

BADE OF 4 LIKES BIG PRIZE FIGHT

Seattle Lad of Four Hopes to Be "Scrapper" Some Day Like Jeffries.

FAIR SEX SORRY FOR WHITE

Feminine Spectators at Reno Battle Express Opinions—Mrs. Jack Johnson Says Rabbit's Foot Won for Colored Husband.

RENO, Nev., July 4.—(Special)—"The fight was awfully buggy, wasn't it?"

This was the comment of four-year-old Teddie Stevens, seventh avenue, Seattle, who has just seen the fight which occupied a $50-ringside seat.

"You know the fight was lovely, Mister Jeff fought nasty and mugged and I wish the nigger man had bludded a lot, too."

"I hope, Bud," (this is the boy's father) "will teach me how to fight, too. I want to have a lot of people come to see me."

"Did you like it," he was asked. "Of course I did," he replied. "Mumme didn't want me to come, but Bud said I was his big boy and I came. I am awfully hungry. Can I get an ice cream cone?"

The following are a few opinions gathered among women in the crowd at the ring, most of those at the ringside occupying the best seats:

Mrs. Ned McBride, Portland—Had I a gun as Johnson left the arena, I should certainly have shot him. Had I one as he passed me on his way to the ring I would have done the same.

I am a Southerner, Johnson is a monkey, not a man. He is not a specimen of the negroes; he is but a freak. Jeffries had no right to fight him. Did you see anyone applaud him? No; they just hated to see him.

Mrs. H. R. McDowell, Portland—Why, I never saw the fight. I just came in to look at the arena. No, I have nothing to say. Please don't use my name.

Mrs. Tim McGrath, San Francisco—It was a scientific and not a brutal scrap. The best man won, of course, but it is a pity that Johnson is a Jew. I was Jeff's friend, but I can't be the friend of a beaten man.

As Mrs. Jack Johnson left the arena she said in reply to the question of the Oregonian reporter: "Why, it was just fine. You see I brought him good luck," and she held up a rabbit foot hung by a little gold chain to her wrist.

"Mr. Johnson was the best man. He was a gentleman and a fighter, and he won. He's my husband, too."

Mrs. Henry Letzkowich, wife of editor Letzkowich, of San Francisco—I saw Jeff tire in the eighth round. I knew then he would be defeated. This is my first fight, but I have always come to see prize fights. I am sure I could always judge the fighters that way.

Poor Jeff; he was a good fighter, but he cannot beat Johnson.

Sobs Halt Mrs. Rickard. Mrs. Tex Rickard could not speak because of her sobs.

Mrs. Harry Lewison, of Chicago, (in Mrs. Rickard's arms) I don't want to see it? I am really sorry Jeff didn't last longer. Don't you think he seemed rather a quitter? He was only knocked down three times. Why didn't he hit harder?

Mrs. L. H. Parker and Mrs. C. L. Hume, of Houston, Tex.—Both men are splendid. I cannot help feeling sorry for Mr. Jeffries. It was such a plucky thing for him to try and beat the black man. He did his best; we must be satisfied with that.

Miss Bettina Williamson, of Louisville, Ky., and Akron, Ohio—The best fighter but not the best man. I hate Johnson, and, although Jeffries is defeated, he has my best wishes and respect. He is a real man; the black man is a fighting machine. I think Mr. Johnson ought to be ashamed of herself.

Mrs. Peckham Says 'Twas Accident. Mrs. Black Savvy Peckham, of New York—It makes me sick, for I wanted to see Jeffries win. Perhaps he'll try again. It was an accident, anyway.

Mrs. Lizzie Dunlop, of San Francisco—It was great. Jeff could not win; he had been out too long. I visited both fighters' camps in the steam train. I thought Jeff in splendid shape, but when I saw Johnson I knew I had picked the winner. I have watched fights for five years. I am afraid there won't be a chance again.

Mrs. Lulu Bickerstaff, of New York—I came especially to Reno to see this fight, although I had an engagement elsewhere on Broadway. It was not J. J. Jeffries' fight; the battle was Jack Johnson's. Jeffries has been out too long. I am sorry for him but—

Billy Swope—A rattling good scrap. The man who trained won; the man who did not, got it in the eye—and that's what counted.

"Judge" Wolfe—A good battle. Just the same old story.

John Cordano—The battle is over. Jeff lost through the same old reason. From the fifth round it was over. Jeff knew it sooner.

Bob Fitzsimmons, who was with some of the Portland men—I am too sick to talk.

E. Gildner—Jeff never had a "look in." This thing of coming back did not work. Jeff could not do it because he was not strong enough. His blows had no stamina and he could not stay long enough.

Sullivan Was Right. G. W. Hubbard—John L. Sullivan was right. Jeff could not come back. He said so himself at the end of the scrap. He was weak at the seventh and he had no steam behind his blows. He was too old. He tried to come back once too often. He made the mistake they all make in that respect.

Fred Fitz—The best man won. Jeff never had a look in from round one.

Dr. J. P. Dickson—Good fight. A man can't do much. Jeff tried.

Steve Britton—I am too sick to speak. Nothing to say, except to be sorry for the whiter man in gloves.

Harry Litt—Bully, but it's what those who knew both men in their hearts really expected.

