SON'S BODY BROUGHT HOME

Attorney McCourt Brings Corpse of His Boy From Denver.

United States District Attorney John McCourt and family will arrive in Portland at 10:30 this morning with the body of Wilbur McCourt, youngest son of the official. The little boy died at Denver, Colo., Tuesday, of spinal meningitis.

The party will be immediately transferred to the Oregon Electric Railway and will go to Salem. The funeral will occur at 3 o'clock P. M. Sunday from the home of Mrs. W. F. Boothby, mother of Mrs. McCourt.

Mr. McCourt was in the East on a combined business and pleasure trip and had been accompanied by his family. They were en route to Portland, stopping in various cities which they had never before visited. At Denver 4-year-old Wilbur was suddenly attacked with the dreaded disease and died after a very short illness.

Pleasure Driveway Improved.

EUGENE, Or., July 15.—(Special)—Eugene is to have an improved driveway from Pearl street to the top of Skinner's Butte. This will not only be convenient for the people of Eugene, but will also be a pleasure trip for the tourists, as this road will be so improved as to enable autos and other vehicles to ascend the butte without difficulty and obtain a good view of the city.
