Oakland took the first game of the series with Portland here yesterday because Eugene Krapp "blew up" in the seventh inning, when he walked four men in succession after Swander had doubled, forcing in the only score of the day, and giving Oakland a 2 to 0 decision over the home team.

Krapp's behavior in that seventh inning really looked very much like an exhibition for the fans who had liked to have had a run for their money, and it's a clinch they can't get it when the pitchers and the rest of the team.

Aside from that one inning, however, it was a corking good game. Several sensational stops and throws marked the play of both teams while in the outfield Carroll and Buddy Ryan pulled down one-handed catches of long drives, thus serving to enliven the situation to a great degree.

Ralph Willis, the San Francisco cast-off, was on the hill for the Oakland team, and he served up such a mystifying assortment of curves that the Portland team was almost helpless. Only three Portland players saw first. Gus Fisher and Gus Hettling each rapped out singles, and Fred Casey secured the only pass Willis allowed.

On the other hand the Oaks had men on bases in every inning of the game but the eighth, when the only run came in the seventh. Willis was the only pitcher who Krapp closed them out. In order in the first, the visitors got two men on, and likewise in the succeeding innings Oaklanders were safe on the route toward the register, but Krapp managed to pitch good enough ball until the seventh to prevent scores.

Fast Plays Witnessed.
In the field, Casey and Olson pulled off some nice plays, while the visitors also pulled off their usual number of fine stunts. Captain Wolverton, the Oaks leader and third sacker, is confident that his team is going to trim Portland out of the series for he asserts that Oakland is going into the lead this week and will hold that position to the end of the season.

Tom Steaton or Bill Steaton will pitch for Portland this afternoon, while Wolverton has not announced his man, though he says it may be either Christian or Lively.

UMPIRE'S ACT CAUSES PROTEST
San Francisco Loses Game to Sacramento, 8 to 5.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Sacramento hit the local pitchers hard today and took the opening game here by a score of 8 to 5.

Berry interfered with Perry, who was batting, in the ninth inning and Umpire Van Haltraen gave the batter a base. On account of this act, San Francisco protested the game. The score: R. H. E. Sacramento 8 12 4. San Fran. 5 7 5. Batteries—Whelan and La Longe; Browning, Stewart and Berry.

VANCOUVER THANKS ANNIS
Tacoma Pitcher's Throw Alone Saves Opponents From Shut-Out.

spokane 11; Seattle 7.
SPOKANE, July 12.—Spokane overcame Seattle's early long lead by terrific hitting today. Keener's home run with the bases full was a feature. Norlyke and Cooney got four hits and Esnebe got a home run, a triple and a single. Spokane used four pitchers. Lynch and Adams were put out of the game for kicking. Score: R. H. E. Spokane 11 13 4. Seattle 7 11 3. Batteries—Zackert, Russell and Homeway; Tonnesson, Millillay, Kratzberg, Bonner and Shea.

COBB LATE; DETROIT LOSES

Famous Tiger Doesn't Show Up to Play Till Third Inning.
PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—Poor pitching by the Detroit twirlers enabled Philadelphia to make its four straight over the champions, 6 to 4.
Cobb failed to arrive on the grounds until the third inning, and Manager Egan was forced to discuss the reasons for his late arrival. Pitcher Bender, of Philadelphia, is confined to his home with an attack of stomach trouble and a heavy cold. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 6 4 0. Detroit 4 6 0. Umpires—Coombs and Lapp.

PROTESTED GAMES DECIDED

Lynch Awards One to Boston, Another to New York.
NEW YORK, July 12.—President Lynch of the National League in a decision handed down today declares against the New York club in the matter of the protested game with Boston on July 7, won by the latter 5 to 2.
Before the game a time limit of 6:15 had been set to enable the players to catch a train. The score at the end of the seventh inning stood 5 to 2 in Boston's favor. In the first half of the eighth inning New York made six runs, which were not counted because Boston's half of the inning was not finished before the time limit had expired.
Brooklyn loses in a decision handed down by Lynch covering a protest of the game on June 30, won by New York 2 to 0. Brooklyn maintained that a hit by McElven with a man on base went into the stand and entitled him to a home run, which would have tied the score. Lynch holds that the ball hit the outside of the upper tier of boxes and bounced back into the playing field. Under the circumstances the baseman was not entitled to a home run and the game stands.

Baseball's Biggest Trade on Today.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—Perhaps the biggest trade of the year in baseball is to be announced here on Wednesday, when the Boston National team comes to play Cincinnati a series of four games. It will take from Cincinnati third baseman Hans Lobert, who is considered by many as one of the best infielders of the league, and will bring to Cincinnati Pitcher Cliff Curtis and Shortstop Sweeney, of Boston. This plan has received the official recommendation of President Herrmann, who is now in Detroit.

Another chance to take the lead was snatched by the home team yesterday. McCredie's squad seems able to hold its own, but not to get ahead.

The Sacramento Senators are gingerly up considerably. Yesterday's defeat of the Seals may not be the only reason. The Mohorites are due to receive this week.

Yesterday's game was the second since the Seals returned home that Krapp has lost by one bad inning. He was either rattled or careless in the seventh yesterday.

President Graham sent Umpire Hildebrand here to help out Finney during the Oakland and San Francisco series with Portland. The double umpire system is the best anyhow, so here's hoping the two officials remain.

According to Umpire Hildebrand the Sacramento club will be a stumbling block for most of the ambitious Coast League pennant chasers. Just now the Senators are going strong.

In the sixth inning George Ort was robbed of a three-bagger through a one-handed running catch by Frank Carroll, the Oakland catcher. The runner after the ball at the crack of the bat, and pulled it down with one hand after a hard run. It was a great catch.

Portland's two Guesses were the only batters fortunate enough to get hits off Ralph Willis, the Oakland cast-off, yesterday. Willis had the rest of the team completely at his mercy. Casey was the only other player to get on, and he walked.

Tommy Sheehan is expected to reach Portland this morning, and McCredie will have him in uniform this afternoon. Whether he will play for the former Pittsburgh and Brooklyn player in place of Hettling, McCredie does not say.

"Cute" Cutshaw, the Oakland second sacker, came within a foot of earning $50 by hitting the bull on the left field fence in the fourth inning yesterday. Had the ball not come in the eighth, he would have been the first player to capture the prize on the Portland grounds this season.

Tommy Burns may meet Stanley Ketchal in a 10-round exhibition in Portland next week. Burns is willing, and if Ketchal's consent is forthcoming, the bout will be staged about Friday week.

Big Don Cameron is playing a fine game for the Oaks, and is still the reliable batter. He was earlier in the season. The big fellow has all the pitchers guessing when the sacks are populated, and he is so dangerous he often draws a walk.

The Vernon club did not play yesterday, and dropped in the next to the last hole. Guess that's going some for a league race. However, one or two games makes a decided change in the daily standing of the clubs in this league.

TENNIS STARS ARE COMING

Entry List Growing for Oregon State Tournament.

The entry list for the Oregon state tennis tournament, which begins Monday under the auspices of that institution, will be a large one. It is believed by a large number of names already received by Alms D. Katz, chairman, of the Multnomah Club office. Many outside of Portland players are sending in their entries, as well as the large list of Portlanders who annually play in this tourney.

It remains doubtful whether Miss May Sutton and Miss Hazel Hotchkiss will be here for the tournament. If Miss Sutton does not come the latter may possibly come north to defend her title of Oregon champion woman player, which she has won the last two years.

A number of Northwest crack racketeers will be on hand to compete for the Fiske trophy for men's singles which Brandt Wickersham now holds.