Dr. A. E. Mackay—It was worth anything to see Jeff fight. I am glad I saw it for anything. I am glad I came. I wanted to see Jeff win, but I think the best man and the best fighter has the championship. Johnson was clever and he trained. Jeff tried to defy the accepted order, so he went under. I believe his internal organs went back on him, as the blow that first floored him had no power behind it.

J. J. (Billy) Parker—A great fight; the best man and the best fighter again. If we wanted to be shown, that man who has gone so far can't come back.

P. W. Collins—I seriously doubt whether Jeff saw the day he could beat Johnson. In the black man's present condition, Corbett was nothing to Johnson. He is a wonder and if he keeps on he will be undefeated champion for many years.

T. W. McGovern—Just a case once again of Sullivan and Corbett.

BAN GOES ON PRIZEFIGHTS

Umatilla County District Attorney to Probe Stanfield Bout.

PENDLETON, Or., July 5.—(Special)—No more prizefights or boxing matches are to be permitted in Umatilla County. This was the decree issued today by District Attorney Phelps, who is investigating a boxing match held at Stanfield yesterday, between Barney Mallin, of Sparta, and Walter Burgo, of Boston.

He says if he finds the law was actually violated he will cause the arrest of the principals, the promoters and the officials.

The two men fought 15 fierce rounds to a draw. Burgo's right hand was put out of commission in the fourth round. Mallin was floored once, while he sent his opponent through the ropes and off the arena stage twice in the same round.

Fight men were nearly all in when the final gong sounded.

KING JAMES TAKES BIG EVENT

Jockey Hurt and Horse Breaks Leg in Accident on Empire Track.

EMPIRE CITY RACE TRACK, New York, July 5.—King James, carrying 126 pounds, won the Brighton mile, the feature of the opening at Empire City track today. He was an odds-on favorite at 13 to 20.

A bad accident in the opening race at the far turn, the result of a collision, marred the day's events. Blundara was the first to fall and Elkin fell over her, breaking his leg. He was shot. Jockey Phillipa, who rode Blundara, was removed to the hospital, severely injured.

Fandom at Random

JESSE BARRETT seems to have a jinks following him, for whenever he pitches for Portland the home team is either shutout or held to a low score.

Al Carson pitched a wonderful game for Portland today, as he allowed only two Portland batters to reach first until the ninth. He hit Hitting in the second, and Buddy Ryan singled in the fourth.

In the fourth inning, Ivan Olson made a great stop of Roy Brashear's hot grounder, as he reserved in time to throw the runner out at first.

Norman Brashear was spiked in one of the Monday games and Billy Fisher, the Vernon regular first-sacker, returned to duty. This was Fisher's first appearance in a game since the Hooligans have been here this trip.

Billy Speas is out of the game with a sprained wrist, and George Ort is now playing left field, while Ryan returned to his old patch in center.

Billy Rapps was the pinch-hitter in the ninth yesterday, for he saved the team from a shutout and had Mac been able to clout one safely the score would have been tied.

The players were telling Manager McCredie that Carson had everything yesterday, and before Big Mac went in to hit in the ninth he said he was going to find out what he had. Mac slugged a single to left field and gave the rest of the crowd the laugh.

The way that Los Angeles team is coming to the front is causing the other clubs to sit up and take notice. The Angels have trimmed Oakland and Sacramento to decisively and yesterday pulled into San Francisco in the same manner.

Next week the Oakland team comes to Portland for a series of six games with the Beaver band. The Oaks have slumped some of late and may not prove as troublesome as when McCredie's lads dropped five out of six to them at San Francisco recently.

Al Carson finally came through with a victory over his old team yesterday afternoon. He closed the home guard out for eight innings, and, though Portland scored twice in a belated ninth-inning rally, Brantell stand finish was fruitless, for Vernon had early in the game made three scores off Jesse Garrett.

It was a fast and exciting game from start to finish. In the earlier rounds Carson garnered all the glory by his steadiness on the slab, and the easy fashion in which he disposed of the home batters. The second and third innings were the only sessions in which Portland got a runner on the paths until the ninth.

Carson's first pitch was a slider which threatened temporarily to annihilate the former Beaver.

Ryan Makes Perfect Throw. Three solid hits gave Vernon the first run in the first inning. This tally was chased over after Carlisle had been checked out at the plate on a bunt.

Center, Buddy Ryan making perfect peg to Murray. Carlisle hit and went to second on Stovall's sacrifice. Burrell singled to center and Carlisle was left at the plate as above told, Brantell going to second on the toss. Bert Coy then slammed one past Gus Hettling, and Burrell tallied the first run.

Vernon chalked up no more in the sixth, and Happpicus Hogan forgot all about the large bunches of change he sluffed on the changes of Jimma da Jeff at Ren Stovall led off.

By beating out an infield tap, Burrell sacrificed, and Coy also pulled up safe at first on an infield tap, Stovall taking the lead on a sacrifice.

Roy Brashear aimed a perfect hit to Hettling, who booted it and then threw high to Murray in an effort to catch Stovall at the register. While Bill Fisher was fanning, Ryan skied to second on the toss. Bert Coy then slammed one past Gus Hettling, and Burrell tallied the first run.
