Few Mishaps Mar Excursion of Portland Folks, and They Enjoy Themselves Hugely as Guests of Promoters of Resort.

Dust begrimed, sunburned, tired but smiling, 100 motorists of the Portland Automobile Club returned last night from the annual club run. Four days were spent, the club men and their quests spent, the club men and their quests leaving here last Saturday morning at 7:30 o'clock in 21 machines.

At 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening Tillamock iCty was reached, though two stops were made en route, consuming two and a half hours, the distance of 112 miles by wagon road being easily negotiated. The first stop was at McMinnville, where the leading members of the party were formally placed under arrest in a charge of speeding, and sentenced to be entertained a short time, jointly by the Commercial Club and the Civic Improvement Association, the latter a woman's organization. tion, the latter a woman's organization.
Sandwiches and coffee were served. McMinnville was reached at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The next stop was at Dolph, just inside the Tillamook County ine, where luncheon was served.

Few Accidents Mar.

The course of the trip both ways was marked by but few accidents for so large For 23 Innings Texas Teams Battle an excursion. On the trip down the machine of Thomas West, through the stripping of its gear, was put out of commission. By distributing the members of his party around in the other oars, however, the trip was continued.

Members of the party who returned last night say it was the greatest trip in the history of the local club This opinion was unanimously expressed.

Celebration Is Held.

Three nights and two days were spent Three nights and two days were spent at Bayocean. Monday, the Fourth, was a day of intense excitement. A great celebration had been planned and Tillamook City and the three or four smaller towns on Tillamook Bay emptied their population onto the peninsula known as Baybeen, to participate.

Arrangements were made to receive news of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in perhaps the oddest manner anywhere in the

This was the arrangment: There being no telephone at Bayocean or telegraphic equipment, it was necessary to get the news from Bay City, just across the bay, which has communication with the outside world through a singlewire telephone. It was agreed should Jeffries win the great American flag holsted on the beach in front of the town should be hoisted higher still and if should win it was to be lowered Crowds Watch Flag.

The crowds at Bayocean looked through their glasses across the bay, anxiously watching for some movement of the flag up or down. Suddenly there was a cry:
"The flag is going down; Johnson

"Johnson wins." was the chorus.
Gloom settled over the camp immediately, but there were those who reintensified the gloom for a time.

It is estimated the entertainment of the Automobile Club by the Potter Company must have cost in the neigh-berhood of $3000. About 40 handsome, well-built tents had been provided and nothing was wanting in the way of Monday night a fireworks display was given, which compared favorably with an original Pain's display. Danc ing, surfbailing, baseball, a sports of various kinds and amusements were provided.

Moore Heads First Party.

C. H. Moore, commercial manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Com-pany; W. A. Illidge, Mrs. William King and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenning, were the first to arrive in Portland last night They left Bay Ocear Monday night, in order to get an early start from Tilla-mook yesterday morning. The party left Tillamook at 8 o'clock and arrived in Portland at 5 P. BIG FOUR DEATH LIST 21

Member of Crew Declares That Orders Gave No Indication Another Train Was to Be Met Between Dayton and Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 5.-Interest in yesterday's disastrous wreck at Middle-town, O., in which more than a score of lives were lost, was transferred to this city today. A statement from Ed J. African Blacks Said to Be Preparing to Fight.

BRITAIN'S PROBLEM GRAVE

Ending of Tribal Troubles Has United Natives, Who Are Now Serious Menace to White Population of Large Area.

LONDONS. July 5 .- (Special)-"There is a great native war coming— perhaps this year, within a few weeks, as soon as the new crops have been threshed and the grain hidden in the hills; perhaps in May or June of next year; perhaps a year later on.
No man living can say exactly when it will break out; but if a man says it will not come, set him down for a liar or a fool." These are the words liar or a fool." These are the words of Stanley Portal Hyatt, a recognized authority on South Africa, who has lived for many years among the na-

Clearly the greatest problem before Viscount Gladstone, the first Governor-General of United South Africa, and the union government of Premier Botha is this black problem. The question is, "What is to be the future status of the South African native?"

Hitherto native wars in Africa have been with, or between, different tribes, but today there is a united black na-tion making common cause against the hated white man. Many of the centers of danger are to be found in the Ethi-opian Church, a Christian organization, with scores of American negroes as its pillars. Politically, they all have a superficial civilization, but socially, they are barbarians, and in the field they would be entirely savages.

The country is up against a hard proposition. The stoppage of tribal wars has resulted in a tremendous increase in native population, and now that the continent is more thickly settled, there is not the same opportunity for retreat to the norhward away from the march of civilization. The Cape-to-Cairo Railway has sounded the end of that period. Blacks are overflowing from the reservations and the races are being pitted in closer opposition every day. The whites restrict the native rights; the blacks are envious of the white men's farms.

Bechuanaland and Basutoland are to a large extent independent, but the blacks fear the union government will open these territories to white settle-ment. The natives of those regions have modern arms and could put an army of 30,000 well-mounted and equipped warriors into the field in less than a week. There alone is enough tinder to start a huge blaze, and all over South Africa the black hordes wait ready to leap to the conflict at the first chance of concerted action.

CO-PARTNERSHIP LUXURIES GO TO SUBURBAN DWELLERS.

Hampstead Is Scene of Latest Experiment by People With Incomes of $3000 to $5000.

LONDON, July 5 - (Special.) - The latest co-partnership scheme in England is for peole with incomes of $3500 to $5000 a year to combine to build themselves houses. Poorer people are more sociable in the British capital than the comparatively well-off residents, who belong to a class that strives much at exculsive-ness and aloofness. They have hither-to been shy about going into a general scheme, but the success of enter-prises such as garden cities has led J. F. L. Brunner, a rich Liberal member of Parliament, and others to make a trial of this new scheme.

Hampstead, on the northern side of London, will be the scene of the experiment. Ground has been acquired close to the famous Heath. There houses are built at rents ranging from 1250 to 8500 a year with about 20 per $350 to $500 a year, with about 30 per cent additional cost in local taxes They have six to ten bedrooms and some have already been let in advance. the estate will be run by he tenants for their mutual benefit, each being a shareholder in his neighbor's dwelling. They even carry the apostolic injunc-tion to have "all things in common among them" to the point of including their horticultural implements. Six ten ants, for instance, are joint owners of one garden roller. They did not know each other till a few days ago. And unkind critics say they are carrying co-partnership to a degree that will result in their not knowing each other again very shortly.

Not far away is another experiment at Finchley, specially designed to re-lease the housewife from toll. A new estate is being laid out in which the star feature will be a central hall. All the houses are to be connected with it by a covered way. There the housewife will be able to have her meals cooked and served, her children cared for, her servants provided or her entertain-ments arranged. For three dollars a week under this co-operative system, the central hall will provide three meals a day for a week for any member of a family. It is to be ideal house-keeping, shorn of all the worries but replete with all the comforts. At least, so the promoters say.
