noisy Fourth, as an ordinance against firecrackers and torpedoes is ready for the Mayor's signature, which has been delayed until July 6 on account of the different merchants already having their stocks of noise-making explosives purchased.

No Celebration at Astoria.

ASTORIA, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—There was no general observance of the Fourth here other than that the stores were closed and business was suspended for the day. Large crowds of citizens spent the day at the beaches or at neighboring towns where celebrations were held.

Wouldn't you like to have just a little more ground than you get with the ordinary lot? A place where you can have a garden, that ammonia is something and a place for some chickens, and a cow, too, if you want it? If you would, we would like to show you a place that we have for sale, right on the carline, with electric lights, gas and Bull Run water. There is nearly ¼ of an acre of ground, all cleared, and nicely fenced; the house is all that can be desired—artistic, comfortable and is a real home; 5 rooms down stairs, with bath and toilet; do you know that there is grand enough here to give anyone a good living if cared for properly? We would like to have you investigate this.
